STUART BRONCHS SPILLED 31-6

O'Neill Eagles Find Easy Sailing; Saindon Uses 20 Players

STUART—The O'Neill Eagles enjoyed little more than a brisk workout under the Stuart lights Friday night. In fact, the opposition was hardly enough to keep the Blues out of Hallo-wen mischief.

O'Neill won 31-6 after leading 12-0 at the half. Prof. Kelly Saindon cleared the bench of substitutes frequently, but the scoring mounted at regular intervals.

The Bronchos came to life at one point by rolling 70 yards in two plays, gaining a first down on the O'Neill 4. In four more tries Stuart managed to score.

For the Eagles, End Dean Van Every racked up two touchdowns, racing 55 yards for one score, and taking a 20-yard pass from Fullback Bob Matthews for the other. The play netted 45 yards and the touchdown.

Matthews, Quarterback Gordon Elkins and Halfback Dick Godel bucked through the line for O'Neill's three other touchdowns.

The Eagles' line performed well both offensively and defensively. Superior weight, speed and seasoning spelled the difference between the two teams.

BATTLE CREEK BLANKS EWING

BATTLE CREEK—The Ewing Tigers' bid for the 1947 laurels in the Cornbelt conference was foiled in the rain and mud here Friday as a heavier, more experienced Battle Creek team turned on the power in the second half and ground out a 14-0 victory.

Coach Marv Miller's Holt county club made two first-half scoring gestures, but both were nullified by penalties. One was called back on a holding charge; one on an off-side.

The second-half was essentially a Battle Creek show as the nine seniors on the Madison county team simply spanked the younger Tigers.

NELIGH - O'NEILL CLASH FRIDAY

Observers Predict It One of Best Games of Season

There will be a dozen other games in progress in these parts come Friday night, but most eyes will be focused on the Ne-ligh-O'Neill tilt under the O'Neill lights.

Neligh will come two-gunning for reprisal for last year's 6-34 reversal in which O'Neill's Dick Tibbetts wrote his name on the Neligh goal posts.

A stronger Warrior team will clash with a weaker, twice-beaten O'Neill club. Most observers predict that the results will be interesting.

The Eagles' backfield department will be without Regular Wally Shelhamer and Sub Bill Rickley. Shelhamer has a bad ankle that is not mending properly, and Rickley is ill with a throat infection.

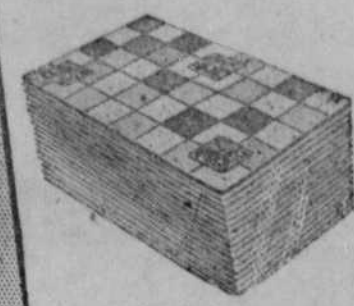

Neligh's stock soared last weekend when the Warriors emerged 19-6 over previously unbeaten Elgin. Both O'Neill and Neligh hold victories over Ewing and Bassett. On paper, the game should be worth chips.

Meanwhile, St. Mary's Cardinals are completing preparations for their finale Sunday at Spaulding. The Cards will face Spaulding academy. Halfback Shorty Miles, laid-up with a bad knee during the homecoming fracas with St. Joseph's, of York, on October 26, is expected to be back in the Cardinal lineup.

Atkinson Subs Enjoy Themselves Against Spencer
ATKINSON — The Atkinson subs had their day here Friday against Spencer. It was the first time this season that the underlings had an opportunity to work for Coach Smith's Atkinson Balers, and at one point all hands were inexperienced underclassmen.

Atkinson won 27-6. Two Atkinson defensive stand-outs were End Bob Horner and Leroy Rossman, who plays end of defense. They nailed Spencer carriers behind the line with some costly losses.
