SUFFER THE LITTLE CHILDREN

Although the hands of this little French girl are covered with sores resulting from malnutrition, they hold her cherished doll as tenderly as might any normal child. She is one of the suffering youngsters overseas who will benefit through the American Overseas Aid-Unit Nations Appeal for Children, a world-wide group supported by the gifts of people from some 30 nations. The drive will be conducted during February.

Ray C. Keeler Takes Bride at Papiion

LYNCH — Miss Elsie Menking, daughter of Mrs. Helen Menking, of Arlington, and Ray C. Keeler, of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Friend Keeler, of Lynch, were married at Papiion January 8.

The bride wore a street-length gown of turquoise blue with matching hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and pink roses and she wore a double-strand of pearls a gift from the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's suit was dark brown and striped.

Mr. Keeler spent the greater part of his life in Lynch. Since being discharged from the army in April, 1946, he has been employed in Omaha as piano instructor and musician.

The bride has been employed as bookkeeper in the Arlington state bank. Both will continue in their work.

F. E. Parkins spent the weekend in Omaha on business.
