

CIRCUS THEMES AT INMAN, EWING

Bareback Riders, Clowns Serve 29 Guests—

INMAN—Juniors and seniors of Inman high school participated in the annual junior-senior banquet Saturday evening. A circus theme was carried out.

The high school assembly, where the banquet was held, was decorated with multi-colored pennants and balloons.

Circus animals of every description were around the outer section. In the center was a miniature merry-go-round with prancing steeds. The tables in the form of a square were placed around the merry-go-round.

Three sophomore girls dressed as bareback riders and 4 sophomore boys dressed as clowns served the 29 guests which included the seniors, the juniors, members of the faculty and Miss Elja McCullough, of O'Neill, Holt county superintendent.

Miss Carolyn Watson at the piano furnished appropriate music.

Georgella Sobotka welcomed the seniors and John Harte responded. Tom Clark was toastmaster. He introduced the faculty members and students who took part in the program. LuElla Watson read the class history.

The class will be read by Deloras Cadwallader, while Leonard Sholes forecast the future of the class.

Short talks were made as follows: "The Good Old Days," Henrietta Sobotka; "Pink Elephants," Supt. Ralph Gray; "The Flying Trapeze," Mrs.

Gray; "Managerie," Mrs. Ira George.

The bareback riders and clowns put on a "Stunt." Dertha Smith played a piano solo; 5 boys sang the class song; Joseph Coon offered the benediction.

Delmont Heck was crowned king and Shirley Appleby was crowned queen. They were chosen the outstanding boy and girl by a vote of the entire high school. Their identity was not revealed until after the banquet.

Dancing concluded the evening's entertainment.

Mothers of members of the junior class planned and served the dinner. These included: Mrs. Ernest Brunckhorst, Mrs. Dan Sholes, Mrs. James Hopkins, Mrs. Edgar Baldwin, Mrs. Gene Clark, Mrs. Thomas Hutton and Mrs. Harry Moore.

Gaily Colored 'Big Top' Provides Banquet Setting—

EWING—Juniors and seniors of Ewing high school got all dressed up on Wednesday, April 21, to attend a "circus." The occasion was the annual junior-senior banquet and juniors chose "The Circus" as the theme of the banquet. A gaily colored "big-top" covered the tables which had been set for 60 guests. Sophomore girls dressed as gypsies served the guests. The "barker" for the big show was Marvin Miller, high school principal and sponsor of the junior class. Circus music was provided by Skip Marquardt, junior class president. He also made the welcome speech to the seniors, who were represented in response by Phyllis Fry, class president.

Phyllis Gernousek acted as toastmaster. She introduced these students and faculty members who took part in the program: Rose Funk, who read the senior class history; Betty Shrader, senior class poem; Roger Bennett, class will, and Doris Jean Snider, class prophecies.

Bevota Chambers added a "big top" touch by telling some genuinely gypsy fortunes. Short talks were made on the "Senior" theme by: Marly Woepffel, "Sincerity;" Lois Hobbs, "Enthusiasm;" Walter Sievers, "Nerve;" Evelyn Bartack, "Integrity;" Miss Elsie Chase, commercial teacher, "Opportunity;" Supt. A. S. Evans, "Reward."

The program closed with the reading of an original poem, "You Seniors," by Violet Alderson.

The meal was prepared by mothers of members of the junior class: Mrs. Earl Billings, Mrs. Rose Lauthrey, Mrs. L. A. Hobbs, Mrs. Ed Cernousek, Mrs. Ray Angus, Mrs. Roy Donaway, Mrs. Alvin Walnifer, Mrs. Marcella Chambers, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. Nels Bergstrom, Mrs. Vic Marquardt, Mrs. Carl Bollwitt, Mrs. Herman Schroeder and Mrs. Bill Schindler.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ressel spent Sunday in Plainview visiting with Mr. Ressel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ressel. On Saturday Elaine Ressel and Connie Lou Williams visited at the Ressel home in Plainview.

