METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Benj. Kuhler, Pastor

Spencer entertained the Methodist Sunday School on Eagle Creek, Wednesday, for a picnic; there was a fine fellowship together; eight cars went up from O'Neill. And 120 attendance at our Sunday School last Sunday does not indicate that our ardor has cooled.

Next Sunday morning our text, "They helped every one, his neighbor, and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage."

In the evening the theme will be the "Grotto of the Redemption," which speaks the fall of man and his redemption in silent, yet eloquent stone, as we saw it at West Bend, Iowa.

INMAN ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Retke and family spent Sunday with relatives at Neligh.

Mr. L. P. Mossman spent the past week in Lincoln, transacting business.

Miss Doris Stearns, of O'Neill, is spending the week here with her sister, Mrs. Earl Goree.

Mrs. John Jackson, of St. Paul, Minnesota was here Friday, visiting her old friend, Mrs. Jennie Wilcox; Mrs. Jackson was a former resident in Inman, having lived here twenty years ago. Mrs. Jackson informed us that her husband had been killed in an automobile accident three years ago.

EMMET ITEMS

Mervin Kee visited Darwin Seger, Sunday afternoon.

Paul and Otto Hoehne called at Joe Winkler's Sunday afternoon.

Miss Alma Kee went to O'Neill last week, where she is employed at the Downey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Leach and little daughter visited at the home of Mrs. Leach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Spatz, of Abie, Nebraska, visited a few days last week with the Winkler families; they also visited with relatives in Plainview. Mr. Spatz is grandma Winkler's nephew.

The grub worms have destroyed about 20 acres of good hay meadow belonging to Andrew Johnson, this summer; the worms seem to destroy the roots, causing the hay to dry up. A few other similar cases have been reported.

Glen Lorenze stayed for a few days last week at the home of Lavern Stahley, in O'Neill. Wednesday Glen's mother, Mrs. Carl Lorenze, drove to O'Neill and brought both boys out to the farm; Lavern returned home Sunday.

Harold Seger underwent an operation for appendicitis, Monday morning, at Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Beckwith and Mrs. Gus Seger left for Norfolk Monday afternoon; they expect to spend most of the week there with Harold.

Edward Winkler received a letter from a man in Verno Beach, Florida; he wanted a couple of those coyotes which the Winkler boys dug out some time ago; he read about it in a Florida paper. It is too bad that the boys killed the pups.

When Guy Beckwith went to feed his pigs Monday morning, he found one dead pig and several sick ones; Dr. Bennett was called and after examining them, decided that the trouble was tin can poisoning; Mr. Beckwith has been buying butter-milk from the creamery, and sometimes leaves it in the can two or three days before feeding it; as a result he lost three nice pigs, and two more are not expected to recover.

On short notice, Albert Roseler picked up a baseball team composed of players around Emmet, and defeated the fast Baker team by a score of 10 to 6. A good crowd attended the game; errors were plentiful on both sides, due to the condition of the diamond; the locals were behind 5-0 for a time, but by plenty of safe hitting during the last half of the game, came out ahead; a return game is scheduled for Sept. 6.

Quite a crowd went to the Old Settlers Picnic, on Thursday; Edgar Howard gave an interesting talk in regard to the grasshopper condition; he said that they should be destroyed this year because it will just take pennies this year to destroy them, where if let go, it will take ten dollar bills next year. Mr. Howard said that the government has set aside a certain amount of money to be used for drouth stricken sections, and he believes that it would be possible for us to get our share for the eradication of the hoppers if we would work for it. After the ball game, they had sack races for the men; a rolling pin contest for the women, and races for the boys and girls; Vern Beckwith won the men's foot race, so the boys came home feeling somewhat victorious, even though they lost the ball game to Redbird; the score was 5-12.

(Last Week)

Bobbie Bennett and his little brothers have been hauling in a supply of wood the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lorenze called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dick, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith visited Miss Lois Dyson at the Stuart hospital Sunday afternoon; Miss Dyson is convalescing from an appendicitis operation. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith also visited friends at the hospital, Sunday.

A very queer storm swept over the county Friday night. At John Heinowski's, northeast of Emmet, an inch of hail was reported; from Henry Werner's and northeast of Emmet the wind blew very hard; it blew three of Mrs. Ralph Beckwith's young turkeys from their perch and killed them instantly; a short distance east the wind didn't blow at all; a good rain accompanied it.

Mr. Peter Owen and niece, Ruth Young, drove up from Central City, Saturday. Ruth stayed here and her mother, Mrs. Ralph Young, returned to Central City with her brother, Sunday they drove to Omaha, where Mrs. Young's sister Miss Cora Owen is taking surgical treatment; Mrs. Young will stay with her sister until she is able to return home. Thus far doctors have been unable to determine the condition of Miss Owen's condition.

Word was received by relatives of the death of Joe Crawford and Will Lowrie, in Montana, on Wednesday; no particulars of their deaths have been learned at this time; they were both residents of Paddock several years ago.

Word was received here Thursday evening of the death of Falem O'Neill at Casper, Wyoming. Funeral services were held from the Catholic church in O'Neill, Monday. Falem grew to manhood at Anncarr, and was quite well known in this vicinity. The relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

A large crowd attended the Old Settlers Picnic on Thursday; the day was fair but rather windy; Congressman Edgar Howard made the address; the O'Neill Band furnished the music during the day and Keeler's orchestra from Lynch, played for the dance; Emmet and Redbird played ball, Redbird being the victor. Considering the dry year, grasshoppers and everything, it was a pretty good picnic.

A good many of the old friends and neighbors of Ralph Bell were shaking hands with Ralph, his wife and his sister, Miss Mae, at the picnic, Thursday. Ralph lived in this vicinity for several years before the World War. His family moved to Missouri and he enlisted; this is his first trip to Holt county since that time; he now lives at Merville, Iowa. His sister was a small child when they moved from here.
