

ALL-COUNTY GRID TEAM NEXT WEEK

Holt county's first mythical all-county football team will be announced in the December 11 issue of The Frontier.

This newspaper has enlisted the cooperation of the high school coaches and grid officials in making the selections for the honor team.

Members of the St. Mary's academy and Chambers high school six-man teams are eligible for berths on the mythical team, and have fared well in early voting.

The 11-man schools in the county are: O'Neill, Atkinson, Ewing and Stuart.

Participating in the balloting are: Coach F. E. Saindon, O'Neill; Coach Al Sipes, St. Mary's academy; Coach Smith and Supt. Mead, of Atkinson; Coach Keneth Paul, of Stuart; Coach Marvin Miller, Supt. Evans and Official Leo Tomjack, all of Ewing; Official Ralph Gray, of Inman; Coach L. A. Dale, of Chambers; and H. J. Hoffman, of O'Neill.

TIGERS FACE 14-TILT SCHEDULE

EWING—Coach Marv Miller's Ewing Tigers face a tough 14-game cage schedule in addition to three tournaments.

The card:
At home: December 9—Page; 12—Tilden; 16—Brunswick; January 20—Orchard; 23—Inman; February 6—Page; 10—Orchard; 13—Meadow Grove; 20—Inman; 25—Class C tournament.

Away: December 19—Neligh; January 6—Osmond; 9—Clearwater; 13—O'Neill; 14—16—Elkhorn Valley conference tournament; 28—30—Holt county tournament; February 6—Page; 10—Orchard; 13—Meadow Grove; 20—Inman; 25—26—Class C tournament.

Attend Ansley Meeting—AMELIA—A group of people from the Free Methodist church attended a youth meeting at Ansley over the weekend. Those attending were: Mrs. George Atkinson and son, Charles, Eldon and Louellen Freeland, Glenice White, Carol Page, June and Clayton Burge, Rev. and Mrs. Dixon and daughter, Frances.

PRUSS HAS 35 CAGE PUPILS

Hilltop Squad Biggest in History; Prospects Are Good

Coach Ivan Pruss this season has the biggest basketball class in the history of St. Mary's academy. But prospects are doubtful that the 1947-'48 Scarlet will play as good a brand of basketball as has been exhibited on the Hilltop when manpower was considerably less.

With an interclass tourney behind them, the Cardinals this week primed for Monday's opener at St. Joseph's, of Atkinson. The Josies, after a strong start last week, are expected to win handily.

Among the leading candidates in Pruss's class are: Seniors—DeBacker, Harty, Jim Gran, Pribil, Dick Minton, Sojka; juniors—Koci, Donohoe, Murray, Cavannah, Jack Langan, Larry Minton; sophomores—O'Neill, Gatz, Miles, Hickey, Jim Langan, Hynes, Wilson, Willis Gran; freshmen—McNichols, Uhl, Mangin, Flood and Carney.

The schedule:
At home: December 12—O'Neill; January 2—Bassett; 20—Inman; 23—Page; February 1—Spaulding high; 6—Spencer; 17—St. Francis, of Randolph.

Away: December 8—St. Joseph's, of Atkinson; 19—Butte; 29—Inman; January 4—St. Agnes, of Alliance; 11—St. Francis, of Randolph; February 20—Orchard; 23—Inman academy; 22—Sacred Heart, of Norfolk.

5 LETTERMEN AT O'NEILL HIGH

Among 39 candidates for the cage team at O'Neill high school, Coach Kelly Saindon counts only five lettermen. These veterans are: Bob Matthews, Dean Van Every, Gordon Elkins, Herman Osborn, and Bob Erwin.

Promising inexperienced hands include: Dick Godel, Ralph Morrow, Harold Elkins, Ted Lindberg, Don Harmon, Bill Rickly, Wally Shelhamer and Tom Sullivan.

The Eagles will open on Tuesday at Ainsworth. The opening test is capable of being one of the toughest games of the season, Saindon said.

The schedule:
At home: December 12—St. Mary's; 16—Bassett; 19—Atkinson; January 5—Inman; 12—Ewing; 20—Ainsworth; 23—Orchard; 26—30—Holt county tournament; February 6—Stuart; 10—Creighton; 19—Ord.

Away: December 9—Ainsworth; January 7—Page; 9—Neligh; February 3—Bassett; 17—Stuart.

Connie Jarman Feted—CHAMBERS—A group of 20 friends gathered at the Richard Jarman home Friday evening to surprise Miss Connie Jarman on her 16th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent playing games, after which refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad and angelfood cake were served. Connie received many gifts.

Harry Sullivan went to Toledo, O., Saturday on a business trip.

JOSIES BLAST ST. FRANCIS, 50-28

ATKINSON—St. Joseph's academy blasted St. Francis, of Council Bluffs, Ia. 50-28 in an interclass parochial basketball match here Friday night.

Bill Miller, St. Joe forward, fielded 11 fieldgoals. It was the first basketball game of the season in Holt county cage circles.

ON WILDCAT SQUAD
ATKINSON—Leo Miller, a freshman at Wayne State Teachers' college, has landed a berth on the 29-member Wildcat basketball squad. Miller is the only Holt county player on the team.

INMAN, STUART OPEN FRIDAY

7-Game Home Card Faces Coach Gray's Inman Tigers

INMAN—A tough seven-game home schedule faces Coach Ralph Gray's 1947-'48 basketball edition at Inman high school where hopes are running high for a bright season.

Veterans at Inman are: Max Mossman, Delmont Heck, Gordon Sholes, Paul Hartigan, Leonard Sholes, Tom Clark, Harlan Morsbach and LeRoy Moore.

The schedule:
At home: December 5—Stuart; 11—Brunswick; 18—Page; 29—St. Mary's of O'Neill; February 6—Orchard; 17—Chambers; 20—Ewing.

Away: December 15—Clearwater; January 5—O'Neill; 7—Orchard; 14-16—Elkhorn Valley tournament, O'Neill; 20—St. Mary's of O'Neill; 23—Ewing; 28-30—Holt county tournament, O'Neill; February 3—Chambers; 13—Page.

The tilt is also number one for the Stuart Bronchos. Next Tuesday the Bronchos entertain Newport.

Thirty-one reported to Coach Kenneth Paul when he issued the cage call November 19.

WINTER IS tough on MOTORS!

Just one or two starts of a cold motor with oil that fails to flow instantly can do untold damage to the working parts of a motor.

The shortest cut to safety is to give your motor the protection of high quality lubricants.

Use Champlin HI-V-1 (High Viscosity Index) Motor Oils. They are thoroughly dewaxed at temperature of 45° below zero. Naturally they flow freely at zero and below. And because they are refined from premium grade Mid Continent Crude, the finest obtainable, they give thorough lubrication when the load is extra heavy.

So see your friendly Champlin dealer today for Champlin HI-V-1 (High Viscosity Index) Motor and Tractor Oils with...
