

The Frontier Woman

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there, all you nice people! What has been going on at your house these past few days?

These long winter evenings are the times when we like to pop corn and munch popcorn. How would you like to make some of Blanche's prize-winning popcorn balls some evening? You would? Okay, here's the recipe and if I do say so myself (and I do, grin) they are good.

PINEAPPLE POPCORN BALLS

One-third cup white corn syrup, 2 cups sugar, 1 1/2 cups pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, few drops yellow food coloring, 5 quarts popped corn. Dissolve syrup and sugar in pineapple juice and bring to boil. Boil slowly without stirring to firm ball stage (240 to 242 F.) Remove from stove, add lemon juice, vanilla and coloring. Return to stove and boil exactly one minute. Pour at once over crisp corn and form into balls.

Another delightful confection that you may want to make is:

YUMMILICIOUS CHOCOLATE SQUARES
1 pound marshmallows, 1 seven or eight ounce package

semi-sweet chocolate, 3 tablespoons butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup crisp rice cereal, 1 cup broken California walnut meats. Melt marshmallows, chocolate and butter in double boiler. Add remaining ingredients. Mix. Spread in greased 8 - inch square pan.

For That Leftover Turkey—

Try a casserole dish made up of turkey and noodles and other good things. You'll need 2 cups cooked turkey, 1 6-ounce package of noodles, 1 green pepper, chopped, 3 tablespoons fat, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon white pepper, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/4 lb. cheese, grated or chopped, 1 small can mushrooms, sliced, 4 hard cooked eggs, sliced. Cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Sauté green pepper in fat until tender but not brown. Blend in flour and seasonings. Add milk (you may use part turkey stock if you have it) and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Arrange noodles, sauce and remaining ingredients in alternate layers in greased casserole and bake in moderate oven 350 F. about 25 minutes. Serves 4.

This Week's Prize-Winning Letter—

Mrs. F. P. Hunter, of Red Bird, is the winner of today's prize-winning three-months' subscription to The Frontier.

Dear Mrs. Pease:

As I've been a reader of The Frontier ever since I was old enough to read newspapers, maybe I should write you a letter. I might even be called a pioneer.

I wonder how many of we Nebraskans think we have to go to other states to see beautiful scenery and interesting places? We sure don't need to because we have so many of these things in Nebraska and a lot of them very near home.

Right now, while the weather is so nice, take a drive from Lynch to Red Bird. As you come down the long hill north of the river, just take time to look at the Niobrara river with its many trees, vines and shrubs on both sides of it. Many of the trees have green foliage, many are yellow and a deep orange, with the pale yellow grape leaves mixed in, and the bright red sumac on the border and there is the five-leaved ivy of many colors mixed in. It is just one mass of autumn colors!

You might go back and drive to Niobrara to see the park, Maiden's Leap, and the many beautiful places there. Take a longer drive and go to Valentine. See the gorgeous scenery around there, the state game reserve, the grand fish hatcheries, Perry's Falls and many other places of interest.

It's all right to take vacations and see other places, but don't think our Nebraska can't boast of beautiful scenery and interesting places!

MRS. F. P. HUNTER,
Red Bird, Nebraska

How heartily I agree with you, Mrs. Hunter! Nebraska is rich in many beautiful scenic spots but we do not exploit them as do many other states. Perhaps we should. But, in the meantime, the eye which loves beauty will see it; those who will not see will not appreciate that which they are missing anyway. It seems a shame!

Send Us a Letter For The Frontier—

We wish you would send us YOUR letter for use in The Frontier. You may write about anything you like and you may live in Nebraska or in other states and still be eligible to win a three-months' subscription. Every week we will use a letter from some reader and the writer will be given a three-months' subscription to The Frontier. It might just as well be you.

Send your letter to Mrs. Blanche Pease, Editor, of The Frontier Woman, Atkinson, Nebraska. Do it today!

One of my favorite chocolate frostings is quickly made and does not have to be cooked and it really tastes delicious. I think you'll want to try it.

QUICK CHOCOLATE FROSTING

Combine 2 tablespoons water, 1 tablespoon butter or fortified margarine, and 1 ounce square unsweetened chocolate. Heat to melt chocolate. Add 1 cup sifted confectioners sugar and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Beat.

Slick Trick—

If you're in a tearing hurry, spread a box of chocolate chips on the cake as soon as you take it from the oven. Put back in oven for just long enough to soften the chips until they can be spread. Keep dipping silver knife in hot water and spread over the cake. As it cools the frosting will harden. It is very good!

Sincerely Yours,
BLANCHE SPANN PEASE,
The Frontier Woman

To Winter in California—

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sauers are leaving Saturday for Long Beach, Calif., where they plan to spend the winter visiting relatives and friends. They plan to return in the Spring to their home in O'Neill.

Mrs. Dora Walmer, of Orchard, spent the weekend at the David Loy home.

BOOTS FIRST; SADDLE SECOND

Riding across country in the interest of "world peace," Sen. Glen Taylor (Dem., Ida.) rises early in the Arizona desert to continue his Paul Revere jaunt in the direction of Washington. From the looks of the picture, the senator must have saddled his horse before putting on his boots—risky business in a land where cactus grows.
