

EAGLES COP IN INTRACITY BOUT

Cardinals Enjoy Early Lead but Blues Win, 27-18

Coach Ivan Pruss's St. Mary's Cardinals enjoyed a slender lead early in the annual O'Neill-St. Mary's cage tilt Friday night. But when Coach Kelly Saindon's Eagles moved into high gear the outcome was never seriously threatened. O'Neill won 27-18.

Big Bob Matthews, the Blues' center, was easily the evening's number one point-getter, bagging six fielders and three free throws.

INMAN TIGERS GRAB 2 MORE

INMAN — The Inman Tigers banged out victories number 2 and 3 during the past week, thumping Brunswick, 54-31, at Inman, and returning to the maples Monday to spank Clearwater, 42-11, at Clearwater.

Max Mossman and Delmont Heek together accounted for 34 points in the Brunswick win. Brunswick surprised with a stronger showing than expected. The Inman reserves didn't fare as well, however, losing to the Brunswick seconds, 14-17.

Coach Ralph Gray substituted freely in the Clearwater show, giving numerous reserves first team experience. The Inman reserves lost another preliminary, 14-15.

Holt School News

DISTRICT 48

Willia Schollmeyer, Teacher

School district 48, better known as the Oberle school, has only four pupils. They and the teacher's little 4-year-old son, Bruce Schollmeyer, took part in the entertainment program at the Scottville hall on Friday, December 12 when the Scott Community club held its annual Christmas party.

In the play, "Uncle Grouch," DeLane Oberle, a seventh grader, was Uncle Grouch. Three children, Janet Gifford, a beginner, Larry Gifford, a second grader, and Larry Dean Tomlinson, a third grader, came to cheer him by bringing a gift and a Christmas dinner. He finally gave in that Christmas is a merry time.

Several recitations were given. All of the children of the club members of four different school districts sang several songs together.
