RECRUITER IS RECRUITED

For six months. John R. Banta, jr., (left), machinist's mate first-class, staunchly did his duty recruiting for the Navy in the San Pedro, Calif., federal building. But somewhere along the line he lost faith in his own sales talk and became easy prey for M-Sgt. Earl Love (right), who high-pressed him into resigning his Navy rank to join the Army as a technical sergeant.

When You and I Were Young — 'Speeding at 20 Per,' Eastbound Passenger Leaps the Tracks

Dr. H. L. Bennett reports that "anthrax in Holt county is about cleaned up." He indicated there might be an isolated case or two but the epidemic is over. He also said that sleeping sickness, which cost the lives of a great number of horses, has also run its course. The prevalence of the disease, however, forced a cancellation of a circus scheduled to show here this week.

George Bowden, 75, died at the home of his son, Harold, at Truman, Minn., Sunday night. Jack Grady has resigned at the Montgomery hardware store and has begun clerking at the Golden Rule store.
