Dr. and Mrs. F. A. O'Connell returned last Tuesday evening from a vacation trip of one week spent in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Miss Catherine Lawlor arrived in the city Friday, from her home at Lincoln and will again be one of the teachers in the public school.

Luella Parker went down to West Point Tuesday morning to attend a meeting of the county superintendents for this section of the state, being held there.

Miss Betty Jones, of Randolph, one of the teachers in the public schools, arrived in the city last Friday to prepare for the opening of the school year.

Mrs. M. R. Sullivan returned Sunday night from Omaha where she has been visiting her sister and other relatives and friends for the past three weeks.

Mrs. E. A. Doyle, who has been visiting with her father, J. B. Ryan, and other relatives here for the past month, left for her home in Chicago last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Costen left Saturday for Arkansas. Mr. Costen has been general superintendent of the work done on the road between here and Atkinson.

Clinton Erwin Cronin has been appointed deputy county attorney to act during the absence of County Attorney Cronin. He entered upon his new duties this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gatz left Thursday for Omaha, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schroder and daughter Jean, who have been visiting here for the past week.

Arthur D. Shearer and Miss Flossie Beardsley, both of Albia, Iowa, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian manse last Friday afternoon, Rev. H. D. Johnson officiating.

F. K. McCarty, of Dubuque, Iowa, formerly of this city, arrived here last Saturday and spent a few days visiting friends in this city, leaving for home the first of the week.

Mrs. Lyle Curtis and children, of Sioux City, Iowa, came up last Sunday for a few days visit at the home of her sister, Miss Mary Carney. They returned home Wednesday.

Eugene Ryan, of Superior, Wis., arrived in the city last Monday night and spent Tuesday here visiting old time friends and looking after business matters. He left for home Wednesday morning.

F. H. Butts came up from Omaha last Saturday morning and visited at the D. H. Cronin home until Sunday afternoon when he returned home, being accompanied by his wife and son, Rex, who had been visiting here for the past two weeks.

William F. Kusel of Chardon, a former old time resident of Holt county, spent Wednesday in the city. Mr. Kusel has spent the past two months traveling through the state of Texas in search of a milder climate, and a place to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich and children of Chicago, arrived in the city last Friday for a visit with relatives. Mrs. C. E. Stout, who had been visiting them in Chicago for the past two months, returned home with them.

The Delta Deck Card Club entertained at a seven o'clock dinner Tuesday evening at the Bakery in honor of Mrs. Homer Mullen. Mrs. Mullen left Wednesday morning to accept a position in Norfolk with the Golden Star Creamery, Inc. Mr. Mullen accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gallagher returned last Thursday afternoon from Omaha, where they had spent a week visiting. Their sons, John Robert and Gene, who had been attending the Citizen's Military Training Camp at Fort Crook for the past month, returned home with them.

Supervisors John Sullivan, John Steinhauser and Jesse James left Tuesday morning for Ewing where they would pick up Supervisor Skidmore and then the party will go on to Lincoln where they will attend the state road letting contracts Thursday. At this letting the contract for grading number 20 from Atkinson to Stuart will be let.

W. J. Hammond and son, Bill, returned from Omaha Thursday. Bill has been attending the Citizen's Military Training Camp and his company, Company B, received the prize for being the best drilled team. Bill also received additional honor, because he, as First Lieutenant of the company, was in charge on the day of the contest.

Another letting of road contracts is scheduled for September 29, when contracts for road work to the amount of $1,226,000 will be let. None of the contracts to be awarded at this letting are in this section of the state. About twenty miles of paving will be awarded in the last September letting, the balance being bridges, gravel and grading work.

Bobbie Ryan, son of J. B. Ryan, was operated upon for appendicitis at a Sioux City hospital last week. His sister, Mrs. Doyle, remained with him for a few days after the operation and then Miss Bernadette Brennan went down to Sioux City to remain with him until he was ready to come home. Bobby is getting along nicely and will probably be home the latter part of this week.

The Mellor Motor Company received a counterfeit $20 bill in the course of business on August 31st. The bill bore the words "Federal Reserve Note," together with the number 02407160, and other marks. It was an exceptionally fine job of counterfeiting, but the ink had faded a little so that it was detected as a counterfeit when it was taken to the bank. The matter has been referred to Federal agents for investigation.

J. D. Cronin left Thursday morning for Omaha, where he will join the Nebraska delegation to the national convention of the American Legion, to be held at Portland, Oregon, next week. The Nebraska delegation will leave Omaha tomorrow night, Mr. Cronin being one of the delegates at large from Nebraska. After the convention he will visit in several northern coast cities and also California before his return. He expects to be away about thirty days.

Gus Widfeldt, aged about 65, died at the Norfolk hospital for the insane last Saturday night. The remains were brought to this city Monday afternoon and interred in Prospect Hill cemetery that afternoon. Mr. Widfeldt was one of the pioneer residents of this county, residing about fourteen miles north of this city for several years. Worry over financial reverses unsettled his mind and he was committed to the insane asylum a couple of years ago.

County Superintendent Luella Parker, Mrs. Les Hough, Mrs. Mattie Soukup and son, Francis, and Miss Mary Porter, of Emporia, went down to Lincoln last Friday morning where on Sunday Francis Soukup and Miss Porter were contestants in the state spelling contest held at the state fair grounds. Master Soukup placed seventh in that state spelling contest, which was a very good rating considering the competition he went up against. The O'Neill delegation returned home Monday night and say they had a very delightful trip to the capitol city and thoroughly enjoyed their stay there.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

1932 VENUS—photo shows Dorothea Cunningham, 19, of Los Angeles, was in splendid form when she was chosen the "modern Venus" this week from a battalion of beauties at the convention of the American Progressive Chiropractic Association.

MOTHERS SWAP BABES—Mrs. Charles Sheehan, of San Francisco, wanted a baby girl, while Mrs. Joseph J. Sheehan wanted a baby boy. The stork arrived to both at the same time, and both were granted their wish—until they discovered the records were wrong and Mrs. Charles really had another boy and Mrs. Joseph another girl. So, they swapped, and now everybody's happy. Photo shows Mrs. Charles Sheehan with her new daughter.

SCIENCE HEADQUARTERS—Fryeburg, Maine, was the Mecca of world's greatest astronomers who brought intricate equipment to help them observe Old Sol's temporary retirement. Here is a 40-foot camera set up by the University of Michigan party to photograph the eclipse.

WINS BOOK PRIZE—Tom Goodrich, Northwestern University graduate, wins $3,000 prize offered by College Humor and Farrar & Rinehart, book publishers, for the best campus novel of the year. He is shown receiving his check from youthful Patricia Reilly Foster, new managing editor of College Humor, in which publication his novel, "Cotton Cavalier," is appearing.

LAUNCH PLANE FROM CAR—O. C. LaBoutillier, California flyer, for the first time in flying history took off in a plane from the roof of a speeding automobile. Platform for the plane was built on the roof of a speedy new Essex Terraplane. After spurt of 350 feet car was traveling fast enough for plane to leave chocks and climb under its own power. Photo shows LaBoutillier just before first take-off.
