IN DISTRICT COURT

The Lincoln Joint Stock Land Bank has filed suit to foreclose a mortgage given by Daniel D. Stauffer, et al., on February 27, 1927, for $6,000 on the southeast quarter of section 35, township 29 north, range 9 west of the 6th P. M. in Holt county, Nebraska.

The petition alleges that the interest and principal was payable in semi-annual payments of $186.30 on June and December 1st of each year. They allege that the defendants failed to pay installment number twelve, due on December 1, 1932, and also failed to pay the insurance premium due on January 28, 1933, and the taxes due on the premises for the year 1932. They allege that there is now due the sum of $400.72. Default having been made in the payments they ask the court to determine the amount due and that if same is not paid within a reasonable time that the land be sold to satisfy said amount.

McCord Brady Company has filed suit against Alanson B. Warren to secure title to the southeast quarter of section 14, township 29 north, range 10 west of the 6th P. M.

In their petition they allege that prior to February 27, 1929, Samuel T. Johnson was indebted to the plaintiff and in settlement that he conveyed title to the above described land to the defendant, who was the president of the company and general manager thereof, to be held in trust for the company which was an distill is the owner thereof. They allege that the defendant refused and failed to convey the above property to the plaintiff and asks the court for an order and decree that said defendant holds title in trust for the plaintiff and that plaintiff is entitled to a conveyance thereof and that upon failure of said defendant to convey said real estate to the plaintiff that the court by decree convey said land.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tuor and Mr. and Mrs. R. Syverson, of Madison, South Dakota, stopped in the city last Sunday and spent the day visiting their son and brother, James Tuor, the efficient and accommodating clerk at the J. C. Penney store. The folks from South Dakota were on their way to Denver for a visit with relatives and friends.

The state legislature adjourned last Tuesday night after the longest session in the history of the state, and not a great deal accomplished. One of the last acts of the session was the passage of a bill extending the time for the payment of real estate taxes for 1932 from May 1st to July 1, 1933. Appropriations were cut about four million below that of the session of two years ago, which may help some, providing the officers of the state do not create deficiencies in the several departments, as has been done on former occasions.

J. J. Schweitzer came up from Milford last Saturday for a few days visit here with old-time friends. He leaves for home the first of the week, being accompanied by Mrs. Schweitzer, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Allen and other relatives here for the past two weeks. Mr. Schweitzer was a resident of this county for many years, and for several years ran a blacksmith shop on the O'Neill Spencer highway about twelve miles north of this city. He moved to Milford about twenty years ago and has made his home in that city since. Jake says that the old timers are getting very scarce in this section and, when twenty years ago, he knew about every one in the city, now there are but few familiar faces and he feels like a total stranger in his "old home town."

Ezra Moore, one of the pioneer residents of Inman township, was transacting business in this city last Wednesday. Mr. Moore has been a resident of the county for fifty-two years and says that Holt county looks a lot better to him than a lot of other sections that he has visited. They had a splendid rain in his section Tuesday night, the rainfall amounting to an inch and a half at his place and he says that crop conditions were never brighter in that section than they are today.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barnard, of Casper, Wyoming, stopped in the city Sunday afternoon for a short visit with Mr. Barnard's sister, Mrs. C. U. Yantzi and family, while on their way home from a business trip to Chicago. Mr. Barnard grew to manhood in this city, attended Creighton university, graduated and was admitted to the practice of law. Shortly after his admission he moved to Wyoming where he has made his home for the past dozen or more years and has been very successful in business there. They left for their Wyoming home Tuesday morning.

Although Holt county was a little short on the Free High School tuition fund in February when it should have been paid, taxes have been coming in nicely the past two months and we believe we will be able to pay all applications for Free High School tuition by the first time schools close. This is the first year that Holt county has ever had to pro-rate this fund. A number of other counties have done so for several years.

Now is the time for High School students to make application for next year's high school tuition. These application cards must be sent to the County Superintendent before July 1st.

The Nebraska State University is offering a very practical course for rural teachers this summer in the line of demonstration teaching in rural schools. Under the direction of the Department of Elementary Education a rural school room will be available for observation purposes. There will be children enrolled in grades one to eight under the direction of a competent teacher, experienced in handling problems in the rural school. The room will be typical of the average school. Interesting phases of the work will be considered, such as, the enrichment of the curriculum for the rural child, the handling of individual differences, first hand materials which may be utilized in planning learning activities, etc. The entire "set up" will offer valuable ideas for the teacher or supervisor who is interested in rural school work.

