

CHAMBERS NEWS

The Grimes families held a reunion at the Glen Grimes home on Thanksgiving day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clair Grimes and Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Glee Grimes, Jim Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimes and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grimes and Bonnie, Mrs. Genevieve Bell, Mrs. Lois Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coolidge and Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grimes, Gerald and Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Adams and Carolyn and Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Kathryn drove to Lincoln last Thursday. The Adams family spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, Mrs. Newhouse and daughter with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geiser, and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Newhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Newhouse.

Emmet Medcalf, of Clearwater, spent Friday and Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Medcalf, where he did some repair work on their house. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Grimes were Sunday dinner guests in the Clarence Grimes home. Mrs. Anna Zuelka, Arnold, Marie and Erna and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Cooper drove to Emmet last Thursday to spend Thanksgiving with the Sewell Johnson family. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Friedrich, of Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and family spent Sunday with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Freeman, in O'Neill.

Just-A-Mere Club in Session— PAGE—Mrs. George Rost entertained the members of the Just-A-Mere club Friday afternoon. There was one member absent. Mrs. H. F. Rakow and Mrs. O. L. Reed were given birthday showers. The Christmas meeting will be with Mrs. H. F. Rakow with an exchange of gifts.

CELIA SIDELIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hoffman went to Norfolk last Thursday where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Marquardt. The Marquardts live on a farm near there. Mrs. Marquardt is the former Lillian Frickel. Perry Terwilliger recently purchased a livestock truck from Leo Perry. Perry will use it in his cattle business.

Lee Terwilliger, of Celia, recently purchased 480 acres of land from Alma Fritchhoff, of Omaha. The Fritchhoffs lived in this community a good many years ago. They were here last summer and dropped in at the Little House for a few minutes' chat. Lawrence Smith had been renting the Fritchhoff land.

Mr. and Mrs. Spann, of Atkinson, were Thanksgiving day guests at the R. L. Pease home. Ray Pease was busy this week wrapping the trunks of small fruit trees to protect them from the gnawing of rabbits. Several other orchardists in the community have been doing the same thing. Rabbits do much damage in this locality to fruit and shelter trees.

Supper guests November 25 at the W. F. Spann home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pease. Mrs. Pease spent Tuesday afternoon with her mother, but had to take her typewriter along on the visit, or her newspaper copy wouldn't be out on time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson were Thanksgiving day guests at the Ed Bausch home. Mrs. Johnson reported that the "duck was good" at the Bausch home. M. G. McKathnie and his mother, Mrs. Arch McKathnie, drove to Chambers to spend Thanksgiving. They were guests of Mrs. McKathnie's sister, Mrs. Cora Thompson.

The Celia Homemakers served lunch at the Ellen Shald sale on November 24. It was not a large sale but the club made $27, which will be added to the club treasury. The planning committee for the food sale was Mrs. George Beck and Mrs. Mark Hendricks. Each member baked two pies and the pies were served cut at the sale with coffee. Hot hamburger and weiner sandwiches were also served. All the members helped at the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beck and son, Duane, of the Celia community, drove to Atkinson on Thanksgiving where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Milnar sr., at a huge family dinner. All of the Milnar family were there, including Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Quigley and son, Larry, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milnar and son, Dale, of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, of Amelia; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Milnar, of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson and daughter, Marvel Jean, of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Lockman and twin sons, of Stuart. Mrs. Quigley is the former Eva Milnar, Mrs. Albert Smith the former Quentin Milnar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milnar and a granddaughter of the Mervin Milnars. Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Mrs. Duane Lockman are also daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Milnar sr. Twenty-two, representing three generations, were present.

Harvey Groff called at the R. L. Pease home Friday. He was disappointed not to find Ray Pease at home. Harvey is married and lives in Atkinson now.

working at the Freeman Produce, but he grew up in the Celia neighborhood. He lived on a farm adjoining the Peases. Ray and Bob Pease drove down to the Walter Pease farm, south of Emmet, Friday.

AMELIA NEWS

Bill Black and Clinton Doolittle are picking corn near Bloomfield. Harold Fullerton worked at the sale barn in Atkinson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Krutz, of Stanton, spent Thanksgiving at the Peter Frahm home. Floyd Sageser, who is attending college at Manhattan, Kans., spent his Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Mr. and Merle Fagan, of Chambers, were Amelia callers Saturday. Thanksgiving guests at the Blake Ott home were: Mrs. Mammie Sammons, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sammons and family, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Watson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce, Mrs. Lewine Wickham and Raedee, and Mrs. Levi Faith and family, of Creighton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coolidge, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge and Calvin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ragland and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Young and Sammie were Thanksgiving day guests at Ed White's.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rees and family spent Thanksgiving in Burwell with Mrs. Rees's parents. Mrs. Rees stayed a few days to be with her mother, who was not well.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tetterington and son, Elgin, were visitors at the Tommie Baker's last week. Mrs. Tetterington is the former Alma Koinzen and taught in the Amelia schools several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Fix, Mrs. Elmer Fix and Leone drove to Bird City, Kans., to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Elmer Fix's mother and other relatives.

Mrs. Gertrude Minahan, Mrs. Della Ernst, Mr. and Mrs. Art Waldman, and Mike Curran spent Thanksgiving at the James Curran home near O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Widman and Marsha Ruth, Mrs. Belle Widman, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Sageser, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sageser and Mr. and Mrs. Bower Sageser and Sandra spent Thanksgiving at the Fancher home near Ainsworth. Mrs. Wagner, whose home is in Idaho, came to spend some time visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earnie Johnston.

Bob Adair and Ralph Barnes returned this week from Winlock, Wash. They had gone to Washington to find work, but on arriving there "it did not look as good as old Nebraska."

Mrs. Gertrude Minahan and Mrs. Lewine Wickham drove to Ainsworth Monday to visit in the Ted Keeney home. They returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Oetter spent Thanksgiving at the Harold Gilman home. Misses Gloria Ott and Margie Anne Sammons spent the weekend in Omaha.

The Lee Gilman family spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hyland and Kay Anne near Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Doolittle entertained the following families for Thanksgiving: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Doolittle, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Doolittle and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and girls, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Kennedy and family.

Miss Mary Lierman spent her Thanksgiving vacation in Omaha and Lincoln.

Mrs. Elmer Coolidge and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coolidge were Grand Island callers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bum Sybrant and family of Casper, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Christiansen, of St. Edward; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peterson and Donna Rae were among those spending Thanksgiving at Dunk Peterson's.

SICK & INJURED

CHAMBERS—Chauncey Wood returned November 26 from Lincoln where he had been for a medical checkup. In Lincoln he also visited his sister, Mrs. Lester Hannah, and family. Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb returned Saturday from the Stuart hospital. Charles Frady and Milton Grimes took Mrs. Ned Frady to Kansas City, Mo., Friday for medical care. The boys returned Sunday. Lynne McKay underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Lutheran hospital at Norfolk last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith took their small daughter, Judy, to the Clark hospital in Omaha Tuesday for observation and treatments.

INMAN—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore drove to Norfolk on November 26 and on Friday Mrs. Moore submitted to a major operation at Our Lady of Lourdes hospital there. Reports from the hospital are that her condition is "satisfactory." Her mother, Mrs. Conrad Zimbleman, of Gregory, S. D., is helping with the care of her family while she is confined to the hospital.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bly drove to Norfolk Sunday, returning Monday. Mrs. Bly consulted doctors while there. Friends here received word that George Holcomb is suffering with a fractured hip the result of being bunted by a cow. Mr. Holcomb is with his sister, Mrs. John Estes, at Clio, Ia.
