KOENIG—MARKEY

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Patrick's church in O'Neill on Monday morning, September 14th at eight o'clock when Irene Markey and Cyril Koenig were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Monsignor Cassidy, attended by Rev. Father Kluthe, of Spencer, Nebraska.

The bride was prettily attired in a gown of brown chiffon velvet, with accessories to match, and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

The bridesmaid, Cecelia Markey, twin sister of the bride, was tastily attired in a dress of forest green crepe with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses.

The groom was dressed in a dark blue suit. Henry Koenig, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride, formerly of this city, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Markey, and has been employed in Omaha for the past three years.

Mr. Koenig has also been employed in Omaha for the past two years, having formerly resided at Fairfax, South Dakota.

Following the ceremony, a delicious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Only the immediate relatives were present.

The bridal couple will reside in Omaha, after spending this week at the home of their parents.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

The new Educational Hall for exhibits of school and 4-H club work at the Chambers fair grounds has been completed and will be dedicated on Friday at the Chambers fair. This building has been put up by money contributed by the school districts and the business men of Chambers. This is a fine building and a valuable addition to the fair. Next year we hope to have such a building put up on the Holt County fair grounds.

The Holt County Teachers Institute will be held Monday and Tuesday, October 5th and 6th at the O'Neill Public school. These institutes are held for the purpose of giving the teachers the opportunity to learn new methods and to get new ideas which improve their efficiency in the school room. All teachers of the county are expected to attend each session. Some excellent talent has been secured and we have tried to plan a helpful program. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend. See your local paper next week for a copy of the program.

FATHER FLANNIGAN'S HOME FOR BOYS DESERVES YOUR SUPPORT

Starting nearly fourteen years ago in a small house, Father Flannigan's Boys' Home, through the kindness and generosity of the citizens of the middle west, has grown into one of America's outstanding juvenile institutions.

Building and planning day and night has been the work of Father Edward J. Flannigan, founder of the Home. So difficult has been his task and so hard has he worked, that he has sacrificed his health in the interests of the homeless boys.

Now Father Flannigan is resting in a Denver hospital and doctors have informed him he must spend several months in the dry climate of Arizona. They hope he may fully recover within six months. He gave his health to the Home but all the Home is asking of its friends and of the people of the middle west is that they give a bit of money.

Only a dollar or two from those who read this notice and the Home will be able to keep its doors open. That is not asking too much of anyone.

Father Flannigan's Boys' Home is like any other institution or corporation—it has no money, it must close its doors. It needs $87,500 now to pay its bills, to pay interests on its mortgage and provide supplies and maintenance for the coming winter months. Unless you help, it will not get this money and the boys will have to be returned to the streets and alleys, to become criminals and to cost us a lot more in taxes in later life to build jails for them. Isn't it cheaper to build good boys than to build jails?

Don't depend upon your neighbor, send a check today.

We wish to reprint the following paragraph from a letter Father Flannigan sent to some of his friends.

"If the Home closes it will break my heart. That won't matter much. But it will break the hearts of these two hundred boys, deprive a chance in life to thousands of boys in the years to come. You with other good friends can save our Home. Please, and may God bless you."

To keep down OPERATING COSTS use BALANCED GASOLINE

Beware of too light gasoline for summer. It gives low mileage per gallon. It may cause bubbles in the fuel lines and a balky motor.

Too heavy gasoline is even worse. It makes the motor sluggish, even on a rich mixture which can't give big mileage per gallon.

Balanced RED CROWN GASOLINE is light enough for quick starts and a snappy getaway. It is heavy enough to prevent "bubble trouble." It burns up so completely that you get high power and big mileage per gallon.

To keep down operating costs in truck, tractor and passenger car, and to avoid harmful dilution of your crankcase oil, keep your tank filled with balanced Red Crown Gasoline—high power at low cost.
