

An unusual picture of the new United States cruiser | ly underwent a series of rigorous trials off the coast of Indianapolis as she steamed past the Battery on her first visit to New York. The new fighting craft resent- the world and cost $10,000,000.

Harvard Air Victims

Begum a Mother

Making a bow in the direction of the engineers who have produced what they claim is a panacea for our economic ills, New York's "Gay White Way" introduces the tech-nocracy girl. She is Jacqueline Meserve, performer at a Broadway night club, and is shown here at-tired in the habiliments of the new order. The gadget she is holding might be an electric dollar, but you can't tell by us.

O'NEILL FRONTIER

"Miss Technocracy"

Engineer Herman Seibold, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is shown as he scattered the ashes of the late Charles M. Smith over the right of way as his train thunders towards Chicago. For 20 years Smith was an engineer for the railroad and it was his last wish that his ashes be scattered over the iron road.

Spring sympnony

The tailored evening gown is intro-duced to the smart women of the world by Carole Lombard, screen actress. It is a frock of the shirs beads with a wide belt of silver kid and a huge buckle of green stores. The front is cut low and features a semi-draped neckline.

Mohammedans in India are cele-brating the birth of a son to the Begum Aga Khan (above), French wife of the Aga Khan, leader of Indian Moslems, who is paid ac-ording to his weight. It is their rst child and was born in the American Hospital in Paris.

Dorothy Knapp, former New York stage star and often called the most beautiful girl in the world, has be-come the bride of Jack Edmonds, Montreal radio announcer. They were married at Rouse's Point, N. Y. At one time Miss Knapp announced she was quitting the stage to enter a convent.

"Richard Murgatroyd," the sleek villain with the curled mustachios who was so roundly hissed by the audience at the premiere of "Gold in the Hills," old-time melodrama re-cently produced in Boston, is none other than Francis Grover Cleve-land, son of the late President. He took the presentation of "raspber-ries" as a tribute to his Thespian ability.

A hint of Spring is found in this charming frock worn by Adrienne Ames, screen player. It is of yel-low corded organdie, fashioned in the form-fitting style. The sleeves are puffed at the shoulders in ac-cordance with Dame Fashion's latest dicta, and the skirts come to a wide flare at the bottom.

Star of Stars on Skiis

Stars may come and stars may go, but Mickey Mouse, like the famous brook, goes on forever. He never has any marital tangles or rows over contracts, so it is but natural that he is just as popular with the studio magnates as he is with the millions of movie fans whose risibilities he provokes. Mickey is here shown as he tried his hand, or rather his feet, skiing at Lake Arrowhead, Cal., whither he was taken by his creator, Walt Disney, shown in inset with Mrs. Disney.

California Oil Field After "Santa Ana"

Here is a picture showing some of the damage which were twisted and demolished and sheds were blown she recent "Santa Ana," or dust-laden desert gale, down. One Navy man was drowned and eleven others did in the oil fields of Southern California. Derricks reported missing after the storm passed.

A Flowery Welcome

anet Gaynor, movie favorite, dis-plays a great, big smile as she is decorated with the native floral garland on her arrival at Honolulu, where she was welcomed by local dignitaries. Miss Gaynor, who re-tantly separated from her husband, Lydell Peck, maintains a home at Oahu. Hawaii

