PLEASANT DALE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler entertained the members of the Pleasant Dale P. T. A. at a hard time party last Friday evening at their home.

The corn pickers in this neighborhood took advantage of the good weather last week, even the women folks assisting.

William Schmohr lost four head of cattle from corn stalk poison. Veterinarian Bennett of O'Neill says "that about 150 head have died from this fall in the O'Neill territory." Mr. Bennett's advice is to keep the cattle out of the stalks. If they once get the poison the case is fatal; nothing can be done for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith and daughter, Leona Fern, visited at the R. E. Young home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Segar received word from their son Harold saying that a tiny piece of steel flew into his eye while he was working on a car. Harold went to the Doctor and after an hours work he succeeded in removing the steel, leaving the eye in a serious condition. The latest report is that there is a slight improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith returned Sunday evening after a week's visit at Scotts Bluffs, Alliance and Gordon.

Mrs. Margaret Grey spent the week end with the John Dick family.

Harold Lingerberg, of O'Neill shot a "monkey faced owl" Saturday. He brought it out for Ralph Beckwith to mount.

George Weber is helping with the corn picking at Joe Winkler's. He is Mrs. Winkler's brother and expects to spend the winter there.

Grandma Winkler is able to be up again. Mrs. Joe Winkler and Mrs. Casper Winkler are taking turn in caring for Grandma.

Mrs. Leon Beckwith received a very interesting letter from a cousin living in Honolulu. She says it is the most beautiful place one can imagine. They have rain almost every day and it is very hot with little breeze. Food is quite expensive there and all common vegetables and fruit are shipped from California, because there are no minerals and the Island produce has a flat taste, except the native tropical fruit which is cheap and delicious. There is a large number of scorpions and centepedes there. The cock roaches are as large as small mice. An animal which looks something like a squirrel or ferret keeps the Island clean of snakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wells and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fritton, Mrs. John Conard and Mrs. Frank Sesler and daughter, Faye, from Emmet, were shoppers in O'Neill Saturday.

Little Myrlen Beckwith spent the week with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Beckwith near Rock Falls.

The Pleasant Dale teacher, Miss Minnie Segar, purchased a five gallon sanitary drinking fountain for her school with the proceeds of the box social.

MEEK AND VICINITY

A large crowd attended the funeral services at the Paddock Union church on Thursday afternoon for Howard Morrow. The family formerly lived in this community and they have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weldon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and Edward Kaczor spent Thursday evening at the Frank Griffith home.

Mrs. Henry Walters entertained the Ladies Aid Friday afternoon. Quite a crowd attended. Mrs. Walters served a delicious lunch.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Lowrie, who was badly injured last Thursday in an automobile accident, is much improved.

The A. L. Berg family have been having a siege with the flu. the past week. Mrs. Borg's two little boys were both ill, but are much improved now.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mel Peterson Friday, November 4th. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Dinner guests at the Harry Fox home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robertson and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lindburg and daughter, Miss Louise Shively, Laverne and Helen Borg.

Levi Yantzi trucked a load of hogs to Sioux City on Tuesday for Dan Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson, Elmer Devall, Raymond Johnson and Eleanor Sandos were guests at the Frank Griffith home on Sunday.

Mrs. Blake Benson and baby returned from the hospital at Stuart on Monday. Mrs. Lowrie also came home on Monday.

The young married folks class of Paddock Union Sunday School held a surprise on their teacher, Sam Robertson on Friday evening. A fine time was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith and Cecil spent Saturday evening at Oscar Lindburg's.

Dinner guests at the Eric Borg home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hansen and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen and Gerald and John Krueg.

Mr. and Mrs. Merriady Hubby and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hubby were Sunday guests at the Wm. Hubby home.

Those who spent Tuesday evening at the F. H. Griffith home to listen to the election returns were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blunt, Mrs. R. D. Spindler, Leone and LeRoy, Arthur Rouse, Will Devall and sons, Walter and Clarence.

Neva June Shcelkopf has been ill the past few days and has missed school.

There were 190 votes cast in Paddock township last Tuesday. Several remained at home, some on account of illness and others on account of the weather.

INMAN NEWS

The Cemetery Association served the election dinner on Tuesday of this week. The proceeds will be used for a gate at the cemetery.

Lewis Kopecky Sr. spent Thursday and Friday at Omaha attending the Aksarben. He also visited relatives in South Omaha.

Mrs. Karl Keyes, Mrs. E. R. Riley, Mrs. Rose Roe, Mrs. Walt Jacox, Miss Mertie E. Clute and Miss Gladys Hancock attended the W. C. T. U. at Page Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Davis and son, Junior, left Thursday morning for Washington, where they expect to make their future home.

Miss Jensen, fourth, fifth and sixth grade teacher, was ill a couple of days last week and Miss Mildred Riley taught in her place.

Courtney Wilcox, who has been playing with the Roy Keeler orchestra at Norfolk, came home Monday of this week for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Wilcox, before leaving for New York city where he will teach music in the public schools. He will start work next Monday.

Mrs. Ed. Clark and son, Leslie, who have been at Mason City, Iowa, returned home Friday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Moor and three children who will make their home here.

A very interesting service was held at the M. E. church Sunday evening. The service was opened by congregational singing and prayer, after which a trio composed of Misses Gayle Butler and Lois Killinger and Curtis Smith sang two selections. This was followed by two readings by Miss Gladys Hancock. The service then carried on with a round table discussion. Many questions pertaining to church discipline, doctrine and history were discussed. Everyone so thoroughly enjoyed the service that it was voted to hold a similar one in February.

November 3, 1932

Mrs. Elmer Killinger is very ill this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Killinger. She suffered a severe heart attack the latter part of last week from which she is slowly recovering.

Miss Alice French, superintendent of the Inman schools, is detained at her home at Page this week with a severe case of mumps.

Mrs. Fred Downey and son, Clarence of Burwell, were here Sunday visiting at the home of Mrs. Minnie Crosser.

W. W. Watson, of Lincoln, came last week to hunt pheasants and to visit his sons, E. L. and I. L. and families.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kivett drove to Madison Sunday to attend the funeral of Carl Penwell, who died a few days ago as a result of injuries sustained when he fell off his pony.

Dr. C. G. Gannon, superintendent of the Norfolk district of the M. E. church, was here Sunday evening and delivered the sermon at the evening service at the Methodist church. The first quarterly conference was also held.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coffin, of Burwell, were here Sunday visiting at the George Coventry home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conger, of Elgin, were here Sunday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Conger. From here they went to Alliance to visit relatives.

Miss Willys Hopkins, who has spent the past month in Los Angeles, Cal., visiting relatives, has returned home. Miss Hopkins says that she enjoyed the trip immensely.

Sam Auten, of Cedar Rapids, was here the latter part of the week visiting among relatives and old friends. Mr. Auten recently lost his wife and was on his way to Canada where he will make his home with his sister, Mrs. Walt Colman.

The W. C. T. U. held an institute at the Ladies Aid parlor last Friday. A morning and afternoon session was held. A group of delegates from O'Neill and Page attended. The sessions were very interesting. The local union served dinner at noon. A similar institute will be held at Page Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joy Cherniack, of Omaha, were here over the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Aberhams.
