Mrs. Emma Taylor who spent the past week at the Karl Keyes home, returned to her home at Battle Creek on Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Poe and children of Wakefield came Saturday to attend the anniversary services at the M. E. church, Sunday.

Rev. Benj. Kuhler and daughter, Miss Lois, of O'Neill were here Sunday attending the Golden Jubilee at the M. E. church.

Chester Fowler, who visited here last week left Saturday for Sioux City, Iowa, where he will teach in schools of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chicken took their daughter, Miss Muriel to Gracie, Neb., Sunday, where she will teach school the coming year.

Miss Violette Brich, of Denver, who has spent the past ten days visiting here with Miss Della Thompson returned to her home, Monday.

Miss Della Thompson pleasantly entertained a number of friends at her home Friday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Violette Brich, of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Peterson, of Norfolk, were here Sunday visiting relatives and attending the 50th anniversary program at the M. E.

church.

Rev. and Mrs. Benj. Murten and Miss Elva James, of Mullen, Nebr., came Friday to visit relatives and to attend the Golden Jubilee at the M. E. church.

Dr. C. G. Goman, Supt. of the Norfolk district of the Methodist church spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Inman, attending the Golden Jubilee of the local church.

Rev. A. A. Kerber and son Karl, of Bristow were here for the 50th anniversary services at the M. E. church Sunday; Rev. Kerber is a former pastor of the Inman church.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Noyes and daughters, Hazel, Cecil, Julia and Viva, and son Billie, of Ceresco, visited here over the week-end and attended the Golden Jubilee at the M. E. church, Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Taylor and daughter, Miss Ava, of Clearwater, spent Sunday in Inman, attending the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the church; Rev. Taylor is a former pastor of the Inman church.

Sunday was a big day in the history of the Methodist church of Inman, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of that institution in Inman. The first service was held Saturday evening, Rev. A. A. Kerber, of Bristow, delivered the sermon; this was followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, administered by Dr. C. G. Goman, assisted by the pastors.

On Sunday morning the services opened with Sunday School at 9:45, with Gladys Hancock as superintendent. Special numbers at this service were a vocal solo by little Miss Hazel Fraka, assisted in the chorus by a number of small children, and a vocal number by a girls quartet composed of Misses Lois Killinger, Wilma Brown, Ruth Fraka and Willys Hopkins. Dr. W. W. Noyes, of Ceresco, Neb., gave a splendid talk during the Sunday School hour; Dr. Noyes was Supt. of the Inman Sunday School for several years while they lived in Inman. The morning worship service was opened by the pastor, Rev. Mertie E. Clute; at the close of the first song, four young men, including Harvey Tompkins, Rex and Vere Butler, and Dale Stevens, entered the church, carrying 70 new song books, the gift of the Epworth League to the church; the presentation speech was made by Harvey Tompkins and the response was given by Rev. Mertie Clute; this came as a total surprise to the church and needless to say, the new books and the thoughtfulness of the young people was much appreciated. Special numbers for the morning service were a vocal solo by Ralph Gray, of Page; a vocal duet by Rev. and Mrs. R. Poe, of Wakefield; a piano solo by Miss Elva James, of Mullen. A splendid sermon was delivered by Dr. C. G. Goman, of Norfolk. The morning service was followed by a basket dinner on the lawn at the rear of the church. At 2:30 p. m. the service was opened by an orchestra program under the direction of Mr. Byergo, of Page; there was a 16-piece orchestra following the concert by the orchestra. Rev. Taylor, of Clearwater, presided at the afternoon service. Letters of greeting were read from former pastors, District Superintendents and early members of the church; these were all very interesting. The church history, which was compiled by Miss Gladys Hancock, was read by Mrs. Geo. Killinger. All visiting pastors gave short talks at the afternoon meeting. A special musical number was given by Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Bartsch; old hymns that were sung fifty years ago were sung by the choir. Following the afternoon service a basket supper was served at 6:30 p. m. The Epworth League convened, with Rev. R. Poe, of Wakefield, as speaker; Harvey Tompkins, president of the League, led the devotions; Rev. Poe's address to the young people was very inspirational and was much appreciated. The evening service was in charge of Rev. B. H. Murten, of Mullen, Neb., who delivered a splendid sermon. Mr. and Mrs. Byergo, of Page, furnished some instrumental numbers. The evening service was also preceded by an orchestra concert. This was a day long to be remembered by the people of Inman. The house was filled to its capacity at every service and many were forced to listen from the outside; more than 250 people signed the register. The visiting pastors were Rev. W. T. Taylor, Clearwater; Rev. B. H. Murten, Mullen; Rev. R. Poe, Wakefield; Rev. A. A. Kerber, Bristow; Rev. Sam McKeown, Page; Rev. Benj. Kuhler, O'Neill, and Dr. C. G. Goman, Norfolk. Guests included people from San Diego, California, Ceresco, Neb., Hastings, Neb., Battle Creek, Neb., Omaha, Neb., O'Neill, Page and Ewing, Neb.

