Miss Lucille Hickey, Joseph Dufek, Jr., Wed

Miss Lucille Hickey and Joseph Dufek, Jr., both of O'Neill, were married Saturday at St. Patrick's Catholic church here. Rev. C. J. Werner performed the 9 a. m. ceremony. The bride wore a green wool suit. Her attendant, Miss Clara Hickey, a sister, wore a beige colored suit.

The bridegroom was attended by Robert Shoemaker. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served to the bridal party and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's academy and taught in rural schools for four years. After taking her nurse's training in St. Vincent's hospital at Sioux City, she took a postgraduate course in surgery at Springfield, Ill. For two years she was superintendent of surgery at St. Vincent's.

Coming to O'Neill a year ago she since has been superintendent of the O'Neill hospital.

Mr. Dufek graduated from St. Agnes academy at Ashland, Wis., and served in the Engineers Corps in the Army, spending two years in Greenland during World War II. The couple will make their home in O'Neill.

Eastern Star Meeting

Miss Betty Wike a Bride at Lynch

LYNCH—The marriage of Miss Betty Wike, of Lynch, and Maurice L. Keim took place January 27 at Lynch with Rev. Carlon performing the 2 p. m. ceremony at the Methodist church.

The bride wore a street-length gown of pink with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her attendant, Miss Carol Speltz, wore a rayon crepe dress and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Sgt. Jack L. Wike, of Topeka, Kans., a brother of the bride.

The bride, who has been a resident of Lynch all her life, graduated from Lynch high school in 1945.

Mr. Keim is in the construction business. The couple will make their home in Blue Hill for the present.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the friends and relatives.

Miss Rose Vroman Weds Amelia Rancher in Church Ceremony

PAGE—Miss Rose Vroman, of Page, and Lewis Backhaus, of Amelia, were united in marriage Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the Methodist church in Page. Rev. Carl Rayburn, pastor, performed the single-ring ceremony.

The candles were lighted by Shirley and Marvin Vroman, niece and nephew of the bride.

Miss Mildred Haynes sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. John Lamason, who also played the marches.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Ed Boshart, a sister of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's attendant was his nephew, Lester Boshart. The bride was attired in a gray wool suit. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Forty guests were seated at the beautifully-decorated table in colors of blue-and-white.

Mrs. Harold Banta and Mrs. A. L. Dorr had charge of the refreshments and the Misses Mildred Haynes and Patricia Banta served. Mrs. Ed Hoag baked the wedding cake. Mrs. Merwyn French had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Backhaus left after the reception for their ranch home near Amelia where they will reside.

Mrs. Backhaus is the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vroman and spent most of her life in the Venus vicinity. For the past six years she has resided near Page.

Mrs. Backhaus was honored with a shower on Tuesday, January 27, at the Merwyn French home. There were 25 in attendance. The honored guest received many gifts. For entertainment, Mrs. Backhaus told of her recent trip to California.

Mr. Backhaus has ranches for a number of years near Inez.
