GEORGIA LEE HALL IS KILLED IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Former O'Neill Girl Is A Victim of An Accident At Salem Center, N. Y.

"Lincoln relatives of Georgia Lee Hall, former University of Nebraska student and stock company actress here, have received word of her death in an automobile accident at Salem Center, N. Y.

"Miss Hall's home was originally at O'Neill and while she was not graduated from the university she received her first dramatic training there. She was 35. She appeared in productions of 'The Hottentot' with William Collier, 'Madeline of the Movies,' 'The Donovan Affair' and as Sadie Thompson in 'Rain.'

"At the time of her death Miss Hall was actress and manuscript reader for Laurence Rivers, Inc., theatrical producers. Her last stage appearance was last November in the Theater Guild's production of 'Chrysalis.'

"Miss Hall was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hall and was born and raised in this city. Her father was city marshal of this city for many years and later sheriff of Holt county. Shortly after retiring from the sheriff's office, about twenty years ago, he moved to Lincoln where he was given a position on the police force of the capital city, and was killed in an automobile accident while chasing a suspected criminal about two years afterwards.

Georgia Hall was a gifted actress and appeared in Omaha about five years ago and was greeted by a large crowd of former O'Neill people who were residents of the metropolis. Her many friends in this city will regret to learn of her tragic death.

Henry Guennewig, of Tilden, proprietor of the Tilden Bakery, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday. Mr. Guennewig is a firm believer in advertising and says that the money spent in the columns of a newspaper in advertising his goods has been returned to him many fold. He says that he is very well pleased with the welcome his store here has received from the people of O'Neill and that business, since he opened the store a little over a month ago, has been much better than he had anticipated.

Lloyd Ritts, one of the hustling young farmers of northern Grattan, was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday and extended his subscription to The Frontier to 1934. Mr. Ritts has been a reader of this newspaper ever since he has been able to read and says that it is now impossible to get along without its weekly visits.

HOLT COUNTY'S FIRST EDITOR PASSES AWAY AT MCCOOK

Thomas J. Smith, who edited the first newspaper published in this county, the Holt Record, died at the home of his daughter at McCook, Neb., last Sunday at the age of 87 years. Mr. Smith moved his newspaper from Niobrara to O'Neill in the fall of 1879 and published the first newspaper in this city and county. He remained here for several years and then went to Ainsworth where he also established the first newspaper in Brown county, where he resided for a number of years. Despite his age he was very active and the writer, who knew him well as a boy, met him frequently in the past ten years at McCook and he always loved to talk about the old days in this city and the people who resided there at that time. He was a good citizen and a good newspaper man and exerted much good influence in the building up of the western part of Nebraska.

HANCOCK-BUXTON

Charles Hancock and Miss Mable Buxton pulled off one on their friends on April 1, 1933, when they went to Lake Andes, South Dakota, and were united in marriage, then returning home and keeping the wedding a secret from their many friends here until last week when the fact leaked out. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hancock of this city and was born and reared here. He is an industrious young man and has a host of friends in this city and throughout the county. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Buxton of Middle Branch, one of the pioneer families of northeastern Holt. She is a young lady of charming personality and is universally loved and admired by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The young people have gone to housekeeping in the Charles Bausch residence in the southeastern part of the city. Their many O'Neill and Holt county friends tender congratulations and good wishes for a long and happy married life.

Walt Stein, Freddie Saunto and Howard Bauman left this morning for South Bend, Ind., to bring back two new cars. Mrs. C. E. Stout accompanied them as far as Chicago where she will visit for a couple of weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Froelich. Mrs. P. H. McNichols, Mrs. P. V. Hickey and Joe McNichols also accompanied them and will stop at Boone, Iowa, for a weeks visit with relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Walters and family, of Sterling, Colorado, have moved to this city and taken up their residence in the Zeb Warner house in the western part of the city. Mr. Walters is field man for the Weller Auction Company.

O'Neill relatives and friends received word last week that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bulow, of Racine, Wis. The little lady has been named Mary Helen. Mrs. Bulow was Miss Helen Harrington, daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. J. Harrington. O'Neill friends extend congratulations.

The Frontier is in receipt of a renewal of subscription from Mrs. Edmund Jensen, of Sioux City, Iowa. Mrs. Jensen was Miss Kathryn Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barrett formerly residing north of this city, where Mrs. Jensen was born. Mrs. Jensen says that she eagerly looks forward to the weekly arrival of The Frontier and reads with pleasure of the good fortune of the many residents and former residents of this city and the fact that even the president recognizes the talent that residents of this city possess, makes them proud of the fact that they were former residents of this vicinity and that O'Neill was once their home. Mrs. Jensen says that she has made two trips to the coast within the past two years and that the schools and churches of O'Neill can be compared favorably with the best and, she says, goes far to make O'Neill one of the finest little towns on the map. Mrs. Jensen and her husband, two sons and a little daughter, Rosemary, expect to visit the old home town and their many friends in this section in the near future, but did not want to miss a copy of the "Old Reliable."

FORESTATION COMMITTEE NAMED FOR HOLT COUNTY

Registration Is Begun and Is Already Far Over County's Quota.

Holt county's committee on President Roosevelt's Forestation work has been appointed and will consist of—M. H. McCarthy, chairman, John Sullivan of O'Neill, Ira H. Hoss, O'Neill, Henry A. Wegener, Ewing and W. H. Briggs, Ewing. Holt county's quota has been set at 32 by the state authorities in charge.

The date of enlistment has been set by the county committee for Monday, May 1st, but any member of the committee may receive applications prior to that time.