EMMET ITEMS

Vern Beckwith will open school in District 155 Monday, August 27th.

The Methodist Epworth League had a party at the Charley Abart home Tuesday night.

Ed Beckwith, of Neligh, was a dinner guest of his nephew, Ralph Beckwith and family, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Garwin, of Scottsbluff, Neb., are the parents of a baby boy born August 27th.

Mrs. George Pongratz, who is recovering from an operation at the Stuart hospital, is getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Coleman and children, Franklin Hickman and Mildred Findley had a picnic dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Weber and children of Long Pine, spent a week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler; Mrs. Weber is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Winkler; they returned home Wednesday.

The rural teachers met at O'Neill Saturday afternoon and were given their supplies for this term. The teachers are always inspired by Mrs. Parker. Mr. Rooney gave a short talk on club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith drove to Elgin, Thursday and visited at the Will Paul home; they also drove over to Central City to see Mrs. Beckwith's aunt, Miss Cora Owen, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bantz, of Auburn and their daughter, Mrs. Frank Foreman, husband and daughter, Norma Jean, came Friday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hickman and with other relatives.

Floyd Vequist returned home Sunday from the Fort Crook Military training camp at Omaha; Floyd wore a badge for good marksmanship and enjoyed his training very much; he expects to leave for Lincoln, Sunday to attend the State Fair.

Quite a large prairie fire occurred about 5 1/2 miles southeast of Emmet Monday afternoon; it burned a strip about 100 yards wide along the west side of a section; it got pretty close to some of the stacks but none were burned. The hay was put up by the Emmet Hay Co.

Donald Vequist went to O'Neill with Ralph Wagner, Tuesday, for a visit with Mr. Wagner's children; Donald and his little friend, David, attended the Fair, Wednesday; David spent most of last week visiting with Donald on his father's ranch, north of Emmet.

The Emmet ball team played at Baker, Sunday; the score was 2 to 4 in favor of Baker. All that remains of the once prosperous town of Baker is a ball diamond and two churches. It is near the South Dakota line and the crop conditions are much worse than they are here; the farmers think their corn will make 15 bushels to the acre; last year it went 35 bushels to the acre and they considered it a very poor year; those farmers are planning to thresh their corn; they say it makes the best of feed, and the corn is also separated.

Henry Vequist, who trucked a double deck load of sheep to Sioux City for Charley Smith, Monday relates an interesting experience.

When he entered Randolph he noticed a great number of trucks, most of them loaded with livestock, parked at the curb; he accordingly parked also and inquired about the detour; it had been raining and cars coming this way reported the detour as being very bad; it was a narrow, rounded grade and if one car turned out to pass another it was almost sure to slide into the ditch. The truck drivers willingly helped push the cars back onto the grade; Mr. Vequist said that there were over 100 trucks in the line. Mr. Vequist and Charley Smith returned home Tuesday night.
