To All Mayors and City Councils:

You and all other Nebraska Mayors and city councils recently received a letter from the Nebraska Committee, United States Brewers Foundation.

You were asked to use extra care in checking the qualifications and past record of those seeking beer-selling licenses this year. It was urged that you recommend to the Liquor Control Commission only those who are well qualified as to moral character, financial responsibility, satisfactory location and general trustworthiness.

To the Public:

As a citizen, you, too, have a responsibility. You do not want careless or incompetent beer licensees.

How can you help? Attend your local public beer-license hearing. Be prepared to report any cases of laxity or law-violation. Urge others to attend and participate. Advise them where and when the meeting will be held.

This is YOUR part in the job of good government.
