EMMET ITEMS

A crowd of young people and old folks enjoyed the Halloween party at the Methodist church basement Friday evening.

The box supper at the Pleasant Dale school Thursday evening was a real success. A nice size crowd was present in spite of the cold rainy evening. The program was well rendered and the Halloween decorations especially attractive. After the program the boxes were sold by Gerald Dustako. Mrs. Carl Lorenze's box received the highest bid. It was a round box trimmed with pretty crepe and tinsel. All the boxes were very pretty. Chances were sold on a one pound box of chocolates. Free chances were given to the prettiest and ugliest persons there, also to the largest and smallest. A great deal of fun was derived from this. Edward Winkler was the lucky person.

Bernard Dustako brought his sister Tressia home Thursday evening so she could attend the box supper at the Pleasant Dale school. Miss Pongratz teaches school in the Givens District north of O'Neill.

Helen Hoehne returned with her and visited school all day Friday.
