Evans-Price Nuptials Said Here Sunday

The marriage of Miss Wihlma Jane Evans, daughter of Mrs. Elma J. Evans, and James Herbert Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Price, took place Sunday at the Methodist church. Rev. Lloyd W. Mullis performed the double-ring ceremony before a candle-light altar flanked with bouquets of asters.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Earl Ralya sang "Oh Promise Me," and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Mullis.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin featuring a tight-fitting bodice and a square neckline filled with white marquisette, with a train, and a heart-shaped seeded pearl tiara from which fell a knee-length veil. She carried a white Bible cov-

Miss Helen Bowers Bride of Tony Asimus

The wedding of Miss Helen Bowers and Tony Asimus occurred September 23 at the First Methodist church at Plattsmouth. The single-ring ceremony was performed at 3 p. m. by the Rev. E. C. Williams in the presence of a few relatives.

The altar was banked with baskets of white and pink gladioli. The bride wore a semi-tailored suit of gray gabardine with aqua accessories and a corsage of American beauty roses. Attending the bride was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Powers, of Bristow, who wore a black street-length dress, trimmed in silver sequins, and a corsage of teasos. The bride's mother, Mrs. Tom Bowers, of Plattsmouth, wore an aqua dress with a corsage of teasos. The bridegroom was attended by Thomas Bowers, of Bristow, brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony a luncheon was served to the wedding party at the Pine room in the Plattsmouth hotel. The group was seated at one large table dressed with lace, scattered with colorful autumn leaves, and centered with a two-tiered cake which was flanked on either side with candles and bouquets of chrysanthemums.

The couple left after the luncheon for a wedding trip through the Ozark mountains of Missouri.

Mr. Asimus is a member of the Asimus Brothers enterprises here and is a former member of the Nebraska unicameral legislature.

The bride has been employed by the Northwestern Bell telephone company here.

The couple will reside in a newly-constructed home in West O'Neill.

Leonna Trebolt and Francis Young Wed

CHAMBERS — Miss Leonna Trebolt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trebolt, of Chambers, and Francis Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young, of Chambers, were married at the Methodist church Saturday. Rev. J. C. Jorgensen performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a street-length dress of blue with white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors.

Friends of the bride honored her at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Leo Hannah last Thursday afternoon.

Chambers Couple Weds Here Sunday

CHAMBERS — The marriage of Orville Kellar and Adeline Butts, both of Chambers, took place Sunday, at the Methodist parsonage in O'Neill. Rev. Lloyd Mullis performed the 3 p. m. ceremony.

The couple was attended by Miss Ruth Hoffman, of O'Neill, who is a cousin of the bridegroom, and Hugh Ray. The bride and her attendant both wore navy blue suits.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kellar drove to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Hoerle, and family where a wedding supper was served.

Californians Here—
Miss Sadie Hart, a former resident of O'Neill, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. George Pierson

Lorina Kloppenborg Weds in Denver

The Berkeley Baptist church, of Denver, Colo., was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Lorina Kloppenborg, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kloppenborg, of Emmet, became the bride of George Pierson, of Rawlins, Wyo., at a 4 p. m. ceremony on August 27.

The young couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lynch, jr., of Denver. The bride wore a white crepe street-length dress. A single strand of pearls was her only jewelry.

Her attendant wore a two-piece blue wool dress. The bridegroom and his attendant wore dark suits.

Rev. A. W. Schuessle performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Pierson graduated from the O'Neill high school in 1945. She spent the past two years teaching school and attended Wayne State Teachers' college during the summer of 1947.

Mr. Pierson graduated from the West high school, of Denver, in 1937. After graduation he spent eight years in the Marines.

After a short wedding trip in the Rockies, they returned to Rawlins where Mr. Pierson is employed.

The couple is at home at 8193 West Maple in Rawlins.
