In the Second supervisor district Carson wins the republican nomination over McKim by 11 votes. Herbert Jensen was high man for the democratic nomination. Tabulating of the vote shows:

The democrats got out to vote over the county to the number of 2207 and republicans only 1248, as shown by the vote for governor. Bryan was high man in the county among the candidates for governor, polling 1601. Roosevelt of New York got a large vote for the presidential preference, 1550. The vote in the county on governor was as follows:

Republicans—	156
Williams	461

Representative, democrat—Nightengale 977; Slaymaker 1,010.

Ezra Cooke had no opposition for the republication nomination for representative and received 1049 votes.

The democrats had three contestants for the nomination for congress. Howard carries the county with a vote of 1176. Joe Daly got a good vote in O'Neill. His vote in the county was 603. Sherry got 121. There was but one republican candidate for congress, H. Halderson, who polled 1,007 votes.

Two delegates to republican national convention from Third congressional district:

Jackson	927
Burke	860

Democrat, two selected: Reifenrath 468; Reed 1,008; Donohoe 1,344.

In the district Mr. Donohoe has some 400 votes over the next highest on the returns from 335 precincts out of 448.

The contest is close between John Robertson and Chris Anderson in this county. Boyd county gives Robertson 397 votes and Anderson 480. Brown, Keya Paha and Rock have not been heard from.

With about 400 precincts not reported the nominations on the state and congressional tickets follow:

Governor—republican, Dwight Griswold; democrat, Charles Bryan.

National Committeeman—republican, Charles A. McCloud; democrat, Arthur F. Mullen.

Lieutenant Governor—republican, Theodore W. Metcalfe; democrat, Walter H. Jorgensen.

DR. FREDERICK WOLTER, who is starving himself to death in Washington, D. C., as a protest against unemployment, is devoting 5 hours a day to reading the Bible—in which he does not believe—because he is paid $10 a week to do so by a Seventh Day Adventist.

Frank Marsh; democrat, Harry R. Swanson.

State Auditor—republican, George W. Marsh; democrat, W. B. Price.

Congress, Fourth District—republican, Fred H. Johnson; democrat, A. C. Shallenberger.

Congress, Fifth District—republican Robert G. Simmons; democrat, Osborne.

Dwight Griswold is about 1,500 ahead of Wherry, and with the remaining votes to come in being from the western part of the state, Griswold is certain of nomination. Lloyd Dort has a small lead in the republican race for Railway Commissioner, and could lose to Orville Andrews who is a very close second.

On the Non-Political ballot, Charles A. Goss and Harry O. Palmer were nominated as candidates for Chief Justice.

FURNITURE CONTEST

O'Neill Man Had Entry in a Nationwide Hunt for Oldest Piece.

John L. Quig, of O'Neill, had an entry in the furniture contest conducted by the Household Science Institute of Chicago to find the oldest piece of mohair covered furniture in the United States.

The winner is J. H. Greene, a farmer of near Alton, Va. His entry, a sofa well over 100 years old was awarded the $250 cash prize by Sanford Mills, Sanford, Maine. The winning piece is considered an excellent example of the American Empire or Federal period in design. It is covered in a mohair velvet of rose brocade pattern, the color being the popular shade of the early mohair velvets now called velmo, and is in a remarkable state of preservation, considering its great age.

Interest in the contest was widespread. More than 3,000 entries were received, practically every state in the Union being represented. Nearly three months were required to pass on all the affidavits and entries. Judges in the contest were Miss Norma Stahle, executive secretary of the Association of Arts and Industries; Ross Crane, inter-nationally-known interior decorator and stylist; and Bernard C. Jakway, outstanding textile authority. According to present plans, the sofa will be displayed at the Century of Progress world's fair in Chicago next year.

Stitch in Time Club

Eleven girls met with Mr. Rooney, County Extension Agent, at the home of Opal Ellison on Tuesday evening, April 5, and organized a 4-H sewing club. They adopted the name, "The Grattan Stitch in Time Club," and elected the following officers:

President, Eva Friesen; Vice President, Arleen Page; Secretary, Opal Ellison; News Reporter, Alice Page; Leader, Eva Friesen and Assistant Leader, Anna Toy.

The club will hold its next meeting at the home of Eva Friesen, as soon as instructions for the first lesson arrive from the state headquarters.

"For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear in the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land."

BRIEFLY STATED

The postponed meeting of the Woman's Club is called to convene Wednesday, April 20, at 8 p. m. in the club rooms.

George H. Johnson, of Lawrence, Kan., a friend of Wm., Beha and a Holt county land owner, visited in the city a few days the past week.

