IN DISTRICT COURT

Vera Davis has filed suit in the district court asking for a divorce from Glenn Davis. In her petition she alleges that they were united in marriage at Neligh on January 22, 1923, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty to her and that he has repeatedly told her to get out. She alleges that her husband owns property valued at $7,500 and she asks the court to make an order allowing her temporary alimony for support during the pendency of the action and for suit money, attorneys fees and costs. A restraining order has been served upon the defendant to prevent him from selling, mortgaging, conveying or agreeing to convey, mortgage or sell any of the property. She asks for a divorce and reasonable alimony.

The Lincoln Joint Stock Land Bank has filed suit against Lena A. Parke, et al., to foreclose a mortgage on the North half of the southeast quarter and the south half of the northeast quarter of section 3, township 28, north, range 10, west of the 6th P. M. In their petition they allege that on December 8, 1924, that the defendant gave a note for $3,000.00 with interest at 5% per cent, interest and principal payable in semi-annual payments of $96.00. The allege that she failed to make the fifteenth semi-annual installment, due May 1, 1932, and that there have been no payments since that date. They allege that there is now due the sum of $3,094.16. They ask that the court determine the amount due and that if same is not paid in a reasonable time that the land be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

The Lincoln Joint Stock Land Bank vs. Emily Allen to foreclose a mortgage on the southwest quarter of section 1; lots 4, 5, 6, the southeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 2; lot 9 of section 3; lots 1, 2 and 3; the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter, south half of the northeast quarter; the south east quarter of the northwest quarter; the southwest quarter; the west half of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 10, and the north half and the southwest quarter of section 1, all in township 33, north, range 15 west of the 6th P. M. They allege that on April 30, 1925, a note was given for $9,000.00 and that the mortgage was given to secure its payment. They further allege that installments number 14 and 15, due May 1, 1932, and November 1, 1932, have not been paid and that the taxes for the year 1931 are also delinquent and that the total delinquencies amount to $849.53. They ask that the land be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

Another case is the Lincoln Joint Stock Land Bank vs. Emily Allen to foreclose a mortgage for $5,500.00 on the southeast quarter, east half of the northeast quarter; the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 27, in township 30, north, range 15 west of the 6th P. M. They allege that the note and mortgage was given on May 29, 1926, and that the defendant failed to pay installment number 12, due on June 1, 1932, and other installments due since that date, including the taxes for the year 1931. They allege that the total delinquencies now amount to $477.77. They ask the court to determine the amount due and that if same is not paid in a reasonable time that the land be sold.

J. T. Sonnichsen has brought suit against M. H. Dierks on a note for $1,500. In his petition he alleges that the note was given on June 9, 1930, and that same is past due and that there has only been $60 interest paid thereon, which was paid on December 12, 1930. He alleges that there has been no payment since that date and that there is now due the sum of $1,766.00 for which he asks judgment with costs of suit.

A. N. Oberreuter has filed suit against Fredericka Merrill, as executrix of the estate of Smith Merrill, deceased, to foreclose a mortgage for $3,500 on the east 76.99 rods of the southwest quarter of section 19, township 29, north, of range 11, west of the 6th P. M. They allege that the mortgage was given on May 26, 1927. The petition alleges that all of the interest coupons were paid up to number 8, due on June 1, 1931, and that $32.00 had been paid on this coupon of $105. That no further payment has been made and that there is now due the sum of $3,805.11 and they ask that the land be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

The County Superintendent of Wheeler county, Miss Audrey Stone, and County Superintendent Luella A. Parker, are calling a joint meeting of the teachers from both counties in the vicinity of the Deloit District, No. 18 1/2 on Saturday afternoon, March 18th, beginning at 1:15. Several subjects will be discussed. Each teacher is requested to bring a pattern with her and if possible the pattern worked up into a poster. The object of this is for the teachers to exchange patterns and thus enlarge their supply of material.

Patrons do you visit your school? In Nebraska, last year, Patrons' Day was observed in 2,434 districts, according to reports received by the State Superintendent from 81 counties. One school in Frontier county observed Patrons' Day every six weeks. On Patrons' Day, the parents are invited to visit the school for the purpose of hearing pupils in their everyday recitations. Each pupil is given an opportunity to recite. Regular written work is posted for inspection by visitors. Invitations designed and written by pupils in connection with their drawing and composition work are sent to patrons. Some schools hold an all day session. Quite often a social hour closes the day's program. Patrons' Day was observed in 140 districts in Holt county, according to the State Superintendent's biennial report to the Governor.

This week we have received notice that Patrons' Day was observed in District No. 101, Gertrude West, teacher, on February 22nd. She reports that with one exception, every family in the district were present. After the days work was observed a short program was presented and lunch was served by the pupils.

George T. Robertson, teacher in District No. 62 reports a very fine Patrons' Day in his school.

District No. 32, Helen Rakow, teacher, observed Patrons' Day on February 24th. They held an all day session with a hot lunch at noon and a program to close the day.
