When You and I Were Young —

Spark from Pipe Sets Coat Ablaze for Pedestrian

60 YEARS AGO March 29, 1888

A rather oldish looking man was walking north towards the courthouse Wednesday afternoon. The wind was blowing rather hard and the gentleman did not notice a spark of fire which flew from his pipe and caught on his overcoat. His coat was soon all ablaze and in a few moments the man would have been badly burned himself had not George Jones ran up and threw his own coat over the surprised man and smothered the fire.

What O'Neill needs and what she should have right away is a system of street lamps. On a dark night a stranger can hardly find his way along the crowded thoroughfare.

The quacking goose and the cooing duck is abroad in the land and the festive hunter is as usual walking 10 miles through mud and slush only to catch a faint glimpse of the fair creature as he soars high up into the heavens out of gun shot and smiles down on his would-be slayer.

Charles Moore went to Chambers last week and brought to O'Neill George Summerville the stage driver who was so badly frozen in the January blizzard. Drs. Connolly and Eisman performed an operation on his feet and he is getting along "reasonably well."

The St. Louis grocery company is putting in a large grocery house in O'Neill, to commence April 1. They have rented Ed Hershiser's building and will make this town a distributing point and will supply everything in the grocery line to all the north and north-west country, as well as Holt county.

50 YEARS AGO March 31, 1898

Last Friday, Rev. N. S. Lowrie went around town with a subscription paper collecting funds to be sent to the starving Cubans. He met with good success and in a short time raised $55.80.

The 13-year old son of Si Buck, who lives near Ewing, was killed by an accidental discharge of a gun yesterday.
