WINTERMOTES WED 50 YEARS

Married in Chambers Spend 48 Years on One Farm

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. John Wintermote, who retired from their farm last Spring, Sunday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Open house was held in the afternoon and evening when about 50 friends called to extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wintermote were married at Chambers on March 16, 1898. After spending several months of their early married life in Iowa, they returned to Holt county. In 1899 they purchased a place northeast of Chambers where they made their home for 48 years.

An anniversary dinner was served at the home of Gaius Wintermote. The rooms were decorated in gold-and-white. A 3-tiered wedding cake, baked by the eldest daughter, Mrs. Herman Cook, provided the table centerpiece.

All of the Wintermote's 5 children and 8 of their grandchildren were present besides other near relatives.

Those present at the wedding a half-century ago and also present at the celebration were Jack Keller, Oscar Dorothy, brother of Mrs. Wintermote, and Everett and Ellsworth Wintermote, nephews of Mr. Wintermote.

Others present at Sunday's gathering were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cook and Ramona, of Ericson; Mrs. Ida Wallace, William, Robert and Betty, of Scottsbluff; Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Boughn, of Brookings, Ore.; Eula Wintermote, of Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Gaius Wintermote and Carolyn, of Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. William Phipps, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Wintermote and Oscar Dorothy, of Douglas,