FOUR-FOOTED LOBBYISTS FOR ERP . . . Proponents of the Marshall plan for European recovery have pressed even a donkey (symbol of the Democratic party) into service as a lobbyist for the program. The donkey is shown lumbering up the steps of the capitol bearing a sign advocating the sending of draft animals to Europe as part of the plan.

When You and I Were Young — Tenement Houses Needed; Holt Volunteers Organized

Several of our athletic young fellows have for a long time been talking of organizing a club and at last the organization has been effected and will be known as the Star Athletic club. Walter Tesch is captain; Grant Sanders, secretary; Tim Hanley, treasurer; Dennie Cronin, property man.

They have horizontal and parallel bars, Indian clubs, dumb bells, spring boards, trapeze and all of the other modern appliances for developing the muscles.

The group will be known as the Star Athletic club.

Mr. James Frazer has decided to locate in O'Neill and has rented Mr. Mack's store room and will put in a stock of groceries. One more business enterprise for our town. We now have 2 wholesale grocery houses, 6 retail groceries, 3 general merchandise stores, 1 shoe store and 1 exclusive dry goods store.

The K.P.'s will give a May party at the rink next Tuesday. The Knights will appear in full dress uniform. They have secured, at considerable expense, a fine string band of finished musicians from Niobrara to play for their party.

A special telegram was received at our office this afternoon announcing that the American fleet had bombarded the port of Mantanza in Cuba and had silenced 4 batteries. A solid shot from one of the American guns exploded a magazine and killed 20 Spanish soldiers.

For the past week John Skirving has been engaged in receiving names to form a company of Holt county volunteers. The boys want to organize a company and then tender their services to the governor. The company will be composed of 24 from Stuart and about 40 from this city. Several O'Neills would like to enlist if they could secure commissions as colonels or generals.

Married, at Lincoln, at 10 a. m., Monday, April 18, Editor Romney Saunders, of the Leigh World, to Miss Rose Meals, of O'Neill.

A castle of Royal Highlanders was organized in this city Wednesday night with 65 charter members. Officers are: R. R. Dickson, T. V. Golden, Neil Brennan, H. R. Henry, Clarence Selah, J. B. Mellor, C. F. Englehaupt, Nelson Kane, J. C. Carney, O. F. Biglin, M. A. Coykendall, E. M. Merriman, C. L. Davis, O. O. Snyder, J. P. Mann.

Grant Heinerickson expects to move his restaurant and bakery today into the Heinerickson building on Douglas street. This is a desirable location for a restaurant.

The course of the river has been changed south of the old Hershiser place one mile west of O'Neill. The ditch has just recently been finished and connected with the river at each end. This will be a great help to the bridges in that locality when the spring rains begin.

The marriage of Leslie Hough and Miss Elsie Mary Grass of this city was solemnized at St. Patrick's church on Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock with Rev. J. E. Duhamel performing the ceremony.

J. F. O'Donnell and S. J. Weekes attended the meeting and banquet of the bankers of Group III at Norfolk Monday.

J. S. Hoffman was signally honored at a meeting of the Niobrara Presbytery last week when he was the unanimous choice of the presbytery as the delegate to the general assembly held in Indianapolis next month.

Brown-McDonald's Baby Week Celebration

Baby—bless his heart—what would this disturbed old world do without his bright happy smiles, and goos and giggles? We wonder . . . have you been to Brown-McDonald's lately to see what we carry in stock for your baby? Or, what we have for gifts for other folks' babies? We don't like to pat ourselves on the back, but truly we think you'll be just a little surprised at what you CAN find; and, of course, we do stretch dollars here the same as elsewhere in our store.

Here's Our Special for Baby Week

A Lovely Little Handmade Phillipine Dress

For only 1.98

Isn't this a break for that shower gift you are planning? Or, that first layette? Very soft fine-count batiste is the material, hand embroidered. You'll love it (so will the baby), and the price makes it still more desirable. This is a wonderful time to anticipate your gift needs.

Sizes 6 mo.—12 mo.—18 mo.

Cotton Creepers

1.49 to 1.98

Snap-fastened, or buttoned-crotch styles in plain white, blue or maize fine-count cotton with cute animal design trims. Sizes 6 mo., 1 year, 2 years.