Boys subject to enrollment must be between the ages of 18 and 25 years, single, and with dependant relatives, with the rate of compensation at $30 per month, for a period of six months. The boys will work eight hours a day for five days each week with Saturdays and Sundays off.

According to present plans, no work will be done in Nebraska, and the boys who are chosen will be assigned to other states for employment. Before the boys go to the forestation camps, they will be sent to either Fort Crook near Omaha or Fort Robinson, near Crawford for two weeks to get them in the proper physical condition. It will be necessary for the boy to provide his own transportation from the point of enrollment to the point where the recruiting officer will meet him. After they have been accepted by the recruiting officer, all expenses will be met by the government.

For Holt county, the 32 boys will be selected by districts or rather the county will be apportioned and so many will be selected from each township, the county quota will be filled from the rest of the applications on file. No distinction will be made between those residing on farms and those in cities or towns, the only consideration being the need, and the needs of the dependants of the applicant should be given consideration in all cases. The farm boy whose parents are back on taxes and interest payments, is as much in need as those in the cities and towns, who are dependant upon charitable organizations.

For the information of those who expect to apply for this work, we give some of the information as to what to expect and what he will have to do in camp and what he will receive.

He will receive his food, clothing, and shelter (probably in tents) in camp, for a period of six months. In addition he will receive a cash allowance of $30 a month, most of which should be allotted to the people who are dependent on him, as the man will not need more than $2.50 to $5 a month in cash at camp for incidental expenses.

When he signs up for this work he is expected to stay the whole six months and no one should make application unless he expects to stay the six months.

If a boy is accepted by the county committee, he is sent to an Army Recruiting Station for a preliminary physical examination, to determine if he is able to attempt hard, physical labor in the forests. A man with a communicable disease (including venereal disease) cannot be accepted.

A man should take a lunch with him to the recruiting station as he may be there all day. He should also come prepared to go directly from the recruiting station to the "conditioning camp" without returning to his home if he is accepted. He should bring toilet articles—tooth brush, comb, brush and shaving kit—and he may bring one good suit of clothes for excursions away from camp, and any other special piece of equipment, such as a flashlight, that he may want to take along.

After passing the physical examination at the recruiting station, he is sent at government expense to a conditioning camp, where he remains two weeks for more thorough examination, and for vaccination against smallpox and typhoid.

The nature of the conditioning process at the Army camps will include "setting up exercises," hikes, and certain types of manual labor in camp. It will not include military drill, or the "manual of arms."

At the end of two weeks at the camp he will be sent with 200 men to a forest camp, which will be his headquarters for six months. The work will be under the supervision of the Forest Service of the National Park Service. The camps themselves will be in charge of the U. S. Army which (Continued on page 8, column 4.)

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Biglin and Miss Genevieve Biglin, Mrs. S. A. Horiskey and P. J. McManus left last Monday afternoon for Sioux City, Iowa where Mrs. Biglin and Mrs. Horiskey and P. J. McManus will take the train for Rochester, Minn., where they will enter the Mayo Clinic for medical examination. Mrs. Biglin is making her annual trip for examination, while Mrs. Horiskey and Mr. McManus, who have been ailing for several months, will submit to a thorough medical examination. Their many O'Neill friends hope that their trip will result in much physical benefit to them. Mr. Biglin and Miss Genevieve returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Comments by Teachers

Second Grade:

Phonics applies to the study of sound as they are related to reading. The aim of this study is to give the child power to identify words independently. For this reason it is considered a part of the problem of learning to read.

Sixth Grade:

Do sixth grade people enjoy European History? If you think they don't come and see their demonstrations of a modern broadcast which transports you back to 375 A. D. Through television you'll be able to see the development of education, the rise of monasteries, and the downfall of the Roman Empire. It's a lesson in history you'll surely remember and enjoy.

Fourth Grade:

"My Weekly Reader" is a little paper that comes every week, telling us what is happening in all parts of the world. "Yes and No Tests" and "Things to Do" are used in connection with the reading to test the child's ability to comprehend. Uncle Ben sends us a letter every week telling us of his travels in South America, and of the many curious and interesting places he visits. We follow his travels on individual maps.

First Grade Reading:

We shall try to show in three different classes how we learned to read from the very first to the present stage of fluent, expressive independent readers.

Third Grade:

The third grade will endeavor to show the public the value of an Arithmetic drill by the use of games and Blackboard.

Number games make an appeal to the child. They not only afford pleasure and furnish recreation, but they exalt thinking and subordinate memory.

Seventh Grade:

What is a Citizenship Club? We have tried to use ours for the purpose of developing correct ideals and attitudes in our school room and on the play-ground. Would you like to see our club in action? A regular session will be held Thursday, May 4th, at 7:30.

Fifth Grade:

Come with the members of the Fifth Grade class to that of the first of the pioneer settlements, Kentucky. We will go with Daniel Boone, Powell, Walker, and other sturdy pioneers through the dangerous and unknown way over the mountains and through the forests.

We will visit them in their lonely cabins, and learn something of how they lived and helped in the making of our country.

State Journal: A large packing case containing exhibits used in the trial in Holt county of Earl Treppish, charged with murdering his trapper companion, Clarence Coy, was received by the supreme court clerk's office Friday, to be used in connection with Treppish's appeal from conviction and sentence for life. The big box contained a smaller rectangular black box containing part of the bones of Coy picked up along Otter creek. Other exhibits were parts of a rifle, a revolver, canvas that had been found buried along the creek, a rusty camp stove, a bag of steel traps and miscellaneous articles. Treppish was arrested weeks after the murder in Wyoming, with Coy's car in his possession. He claims he is not guilty and that he did not have a fair trial.
