Corinne Kubitschek Weds Saturday in St. Cecilia's, Omaha

Miss Corinne Cathryn Kubitschek, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Kubitschek, of O'Neill, and Richard Michael Bogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bogan, of Lincoln, were married at 9 a. m. Saturday at St. Cecilia's Cathedral in Omaha.

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums and greenery appointed the altar as Rev. E. G. Graham read the lines of the Service in the presence of 350 guests.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Janet Priebe, of St. Joseph, Mo., sang, accompanied by Mrs. Winifred Traynor Flanagan, organist, who also played the wedding music.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Mary Kathryn Bogan, twin sister of the bridegroom, who wore a gown of moire taffeta in the gold tone. The bridesmaids, Miss Jean Bogan, of Lincoln, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. John C. Mainelli and Miss Justine Seitz, both of Omaha, wore alike frocks of cocoa brown moire taffeta. The identical gowns of the attendants were designed with deep squared necklines, cap sleeves and full gathered skirts accented with modified bustles. The maid of honor carried an arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums, and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of yellow chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a period gown of ivory satin. The high rounded yoke of sheer illusion was outlined with seed pearls in a baroque design, to form the off-shoulder neckline, and the torso bodice was completed with long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The full skirt ended in a long train, and her finger tip veil of illusion was held by a Juliet cap of satin and seed pearls. She carried a crescent bouquet of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Paul Kubitschek, of O'Neill, served Mr. Bogan as bestman, and seating the guests were William Kubitschek, of O'Neill, Jack Bogan, brother of the bride, and Allen Bloom, of Lincoln.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast for the members of the families and bridal party was held at the Birchwood club in Omaha, after which a reception for 300 was held later in the afternoon at the club.

Mr. Bogan and his bride left for a wedding trip to Chicago, Ill., and will later reside in Lincoln. For traveling, Mrs. Bogan chose a frock of cocoa brown wool with matching accessories. Her corsage was of orchids in the autumn red shades.

The bride is a graduate of Duchesne college in Omaha, and Mr. Bogan is a former student of the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Delta Tau Delta.
