INMAN PUBLIC SCHOOL

Ralph Gray, Superintendent
Primary Room

In the first grade we have finished reading in our pre-primar and have a new one, which we like very much. All of the second grade had perfect spelling lessons last week. Delbert Farewell was out of school two days due to sickness. Mary Morsbach was a visitor in our room recently. The pupils of our room are practicing rhythm band now.

Intermediate Room

The tuberculosis seal sale is very good. We still have a great many to sell. The yellow side is behind but it is trying to win. The rehearsals for the Christmas program are underway. For art we are making window decorations and Christmas gifts.

Perfect attendants the second six weeks were: Max Bohn, Virginia Buckmaster, Kay Coventry, Robert Davis, Doris Farewell, Vicki Sue Hutton, Robert Reimers, Janice Sample, Darrell Schollmeyer, Frances Scholz, Elizabeth Sobotka and Olive Watson.

Seventh and Eighth Grades

The seventh and eighth grades drew names for their Christmas presents.

The group is looking forward to the Christmas program to be given December 17.

The students have turned in a little over $9 in Christmas seal sales.

High School

Copies of the basketball schedule are available for the asking. Season tickets are on sale by all Pep club members and basketball boys.

ELVES, CAROLERS ON SCHOOL CARD

The grades of the O'Neill public school will hold a Christmas program the evening of Monday, December 22. There will be elves, dolls, jumping jacks, blocks, tops, dominos, soldiers, sport gifts, books, and Christmas carolers, all represented by different groups of the children. John Bowen, as Santa Claus, will sing a solo.

Mrs. Betty Watson is the director of the program, assisted by the grade teachers. Mrs. F. E. Parkins, accompanist.

DISTRICT 1

Evelyn Lindberg, Teacher

A Christmas program with a box social following will be held Monday, December 22, at 8 p. m.

Students participating are: Elaine Miller, Gloria J. Krogh, Vernetta Krogh, Velma Crawford, Virgil Crawford, Ronald Crawford, Clyonne Crawford, Keith Anderson and Pauline Anderson.

The Christmas vacation will begin December 25.

DISTRICT 26

Mrs. John Carson, Teacher

District 26 will dismiss school on Friday, December 19, for a week of Christmas vacation. The pupil, Marilyn Faye Graham, and the teacher, Mrs. John Carson, will spend the vacation at their respective homes.

SINGLE-BREADED SUITS POPULAR

At Brown-McDonald's this season, the hard-finished all-wool worsted suits, single-breasted with vests, are the most popular, according to Manager R. E. Armbruster (right). He is showing Wayne

Fox, of Emmet, a single breasted diagonal-tweed sport suit, the coat of which may be worn with either plaid-stripe or plain-colored trousers. — The Frontier Photo by John H. McCarville.

Marie Schneider, Teacher

Here in the Valley View school things are back to normal again. For the last two weeks we spent most of our time practicing for our Thanksgiving program, which was Wednesday, November 26. The box social after the program proved profitable. The total sales amounted to $55.50. The door prize was won by Eurma Jean Crawford.

This year there are nine pupils in our school. Their names and grades are as follows: Roy Coburn, eighth; Gerry Coburn, seventh; Arnold Crawford, seventh; Shirley Naber, sixth; Eurma Jean Crawford, sixth; Gene Sterns, third; Rosalie Wabs, third; Carlyle Crawford, second; Brenton Wabs, second.

School will close on Friday, December 19, after a simple party and the pupils will return on Monday, January 5, ready for another interesting and happy year.

We of the Valley View school join in wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year.

ACADEMY FROSH TO PRESENT PLAY

The freshmen class at St. Mary's academy on Thursday, December 18 will present for the school a four-act play entitled, "Rachel, the Leper Maiden".

The cast will include most of the members of the class. The children from the grade schools will sing the Christmas carols.

DISTRICT 107

Anna Hiniz, Teacher

Valley Center school, district 107 plans on having a Christmas program and box social on Monday night, December 22.

School will be dismissed from December 23 to December 29 for Christmas vacation.

DISTRICT 188

Ferne Freouf, Teacher

We have not decided fully what we will have for Christmas, but we are planning on having a program for the parents, after which we will have singing of Christmas songs, and give out the presents.

SERVICE IS OUR BUSINESS

A BANK IS BUILT on service and service alone. That's why we of the O'Neill National Bank are consistently striving to improve our facilities for our customers, and at the same time we aim to make a special effort to please you personally with your banking.

AS MOST OF YOU KNOW, the O'Neill National Bank recently inaugurated the statement system of bank bookkeeping and the microfilm process of photographing certain records. These, we feel, were steps forward in improving banking facilities in O'Neill. We will be pleased to receive your suggestions in regard to further bettering our service.

EVEN DURING the onrush of the Christmas season, we aim to maintain the highest possible standard of banking service. Because, after all, service is our business and year-end banking is vitally important to most farmers, ranchers and business folks.
