Miss Helen Shaw Weds at St. Patrick's

In a single-ring ceremony Tuesday at 9 a. m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church here, Miss Helen Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shaw, of O'Neill, exchanged nuptial vows with Stanley Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peters, also of O'Neill. Rev. Cyril J. Werner officiated.

The bride wore a long, white-satin gown with a full train and a laced bodice. The fingertip veil hung from a cornice of beaded pearls. She carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of pink-and-white roses. The sweetheart-locket she wore was a gift from her brother, William, who was the bridegroom's bestman.

The matron-of-honor was Miss Bessie Peters, who appeared in a pink formal dress with blue beadwork. She carried pink-and-white carnations.

Mrs. Shaw, the bride's mother, wore black with black accessories and Mrs. Peters, the bridegroom's mother, wore a white dress with black accessories.

A dinner for 54 guests took place at noon at the Shaw residence.

Following a wedding trip, which will include visits to the Black Hills and Yellowstone national park, the newlyweds will reside on a farm near O'Neill.

The bride graduated from O'Neill high school in 1945 and taught in a rural Holt county school. The bridegroom graduated from St. Mary's academy in the 1941 and served 2½ years in the Navy, spending 20 months overseas.

Among the out-of-town guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shaw, of Atkinson; Everett Shaw and family, of Bassett; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hazard, of Newport; Mrs. Frances Shaw, of Bassett; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wagman, of Atkinson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hrnick, of Bee.

George S. Layh, jr., Weds Here Sunday

Miss Karleen Jean Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morgan, of Ainsworth, and George S. Layh, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Layh, of O'Neill, were united in marriage at the Methodist church here Sunday at 2 p. m. Rev. Lloyd Mullis officiated in the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and white gardenias.

The bride's gown was white organdy over taffeta. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and edged in chantilly lace. Her accessories were a single-strand necklace of pearls and a three-strand pearl bracelet. She carried a bouquet of red roses tied with gold streamers.

The bridesmaid was Miss Helen Lessig, of Ainsworth. She was gowned in pink with white accessories.

The bridegroom wore a blue suit. Clayton Layh, brother of the bridegroom, acted as bestman. He wore a dark blue suit. Both wore white carnation boutonnieres.

The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Lloyd Mullis. Miss Patricia L. Sisson sang "Because." She wore a gown of aqua taffeta. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the Friendly club. The table was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Ice cream and cake were served to the guests.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morgan and sons, of Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fry, of Atkinson; Mrs. Grace E. Davis, of Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Benny R. Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf G. Wetzel and Mrs. Mary Wetzel; Mr. and Mrs. George Layh and Velma, all of O'Neill and Mrs. Leon Wetzel, of Lincoln.

The couple left for a short honeymoon to Lincoln. The bride's going-away outfit was a Navy blue dress with white accessories.

Mr. Layh spent 20 months in the Army during World War II, serving in the Pacific.

GOOD HOT WEATHER SPORT

Probably it wasn't exactly fair, but while millions of persons all over the United States were steaming and fuming in the heat wave, these two cuties, Elba Hooper and Marion Charlton by name, were playing Chinese checkers in the deliciously cool waters of a pool at Banff, Alberta, Canada. This does not prove that Chinese checkers cools you off when it's hot. The swimming pool, and maybe even Canada, are the most necessary ingredients for coolness.

GOAT TOURIST GETS AROUND

Against a background of a modern railroad flyer, Charles McCartney, 45, of Mt. Eagle, Ga., takes off from Arlington Heights, Ill., for Green Bay, Wis., on his 13th mission north by goat caravan. With eight goats pulling and four resting behind, McCartney's nondescript vehicle trundles along amiably, if not speedily. He claims it has carried him all over the United States.