A small blaze of accidental origin did some damage to furniture at the Bob Arbuthnot home Monday. The damage is covered by insurance.

James Gallagher is back to his duties in the First National after a severe illness. Mr. Gallagher's friends are glad to see him able to be about again.

John Green, of Madison, was in the city yesterday on a brief business visit, returning home via Wheeler county where he has some property interests.

Eldon Wood of Plainview and Verle Johnson of Creighton have taken over Sunset Lodge and are renovating and decorating preparatory to opening for business at once.

A surprise party was held at the A. Walnofer home last Wednesday evening, it being Mrs. Walnofer's birthday. It was a complete surprise to her as they had gone to Ericson that day and upon returning home found 60 or more friends and neighbors enjoying themselves dancing.

Arbuthnot & Reka sold a new Chevrolet coach the past week to Andrew Clark living south of town. Not as many new cars are being sold as formerly, but there are still a good many of the various makes seen coming out in this community and it is evident Holt county people are going to continue to ride on the rubber tires.

Con Coffey, a former resident here but now of Texas, has a family of boys, who, headed by the "old man" comprise a bowling team that defeated the Rotary Club at their home town in a recent match. A newspaper account of the game is sent to P. J. Biglin. Rolling the big balls down the ally is evidently quite as popular elsewhere as in O'Neill.

A. L. Smith and son Forrest of Arcadia, Valley county, were in the city yesterday. They are former residents here. Mr. Smith had the misfortune to lose his house, furniture and clothing by fire during February. They were away from home in the evening, at their son's place for a social gathering. Going outside he discovered their home was on fire. The building and all its contents were destroyed.

Eli Hershiser has developed a new industry in the city. There are a number of shoe repair shops about town, but none heretofore have furnished a leg with the shoe. From a white cedar post Mr. Hershiser made a wooden leg for Clark Hough who expects to lay aside his crutches today and step out with a new artificial limb. We do not pretend to be an authority on wooden legs but this one looks like the work of a master craftsman.

In a letter renewing their subscription, Mrs. E. R. Jensen writes from Sioux City, mentioning her father, Arthur Barrett. Mrs. Jensen was formerly Kathryn Barrett. They were for many years citizens here and still regard O'Neill as their "home town." She speaks a kindly word also for The Frontier which is appreciated by the management. Few if any of the "old timers" we were not acquainted with and we are always glad to hear even a brief word from them.

M. B. Daily, living twenty miles south of O'Neill, was a caller yesterday. Mr. Daily was at one time a homesteader over in the Josie neighborhood and was active in securing the government survey of the Kin-kaid homestead lands. He expected to go to Atkinson for an overnight visit and then to Swan township for a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. DeGross. At 83 he is still robust. Mr. Daily says he cast his first vote for General U. S. Grant for president when the great civil war general was a candidate for second term, he being a little under age when Grant was first elected. John Otter of Bliss, he says, cast his first vote for Grant's first election, he coming in on the second and the two voting together since then.

Leone Reka, daughter Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reka, is very sick.

Miss Eileen Enright came up from Omaha to spend a few days with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Enright.

Mrs. Leo Mullen gave a tea Saturday afternoon in honor of Mr. Mullen's niece, Jeanette Romke.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Streeter went to Brunswick Sunday to be with Mr. Streeter's father, who is sick. They remained Sunday night, coming back to O'Neill early Monday morning.

A barn dance at the Murray ranch 10 miles east of town last night drew a considerable crowd. The barn was decorated for the event and a hot lunch stand just outside furnished the refreshments. Music was furnished by Streeter's.

Sheriff Duffy and Joe Martin went to Omaha Tuesday with two prisoners to serve a sixty-day sentence in the Douglas county jail. Wm. Ross and Buz Boden were sentenced in county court last Thursday on a charge of attempting to holdup the Sunset Lodge station east of town. They will serve their time in the Douglas county jail.

The United States treasury department got quick action in sending to the national banks a list of the serial numbers of the currency that went into the fifty thousand dollar package for the Lindberg baby. Through the courtesy of Mr. Weekes of the O'Neill National bank of this city The Frontier has been shown a list. It is not stated in the word from the treasury that this is the Lindberg money but banks are asked if they receive any of the currency listed to "take note of the source from which you receive it and immediately notify the treasurer of the United States at Washington, D. C., by telegraph." The currency is all in fives, tens and twenties.

