Helen Regal and Forrester Riley Wed

A lovely wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's Catholic church here at 7 a. m. Monday when Miss Helen Regal, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Regal, of Emmet, became the bride of Forrester Riley, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, of O'Neill. Rev. Cyril J. Werner performed the single-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a strand of white pearls and was attired in a white satin gown with long sleeves trimmed in delicate lace. A fingertip veil of white net was held in place by the illusion and seed pearls. The gown had a sweetheart neckline edged in lace, a fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a four-foot train. She carried a white rosary and an arm bouquet of peach gladioli tied with satin ribbon completed her costume.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Jurgensmeier, of O'Neill, wore a floor-length gown of powder blue and a shoulder-length blue net veil held in place from a halo of blue roses. Her corsage was of white gladioli with peach centers.

The bridegroom wore a steel-blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere. His bestman, Edward McManus, wore a dark blue pinstripe suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

The wedding breakfast was served at the M & M cafe for the wedding party and Rev. Werner.

A 1 p. m. dinner and reception was held at the bride's home at Emmet. A three-tiered wedding cake was the centerpiece for the table.

Those present at the dinner were relatives of the bridal couple. An out-of-state guest was Kathryn Boyle, of Long Island, N. Y.

The couple is residing in O'Neill.

Circle to Meet — Circle number 2 of the First Presbyterian Ladies' Guild will have a social meeting Friday afternoon in the basement of the church.
