EMMET ITEMS

The marriage of Henry Seger, formerly of Atkinson, Nebraska, and Miss Leta Van Andel of Lincoln, Nebraska, will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Van Andel, 5235 Huntington avenue, Lincoln, Nebraska, Saturday, August 15th, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Paul Calhoun of the First Presbyterian church, will read the service in the presence of sixty guests. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Lois Grow will give a solo and, with Kenneth Anderson, will sing a duet. Miss Genevieve Kumpf is to serve as accompanist. Miss Bernice Nickel is to play the processional music from Lohengrin. Miss Pauline Linch is to be Miss Van Andel's bridesmaid. Harold Seger, of Atkinson will be groomsmen. An informal reception will follow the ceremony. Miss Maxine Van Andel, sister of the bride, will be in charge of the guest book and gift room.

Archie Findley, Franklin Hickman and Charles Chase drove to Norfolk Sunday and attended the air races; they also visited friends there, returning home Sunday night.

Floyd Vequist left Thursday for Fort Crook Military Camp, at Omaha. He and a boy friend from Page drove to Lincoln, where they stopped for a short visit at the home of Floyd's cousin, Mrs. Esther Schrank. Francis Schrank took the boys over to Omaha, where they entered the military camp Monday morning.

Miss Minnie Seger left for Norfolk Saturday morning for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Vernon Keeney and with her brother Harold. Monday morning she accompanied her friend, Miss Georgia Keeney to Wayne college for a short visit; she returned home Monday night. She says that the corn is as badly burned down that way as it is here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith and daughter Leona Ferne, and Mrs. Beckwith's sister, Blanche Young, drove to Tilden, Thursday to see Dean Beckwith, who is pitching for the Sioux Falls Canaries. Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith stopped at Neligh and took Leon's cousin, Sidone Hall with them to Tilden. The Canaries were very attractive birds in their yellow suits, with red Sox caps; and of course they were victorious, the score being 15 to 4 in their favor.

A grand and glorious two inch rain fell in this vicinity Tuesday night. Most of the corn is too far gone to be much benefited; however the corn in sandy soil has stood the dry weather remarkably and has a chance to mature. The hay and pastures will be greatly benefited and the cowboys won't have to herd their cows along the section lines much longer.

Haying has started in full swing the past week; many of the neighbors have taken their haying machinery and gone several miles south to put up hay. The meadows and alfalfa fields near here are practically all dried up.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Benj. Kuhler, Pastor

There will be all the services, including preaching, next Sunday morning. Rev. Conrad has kindly consented to preach next Sunday, as he had intended to do last Sunday, but the pastor was here and preached. No preaching in the evening. Prayer service Thursday night. A leader has been appointed. After next Sunday, all regular services may be expected again, morning and night.

Lots of talk about drought and depression. So does the Bible speak of it, when the children of Israel turned from worshipping the living God, abandoned the houses of worship and bowed down to gods of pleasure, etc. And the Lord sent drought and pestilence until they returned to Him and the Heavens were again opened with blessing. Get out the old dusty neglected Bibles and find it. It is there, all right.