COUNTY AGRICULTURE

James W. Rooney County extension Agent

Seed Loan Returns

One hundred and twenty-three farmers who have made application for seed loans had received their checks on Monday of this week. These 123 applications were approved in the amount of $21,511.00. Applications may be made for seed loans until April 30th. These applications may be made at the First National Bank at Stuart, C. E. Havens' office at Atkinson, the Ewing Bank at Ewing and Townsend's Hardware at Page and the Farm Bureau office at O'Neill.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about landlords signing waivers. A telegram from L. J. Paulson of the Minneapolis office states that the waivers that are being signed by land lords will only hold for the 1932 crops. The land lord waives his right to the crop up to the amount of the Federal loan.

Seed Loan Inspector in County

Mr. Walker, who will act as general agent out of the Minneapolis Seed Loan Office, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Walker will be in charge of seed loan work in a number of northeastern counties. He will check up on farming operations of the men who are taking out Federal loans and will make collections. The probabilities are that Mr. Walker will make O'Neill his headquarters.

Standard Varieties Better Than Grohoma

Many inquiries are coming to the Nebraska Agricultural College about Grohoma, a grain sorghum which is being highly advertised in many states. Reports from the U. S. Department of Agriculture and various state experiment stations indicate that Grohoma is not superior to, and in many cases is not as good as the standard grain sorghums which are now being grown. For instance, a recent report from the state of Oklahoma, where Grohoma originated, shows that in nine tests carried on in different sections of the state Grohoma ranked 14th in yield. In no case was Grohoma near the top of the list in yield. For Nebraska conditions, Milo or Dawn, Pink, or Blackhall Kafir are more likely to give good results than Grohoma. It is suggested by the crops men at the Agricultural College that if farmers want to try Grohoma that they do so on a small scale comparing it with standard sorghum varieties.

Country Club Gets Ready

The board of directors of the O'Neill Country Club organized last Friday. Dr. Burgess was chosen president, Roy Sauers vice-president, Edward Gallagher treasurer and Ira Moss secretary.

The following committee chairmen were selected:

Grounds—W. J. Biglin. Entertainment—P. C. Donohoe. Membership—Roy Sauers. Tournament—Hugh Birmingham. Tennis—Roy Sauers and George Harrington.

May 20 has been tentatively agreed upon as the opening date for the club this season.

Flannigan Wants Another Judge

Judge Dickson entered an order yesterday setting the other Flannigan case for trial Monday, April 25. Judge Harrington filed a motion to call a judge in from another district to try this case. Judge Dickson has set Monday, April 18, for the hearing of this motion.

It is alleged by the attorneys for Flannigan that a fair trial can be had only by trying this suit before some other judge.

Alex Juracek and family have moved from the Star neighborhood to a farm 8 miles northeast of O'Neill.

A PUBLIC SHOWING HERE OF Ford's Latest

MELLOR MOTOR MAKES EXHIBIT

Somehow, a new Ford always draws a crowd. People want to know what the gentleman at Dearborn has evolved this time. There is a certain thrill in seeing "what's new" whether you ever expect to have the price to get one or not.

A territory representative of the Ford company, A. J. Bilyew of Omaha, was in the city Sunday and Monday with one of the new V8 cars that the motoring public has been interested in seeing and inquiring about. Experts and laymen pronounce it a "wow."

The Mellor Motor company went to no little expense and work to prepare for the exhibition and they never do things in a half-way style at that popular place. The show room was tastily decorated and everything arranged to make the exhibit of interest and profit to the hundreds of people who were coming and going all of Sunday evening and most of Monday. Mr. Bilyew went into elaborate detail in his talks on the construction of the car, calling attention to various new features now incorporated to add to the comfort, safety and rapidity of motor travel.

The local dealers feel they have something of exceptional value to offer the buyers and say they have taken orders for cars beyond their expectations. They will have a car for demonstration in a few days.

The next exhibition west of here was at Ainsworth.

A TIE FOR THIRD

Atkinson Girl Wins Honors at Wayne Music Contest

At the annual third district music contest for high school students which was held at Wayne last Friday and Saturday, Miss Eileen Frohardt of Atkinson tied for third place in piano.

There were eight hundred contestants in piano, violin, voice and band instruments.

Mr. Joseph Littau, director of the Omaha Symphony Orchestra, and his wife Beatrice Belkin, noted opera singer were the judges.

Wisner won first place in piano, South Sioux City, second and Atkinson and Pierce tied for third.

The contest was a close one for first places, there being a difference of one per cent between second and third.

The spirit of the contest was a fine one, the motto being: "Not to win a prize. Not to beat an opponent. But to pace each other on the road to excellence."
