

The Frontier Woman

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there, all you nice people!

What goes on at your house this week? Anything exciting besides the baby drawing pictures on the new wallpaper with brother's box of crayolas, and company coming the very day you were washing and you didn't have the house cleaned up?

Marshmallows are back on the market again, and although they are rather expensive, there are some nice slick tricks you can pull with them. For example, place them on plain cookies and graham crackers, and put in oven and toast for topping.

Drop one into the breakfast cocoa when you serve and see how pleased the family will be as they taste this new thrill.

Make a one crust apple pie and bake. Cut marshmallows in two and place on top of the pie. Put in oven and bake until golden brown.

Dip marshmallows into sweet chocolate or in toasted coconut for other taste treats.

Loosen paint stains with turpentine or with lard, and then wash. Turpentine will sometimes remove paint spots from windows. If it won't, try a razor blade.

Lard will often remove grease stains, such as oil. Chewing gum will come off if soaked with kerosene. Carbon tetrachloride will also do the trick.

Iron and rust stains will usually give way to applications of salt and lemon juice and exposing to the sun.

Are You a Coffee Drinker?
Most of us are in varying degrees. Did you know a few pertinent facts about coffee and coffee making?

Freshly ground or vacuum packed coffees, for instance, have the best flavor and aroma. Once coffee is opened, it deteriorates rapidly so unless your family is a large one, buy only one pound at a time. Be sure to keep the lid on tightly after the jar or can of coffee is opened.

Your coffee pot should be kept clean. Or I should say whatever type of utensil you use, be it coffee maker, pot, percolator, dripolator, glass sifter or what that means thoroughly washed, scoured and scalded.

Scald coffeemaker again just before making coffee to remove stale odors. Use freshly drawn cold water to make your coffee.

Be sure to use a grind of coffee that is suited to the type of coffee which you use. Learn how much coffee to use with each cup of water to suit you family's individual tastes. Then measure each time accurately so you'll always have good results.

Boiled coffee is more bitter than that made by other methods, but if you prefer that type, it is your preference.

Time your coffee accurately for best results. There is a type of coffee making called "boiled coffee," but it should really be simmered or steeped. One pound of all purpose ground coffee should make enough coffee for 40 people when you are serving a large crowd. A helpful fact for you to know.

Coffee often adds flavor to cake frostings, some cakes and cookies and iced drinks.

Quick Pan Rolls—
One cup lukewarm water, 1-3 cup of melted shortening, 1 tablespoon of sugar, 2 teaspoons of salt, 2 cakes or packages of quick acting yeast, 1 egg, 3 1/2 cups of sifted all-purpose flour. Combine water with the melted shortening, sugar and salt. Add yeast and mix well. Blend in egg. Gradually add flour and mix until dough is well blended and soft. Roll out on a well floured board to fit a 12x8-inch greased pan. Cut dough down center lengthwise, then cut crosswise into 12 parts. Let rise in a warm place, 80 to 85 degrees until double in bulk. This will require about 30 minutes. Bake in a 425-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Makes two dozen rolls. Serve while hot.

Prize-Winning Letter—
"Page Reader" wins our today's three-months' subscription to The Frontier.

Dear Mrs. Pease:
It will soon be Lent and I thought I would send along to you a couple of my favorite salmon recipes, for I think your readers might like to try them. They can be served at any season of the year. For instance, sometimes when I am in a hurry I make salmon hash, using cooked potatoes.

—tfw—
SALMON HASH
One medium onion, sliced, 2 tablespoons shortening or butter, 1 1/2 cups cooked diced potatoes, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 2 cups canned salmon, 6 eggs. Saute onion in shortening until tender. Add potatoes, seasonings and flaked salmon. Pile into large, well-greased muffin tins and hollow out the center of each mound. Bake in hot oven of 450 degrees for 10 minutes, remove from oven and break an egg into center of each mound of hash. Return to oven and bake at 350 degrees for 10 to 15 minutes, or until eggs are cooked. Serves six.

SALMON BACON PATS
This is another favorite of our family. One cup soft bread crumbs, 1 egg, slightly beaten, 1/2 cup juice from cans of salmon, 1 tablespoon scraped onion, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, sage, 4 cups canned salmon, 6 slices bacon. Combine bread crumbs with egg and salmon juice. Add onion, parsley, seasonings. Mix with flaked salmon. Shape 6 patties, wrap slice of bacon around each, fasten with tooth pick. Bake in hot oven of 450 F. 15 minutes until bacon is crisp. Remove from oven, arrange on platter around nest of carrots. Serves six.

SALMONBURGERS
These are one of our choicest ways of using salmon, and a plateful disappears mighty fast. Mix 2 cups (1-pound can) flaked canned salmon with 1/4 cup coarse cracker crumbs, 1 egg, slightly beaten. Saute 1 sliced onion in 1 tablespoon butter, add to salmon, season. Shape 6 thin salmon cakes and brown quickly in 1 tablespoon butter. Split large buns and place hot salmon cakes between. Serve with dill pickles. Serves six generously.

—tfw—
Many thanks "Page Reader." Those recipes sound so good I'm licking my chops. Anyone else got any good salmon recipes to spare? Or any other recipes, helps and hints?

We surely need some letters for our department. We give a three-months' subscription for each one we use. Send it to Mrs. Blanche Pease, The Frontier Woman, Atkinson, Nebr.

GIVE HIM A TICKET

Steeped in perplexity, Patrolman Paul Nydes puzzles the problem of what to do with the horse which he found hitched to a "flats-fixed, car wash" sign in downtown Pittsburgh. It later developed that the nag belonged to a junk man who had been hurt in a collision with a street car and taken to a hospital. A benevolent bystander had tied the horse to a pole to keep him out of harm's way.

CHRIST LUTHERAN (O'Neill)
Rev. Clyde O. Cress, pastor.
Sunday-school hour, 10:30 a. m.
Divine worship with Holy Communion, 11:30 a. m.
Theme of sermon: Paul's song of love and we note from the text, "Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity (love)"; that the Apostle Paul compares or contrasts love. He analyzes love and he proclaims the durability of love.
