TOJO ENJOYS HIS MEAL

Hideki Tojo (foreground), Japan's wartime premier and now No. 1 war crimes suspect, still is able to enjoy his food despite the fact that he attempted suicide two years ago. Now on the stand before the international war crimes tribunal Tojo offered, in his own defense, a 65,000-word deposition in which he refused to accept any criminal responsibility for Japan's warlike behavior.

The Frontier Woman

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there, all you nice people!

—tfw—
Proof that milk of human kindness still runs strong was exhibited recently when an Ewing mother lost her 9-year-old son, who was ill only a couple of days. Only five months before she had lost her husband. There are four more children. The community took up a purse and made her a gift of it. I think the right kind of people must live around Ewing!

—tfw—
 I received a pressure pan for Christmas and it surely saves me lots of time I would otherwise have had to spend in the kitchen, not to mention the saving in fuel and vitamin content and such. But what I really started to say was to warn you to take good care of your pressure pan. Don't whack the edge of it with a spoon or the potato masher. You may dent it and cause an air leak. Wipe the lid dry immediately after you take it from the pan. Keep the vent on the lid clean. You should be able to see day light through it. When you store your pressure pan, store it with the lid on upside down.

—tfw—
 If you have recently made a new comforter for the bed be sure to whip on a quilt protector at the top. This can be made of muslin, prints or any sort of material. Whip it on so that it can easily be ripped off and laundered. It will keep your new com-er clean and protected for a long time.

Going to do some painting or varnishing this year? Set the paint or varnish can on a paper plate. It will provide a place for you to lay the brush when it is not in use, and it saves all sorts of drips and dribbles of painting getting to where they shouldn't be. Smear the door lock and knob with vasoline before painting the door. When its dry you can remove the vasoline and any paint that might have smeared the knob — but didn't — because you were such a bright girl!

—tfw—
A Slick Trick—
 Next time you make a casserole dish try a surprise trick on your family. Use condensed canned soup instead of white sauce in the casserole dish. For instance in a chicken casserole, mushroom soup in its condensed form, instead of white sauce, is simply delicious! Asparagus soup works good in vegetable casseroles and mushroom soup is good, too, in tuna combinations.

—tfw—
 Next time you put up the children's lunch, cut the sandwiches in smaller sizes. Even the slightest break in the mon-otony of school lunches pleases children. Give that plain round cookie a face, use raisins and candy corn to do it. For hair, try a little coconut.

—tfw—
 In England they call cran-berries "red whorries." Ah me, the look on our grocer's face when we ask him for a pound of whorries, on account of we want to cook up a dish of whorle sauce.

Prize-Winning Letter —
 "Homemaker, O'Neill" wins our today's three-months' subscription to The Frontier.

Dear Mrs. Pease:
 Since I enjoy The Frontier Woman I'll try to do my share by writing you a letter.

With the holidays over, I have a little more time and I have been piecing some quilts. I quilt them on my sewing machine after I have the pieces. It isn't quite as pretty as when the work is hand done but it is done so much more quickly and easily and the quilts wash and wear very well and look nice too when on the beds.

All during the war there was such a shortage of prints and plain materials that most folks had to stop piecing quilts but now there are plenty again but they are lots more expensive. I like to use a plain pastel color for the backing of my quilts.

Quilts blocks make nice "pick up" w.o.k. You can work up a block or two while listening to a radio program, and while waiting for the family to show up for dinner, or sitting in the car waiting for the family to get ready to go home.

I have a couple of recipes we like real well that I thought I would pass on to you. I hope your readers will like them.

FRIED APPLES & BACON
 They really go good together. I use tart winter apples and cut into inch cubes to make about 2 quarts. Fry bacon in a heavy skillet and as soon as crisp, remove, drain on absorbent paper, and keep in a warm place. Leave about 4 tablespoons of bacon fat in the skillet, fill it with the apples, sprinkle on ¼ cup of sugar, cover and cook slowly until the apples are tender. Then remove the cover, turn the apples gently so the pieces will keep their shape, and let brown lightly. They are then almost transparent. Place them on a platter and surround them with the crisp bacon.

APPLE-FLOAT
 Apple float is easy to make and it is a little different way to serve apple sauce. Two cups thick apple sauce, 4 egg whites. Sweeten the apple sauce to taste while hot, add a little salt, and set away to cool. Beat the egg whites very stiff, and fold the cold apple sauce into them. If desired, add 2 or 3 teaspoons of lemon juice or sprinkle a little nutmeg or cinnamon on top, or add a spoonful of whipped cream to each serving.

HOMEMAKER, O'Neill.
 —tfw—
It's Nice to Know—
 That boiled eggs will peel more easily if in the first place you do not boil a strictly fresh egg. A day or two older is better. Bring to a boil in cold water, then simmer, do not boil for about 20 minutes, and then run cold water over the eggs. They will peel more easily.

—tfw—
 That your rye and whole wheat flours, corn meal, oatmeal and other breakfast cereals should be stored in sealed glass jars as soon as possible after bringing them home from the stores. Store in a cool place. You'll find they keep well this way.

—tfw—
 That you should save the cooking water from your vegetables. Use them in gravies, soups, sauces, health cocktails and fruit juices in gelatin deserts. Or drink them!

—tfw—
 After you get that paint job done on the cupboards (or was it a clear varnish job,) finish it up right with a good waxed finish. Try painting on those enamel cupboards where the wear and soil area is. You'll like the way it helps.

—tfw—
 It looks to us from where we sit as though we're going to be sorry about all those remarks we made about ladies' hats. The ones coming up now look like half-bushel baskets.

—tfw—
 In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to where it has been all winter long.

—tfw—
 Don't try to show your mate whose boss in the family. She's known right along.

Send Us a Letter for The Frontier

If you Frontier readers are enjoying this new feature in The Frontier, won't you send us a letter for use in our department. We do need letters so much, and for each one we print, we give a three-months' subscription.

You can write about anything you like. Send us seasonal recipes and help us if you wish. Help us to make this feature a little better all the time.

Send your letters to Mrs. Blanche Pease, The Frontier Woman, Atkinson, Nebraska. That's all for this week, see you next week.

Sincerely,
BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

"Thanks Neighbor...!"

Remember that zero morning when the fellow next door gave you a push that started "Old Betsy"... and got you off to work on time?

Appreciated it, didn't you? And you'll gladly return the favor anytime he needs a nudge.

Well, that same kind of neighborliness helps a lot in getting the most value out of party line telephone service. Everyone on the line appreciates the thoughtfulness of short calls... allowing time between them for others to use their phone... replacing the receiver softly when the line is in use.

Yes, the simple business of being a good neighbor usually means you'll have good neighbors.

The HISTORY of ELECTRICITY

THE PRIMITIVE MARINER'S COMPASS - A STEEL NEEDLE MAGNETIZED BY RUBBING ON A LODESTONE AND THEN SUPPORTED IN WATER WAS MAN'S FIRST PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF ELECTRICITY.

Through years of scientific development, electricity has become truly the basis for modern living.

Throughout Nebraska, served by Consumers Public Power District, electrical facilities, owned by the people, are constantly being improved and expanded to bring to Nebraska an outstanding electric service at the lowest possible cost.

THE FATHER OF ELECTRICAL SCIENCE LIVED OVER 2500 YEARS AGO. HE WAS THE GREEK, THALES, WHO FIRST DISCOVERED MAGNETISM IN THE LODESTONE, HAVING NO NAME FOR THIS MAGNETIC PROPERTY HE SAID, "THE LODESTONE HAS A SOUL SINCE IT MOVES IRON!"
