

WOMEN ENLIST WITH WAR-TIME SPIRIT IN RED CROSS DRIVE ON DISTRESS

Little Sarah Jo Thrush tries on a dress made from Red Cross cotton in a chapter production room, where Miss Jeanette Racocin is one of several hundred volunteers sewing garments for the needy. In the bins behind her are thousands of men's shirts and children's garments to be made up and given away. At right, Miss Mabel T. Boardman, secretary of the Red Cross, under whose leadership several hundred thousand women are making clothing for the unemployed.

HOW shall 500,000 bales of Farm Board cotton be converted into clothing for the unemployed and needy, was an urgent question confronting the American Red Cross when Congress voted the raw cotton for that purpose to the Red Cross in midsummer.

Congress also had laid 85,000,000 bushels of Farm Board wheat upon the Red Cross doorstep, beginning last March, and the great relief organization had conquered the task of putting flour and bread from this wheat into the homes of 3,500,000 of the nation's needy families. The wheat distribution continues and it is estimated that the free flour will not be exhausted until the late spring of 1933.

Cotton presented a complex problem, but the Red Cross swung a large staff of workers into the job, and by October 1 had distributed more than 30,000,000 yards of cotton cloth to more than half of the chapters or counties of the nation. Thousands of women volunteered to make the cloth into garments for school children, for men and for women. Dresses, underwear, men's shirts, boys' suits all came flying from the sewing machines.

Following up the cloth, the Red Cross prepared to give men's trousers, overalls, jumpers, boys' knickers, underwear and stockings and sox for all the family.

Without the work of the women who volunteered as seamstresses, and the thousands of men and women who helped give flour, clothing and other direct relief, in the name of the Red Cross, these useful aids to the unemployed would not have been handled so promptly, nor reached so many people, Red Cross officials say.

In the administration of the wheat and cotton, the Red Cross will expend an estimated $450,000. Funds from the Red Cross treasury will be used. Every Red Cross membership in the annual roll call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day will help toward meeting these costs.

Chairman John Barton Payne has characterized the relief emergency facing the Red Cross this winter as the greatest it has had to meet since the World War, and has appealed for the support of every citizen.

GET UP NIGHTS?

Make This 25c Test

Use this easy bladder physic to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause irritation that results in leg pains, backache, burning and getting up nights. BU-KETS, the bladder physic, containing buchu, juniper oil, etc., works on the bladder pleasantly and effectively, similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box (5 grainsize) from your druggist. After four days, if not relieved of getting up nights go back and get your money. You are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Sold by Reardon Bros., O'Neill. mail and in one instance a money order that was made out to a local business man was brought to his store about ten days after same had been received here, according to the date of the order. Then the other morning letters were found in the post office boxes of a few patrons of the office that had been opened, then placed back in the box, showing that some one was pilfering the mail, opening the letters, putting them back and in some instances not returning the letters. After the incident of the other morning local officers went to the home of the little girl that had returned the money order and found there some of the mail that had disappeared from the office. The little girl in question is only about eleven years old and of course was not aware of the seriousness of her act or of the punishment that could be inflicted. It is not known what action the post office department will take in the matter, but the little girl has had a good scare and probably will not repeat the offense. Parents should prohibit their children from hanging around the postoffice as many of the little tots like to open boxes, just to see if they can open them, and not realizing that they are doing wrong, liable to take something valuable therefrom and lose it. If they remain away from the office there is no temptation before them.

ton in all the churches in America. The United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission estimates that more than 75,000 churches will participate in separate Thanksgiving Bicentennial exercises. In many cities and towns, the Bicentennial Commission reports, churches of all denominations will hold joint commemorative Thanksgiving Day exercises in honor of the Father of his Country.

The report from the religions societies of America indicate that every church of the land will participate in this closing tribute, either by holding separate Bicentennial exercises or by joining with the other churches of their community in a combined celebration.

The Bicentennial Celebration has been going on in all parts of the world for the past nine months. More than 700,000 separate committees, representing the schools and churches as well as civic, fraternal and patriotic societies, have been actively engaged in honoring the memory of George Washington on the Two Hundredth Anniversary of his birth. Every state, city and town in the United States has participated. Besides, the celebration has been carried out in all our territories and dependencies as well as in seventy-eight foreign countries.

The records of the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission indicate that to date more than one million separate Bicentennial programs have been held in all part of the world.

This unprecedented celebration—the greatest tribute ever paid to a national hero—will come to an official close with observances of simplicity and respect. A united nation will show its reverence and admiration for its founder.

The United States George Washington Bicentennial commission says that it has prepared special booklets to assist organizations in arranging their Thanksgiving Day celebration programs. More than 25,000 of these booklets have already been distributed. In addition the Commission had prepared a book of sermons made up of contributions from the leading clergymen of the various denominations of America. These sermon books have been distributed primarily to churches in small cities and towns where facilities for research work are not abundant. Copies may still be procured by writing to the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission in Washington, D. C.

"It's lucky that Nickelson got injured at the factory and can't work."

"Why, you heartless brute!"

"Not at all—he's getting work men's compensation whereas most of his former fellow employes have lost their jobs."—Pathfinder.

"Do you guarantee results in your nerve treatment?" asked the prospective patient.

Specialist—"I do. Why, a man came to me for nerve treatment, and when I had finished with him he tried to borrow $50."—Jokesmith.

"Was that sandwich quite fresh that you sold me just now?"

"Quite, sir. Each one is wrapped in transparent air-tight paper."

"Oh, dear! I wish I'd known!"—Humorist.

Dum Dora—I don't see how football players ever get clean!

Ditto—Silly, what do you suppose the scrub teams are for?—Annapolis Log.

Eddie: So you're twenty-one today. You don't look a day over twenty-one.

Eddie: Well, y'know, I've always taken good care of myself.
