Mrs. George G. Hendricks — O'Neill Photo Co.

Thelma Morgan Weds in Church Ceremony

At 2 p. m. on Thursday, April 1, Miss Thelma Morgan, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Morgan, became the bride of George G. Hendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hendrick.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian church in O'Neill. Rev. Ward Smith officiated before the altar decorated with pedestal baskets of red roses. Mrs. Howard Manson played the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Bonnie Jean Harmon who was the vocal soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law Fred Colfack, jr., of Ewing. She wore a dusty pink wool suit with a gardenia corsage. Her maid-of-honor, Miss Jean Rakowski, of Norfolk, wore a beige suit with a Siberian iris corsage.

Sam Fuhrer, of O'Neill, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hendrick home for about 60 relatives and friends. Mrs. M. V. Landreth, of Page, sister of the bridegroom, baked the 3-tiered wedding cake which with white tapers and spring flowers was used on the table. Miss Leona Hamilton, Miss Bonnie Jean Harmon, Mrs. Don Hynes and Miss Edwina Jones served ice cream and cake.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill high school with the class of 1945. For the past 3 years she has been employed at the Consumers Public Power District. The bridegroom graduated from O'Neill high school in 1941. He served 2 1/2 years in the Navy.

The young couple left their evening for Endicott, N. Y., where Mr. Hendricks will take 4 months' training preparatory to becoming a customer engineer for International Business Machine company.
