

HONORARY ELDER TITLE CONFERRED

Robert MacLachlan, of Atkinson, Honored by Ewing Church

EWING — The annual meeting of the congregation of the Ewing United Presbyterian church was held March 24. New officers elected are: Trustees — Adolph Bartak and Ebben Graft, chairman of the congregation — Webb Napier; secretary — treasurer — Mrs. Carl Christon. Officers of the Bible school retained for another year are: Superintendent — Willy Shrader; children's superintendent, Mrs. Rolland Hord, and secretary-treasurer, Lynn Fry.

A special honor was conferred on Robert MacLachlan, of Atkinson, when the congregation voted to ask him to become an honorary elder of the church. Mr. MacLachlan served as an elder in the Atkinson Presbyterian church for many years. The daughter of the MacLachlan's, Laura, is serving as a missionary in Pakistan under the Women's Board of Missions of the United Presbyterian church.

January, February, March Birthdays Noted

INMAN — Members of the Inman Women's Society of Christian Service, who celebrated their birthday anniversaries in January, February and March, were guests-of-honor at the meeting last Thursday at their parlors.

Greeting cards were used as placecards at the birthday table, which was decorated in the Easter motif.

Preceding the party, Mrs. Ralph Moore, president, conducted the business session. Miss Elsie Kruegar had charge of the devotions.

The group met for an all-day meeting and served a covered dish luncheon at noon.

New Phone Company Forming at Celia

CELIA — A telephone meeting was held at the Alex Frickel home March 24. A report was made that at least 300 new poles will be needed as well as new wire. A new telephone company is being formed. There are only 2 or 3 renters on the phone line as most of the Celia folks with telephones own their own farms. There will be over 20 on the new line.

Scavenger Hunt Features Birthday Party

INMAN — Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sawyer entertained 10 boys on March 24 at their home in honor of their son, Larry, who was 13-years-old.

A scavenger hunt furnished the evening's entertainment. Harold Neilson was captain of the winning side.

Mrs. Sawyer served refreshments after the hunt.

Gannons Entertain

INMAN — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gannon entertained the Y M club at their country home Saturday evening. Cards furnished the entertainment. Luncheon was served at a late hour.
