Letters to the Editor

Washington, Ia. January 12, 1948

The Frontier: I received your card in regard to my subscription expiring. I will not renew it.

I am the former Emma Cook that returned to Amelia after 52 years last July. All the folks I knew as a child are gone except the Pierce and Sammons families. My visit was so short that after I came home I sent for the paper, which I have enjoyed. In the 60 year ago items of the Indian burial alarms well do I remember that. As a child I was afraid to go to bed at night for fear the Indians would get me before morning. And then the blizzard of 1838. I remember seeing one of the cows leave the barn and go with the storm and was frozen to death. That and many other things about the storm. The 60-year-ago marriage of a neighbor girl, Mary Dickerson, and Miles Singleton, and many other interesting things I have enjoyed reading.

Sincerely, MRS. J. H. CAMPBELL, Washington, Ia.

Beatrice, Nebr. 718 Grant St.

Dear Mr. Stewart, Editor of the Frontier:

Will enclose check for $2.50 to renew my paper. Have been a reader of The Frontier for over a half-century and a resident of Holt county from September, 1881, until October 21, 1947. Hope to be back on the ranch early in the spring so send the paper here until further notice. Fifty years ago today is fresh in my memory for having spent the night in the schoolhouse in district 66, 5 miles south of Inman.

Respectfully yours, G. EZRA MOOR

Diller, Nebraska December 29, 1947

Dear Sir: Please send me The Frontier for another year. It is like a letter from home.

I lived in Holt county 40 years ago.
