

BLAST CAUSES DEATH OF 2

Kenneth and Clarence Connors, both of Jefferson.

A rosary was said at the Seeger funeral home Tuesday night. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 9 a. m. in St. Joseph's Catholic church with Rev. A. A. Lehman, church pastor, officiating. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. The pallbearers: Dr. F. J. Mancuso, V. B. Faust, A. G. Miller, Arthur Humpal and Francis D. Lee, all of Atkinson, and Archie Findley, of Tilden.

The late Mr. Hamik was born at Stuart on November 1, 1899, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Egnaz Hamik. He spent most of his life in Holt county. He was married to a number of years near Stuart and for a time operated a tavern at Atkinson. For the past 7 years he has operated a bulk station for the Standard Oil Co.

A rosary was said Tuesday night at the Hamik residence. Funeral services were to have been held today (Thursday) at 9 a. m. in St. Joseph's church with Father Lehman in charge. Burial was to have been in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Survivors include: Widow brothers—John, Martin, Frank and Joseph, all of Stuart; sisters—Mrs. Herman (Julia) Schmieders of Stuart, and Mary, of Omaha.

The pallbearers: Edward Friedel, Elmer Alberding and Arthur Pachh, all of Stuart; Harold Proff, Gerald Gonderinger and Luvern Morgan, all of Atkinson.
