IN DISTRICT COURT

Mary Sue Saunders has filed suit to foreclose a mortgage given by August H. Smith, et al., for $4,000.00 on the southeast quarter of section 8, township 30, north of range 10, west of the 6th p. m. in Holt county, Nebraska.

In the petition she alleges that the mortgage was given on March 12, 1929 and was given to the Elkhorn Life & Accident Insurance Company of Norfolk, Nebr. In December of 1930 they sold assigned and transferred the mortgage to the Pacific States Life Insurance Company, who, on December 22, 1932, sold and assigned same to the plaintiff in this action. They allege that the only thing paid on the mortgage is coupons numbers 1, 2 and 3 and that coupons number 4 to 8 are now due and payable as well as the principal of $4,000.00. They allege that there is now due and unpaid the sum of $4,600 and ask the court to determine the amount due and that if same is not paid within a reasonable time that the land be sold.

Another suit is that of Mary Sue Saunders against Michael J. Zalud, et al. This is an action to collect on a note for $9,000.00 given on January 23, 1929, to the Elkhorn Life & Accident Insurance Company and later sold and assigned to this plaintiff. To secure the payment of this note a mortgage was given on the following real estate: North half of section 24, township 26 north, range 14, west of the 6th p. m. The petition alleges that the defendant failed to pay coupon number one, due March 1, 1930, and number two, due March 1, 1931, number three, due March 1, 1932, and number four, due March 1, 1933, and that they also failed to pay the taxes for the years 1929 and 1930. They allege that on the first coupon the sum of $391.39 has been paid. They allege that there is now due the sum of $10, 787.50 and the further sum of $163.65 taxes paid by the plaintiff to protect her interest. They ask the court to determine the amount due and if not paid in a reasonable time that the land be sold.

L. A. Wight vs. John T. Stafford, et al., for the foreclosure of a tax lien is another new case on the docket. The (Continued on page 8, column 4.)
