When You and I Were Young —

Matthews Turns Photographer on Cook's Tour of the West

60 YEARS AGO

September 22, 1887

Doc Matthews is branching out into the picture business. He has purchased an amateur photographer's apparatus and on his trip to the mountains will take pictures of the prominent hills, canyons, bears, deer, elk, Indians, cowboys, crossroads saloons, stuffed cubs, etc. We expect to see the Free Press office converted into a dime museum on his return. The Frontier wishes him success in his new business.

Mr. Maring remembered us last week with a ludicrous waltz, which was intended to drive away care and trouble, and in eating that tender and juicy token of friendship, while liquid pleasure runs down our chin and seeds of kindness were falling upon the floor, something seemed to say, kind reader, remember the editor in time of need, for a friend in need is a friend indeed.

O'Neill was well represented at the fair grounds Thursday. Among the most prominent from that place were Postmaster Campbell and wife, M. M. Sullivan and wife, Barney Mullen and wife, B. F. Roberts and wife, T. V. Golden and wife, Miss Mary Long, Dr. P. C. Corrigan, J. B. Deake and M. E. Tierney. — Omaha Herald.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave an oyster supper at McCafferty's hall Tuesday night. Oysters were served many styles and a good many partook. Everything was arranged in a tasty manner and all report an enjoyable time.

50 YEARS AGO

September 23, 1897

W. F. McBride, of this city, and Miss Hattie Husted, of Chambers, were married by Judge McCutchan Wednesday morning. The bride is one of the leading society ladies of the South Fork country and has many friends in that section. The groom is a young man who has resided in this city for years and has a large circle of friends throughout the country.

Will and Ed Purdy were in from Swan Monday. Will informed us that the hunting party got a lot of ducks while out there, but owing to the heat they were unable to keep them and bring them home as evidence of their prowess.

Fred Alberts mounted his bicycle Tuesday morning and started for Omaha. He expects to make the trip in two days and will visit relatives there for about a month before returning.

The great catch made by Meredith at the Short Line depot on last Monday night is deserving of special mention. Single-handed and alone he held the crowd back until he succeeded in locating his birds. The birds were not feathered as well as Joe wished, but the cheer the crowd gave him for his heroic labors in making the capture served to bring a hectic flush to the hunter's brow.

25 YEARS AGO

September 21, 1922

Ed O'Donnell is the latest addition to membership of the Hole-in-One-club. He qualified on No. 4, 103 yards, Tuesday afternoon, and gets a dozen golf balls and a steel shaft Bristol club for the play. The O'Neill Country club probably has the largest membership in the famous Hole-in-One aggregation of any golf club in the country, having four. They are: J. A. Donohoe,

Charles Stout, Ted Cooper and Mr. O'Donnell.

John Carton returned Tuesday evening from Lincoln where he had gone to attend the funeral service of W. H. Sullivan, who died at his home in Lincoln at the age of 74. Mrs. Sullivan preceded her husband in death just four days. The Sullivan family were among the early settlers of this vicinity, coming here in the early 80's. Mr. Sullivan was associated with Jan Weedes in the hog buying business for many years.

Work is progressing nicely on the new IOOF lodge rooms and the rooms will be ready for occupancy early in October is the prediction of the building committee. The entire building is 24 x 80 feet.