Very cheap Tour Rates to the World's Fair in Chicago are being sent to this office. Teachers planning any vacation trip at all could not do better than to join one of these directed tours. Such a trip would be very educational and would cost less than a term in summer school. Directed by a competent guide one gets much more out of such a trip. When trying to make such a trip without a guide one often misses the most worthwhile features.

COUNTY AGENT ROONEY LECTURES AT ST. MARY'S

County Agent James Rooney gave a talk Wednesday morning to the Rural Sociology Class at St. Mary's Academy.

The various phases and factors of County Agent's work were touched on and Mr. Rooney stressed in particular the importance of farm accounting and improvements to be gained thereby. He also discussed the benefits of 4-H Clubs and the enjoyment of club work by members.

Mr. Rooney's talk proved both interesting and informative to the class and we hope that he will visit us again.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. C. Deaver and sons, John and D. Clem, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, arrived in the city last evening for an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Deaver's mother, Mrs. Ellen O'Donnell, and with other relatives here.

She reports that the other O'Neill people who are at Rochester, P. J. McManus, Mrs. S. A. Horiskey and Mrs. Garrett Janzing, who recently submitted to an operation there, are getting along nicely.

This section of the state has received a good deal of moisture during the past thirteen days. We have had a little rain ten days out of the thirteen; the rainfall in the thirteen days amounting to 2.69 inches. North and east of O'Neill, as well as southeast the rainfall was a good deal heavier than it was here so that the ground is now in splendid condition and with a little warm weather things will grow very rapidly.

Harry Leonard, of Parker, South Dakota, was in the city the first of the week visiting old time friends. Mr. Leonard many years ago lived east of Chambers and during the Spanish-American war served his country as a member of Company M, Third Nebraska, which was organized in this city. While here he was trying to get in touch with former members of the company, but only succeeded in meeting two of them, Otto Clevisch and Dr. Jim Brown. Lee Hershiser, living south of Emmet, also served in this company, but did not happen to be in town that day. Mr. Leonard has been a resident of South Dakota practically ever since he was richured out of the service.

Thomas Brennan will open his new grocery store, in his own building on Fourth street, tomorrow morning, just fifty-nine years to the day that his father, the late Col. Neil Brennan, came to O'Neill. Col. Brennan came to O'Neill on May 12, 1874, and shortly after his arrival here entered business and was one of the leading business men of this section of the state for over forty-one years, up to the time of his death in August, 1915. Thomas is the youngest son and The Frontier wishes for him as long and successful a business career here as that of his father.

Ben Harty last week moved his laundry, tailor shop and dry cleaning plant to the Zimmerman building on east Douglas street. BANQUET FOR JUDGE DONOHOE

The members of the bar of the Fifteenth Judicial district gave a complimentary banquet to Judge J. A. Donohe at the Golden Hotel last Tuesday evening.

The following members of the bar were present: G. A. Farnham and W. G. Ely, Ainsworth; N. F. Nelson, Bassett; H.G. Greenmyre, Springview; D. R. Mounts, Atkinson; W. L. Brennan and W. T. Willis, Butte; Judge R. R. Dickson, J. J. Harrington, J. D. Cronin, W. J. Hammond, Emmet Harmon, George Harrington, Judge C. J. Malone, James Bolner and Court Reporter Ted McElhaney, O'Neill.

Judge Dickson presided as toastmaster and after the demands of the inner man had been satisfied he called upon all the visiting members of the bar for any remarks they might feel called upon to make on the departure of their former fellow member to the position of responsibility and honor that he had been called upon to fill. All the members of the bar present responded, and while the remarks were extemporaneous, many gems were delivered by the members present on the qualifications and ability of Judge Donohe. In responding Judge Donohe feelingly acknowledged the indebtedness he owed the attorneys of this section of the state for their kindly mention of him and his efforts while a member of the bar of this district and said that he would ever hold in grateful remembrance the many happy hours spent in the courts of this section of the state, with the friends of his early life as a member of the bar.

The daily press the latter part of last week announced that M. H. McCarthy had been recommended for acting postmaster at O'Neill and Arthur Miller as acting postmaster at Atkinson. The term of Postmaster H. D. Grady, of this city, expired last December and Mr. McCarthy was to be appointed and will probably take charge of the office some time this month, or the first of the coming month. The postmaster at Atkinson resigned about a week ago, thus leaving a vacancy there and this will be filled by the appointment of Arthur Miller. They were both recommended by Congressman Howard and National Committeeman Arthur Mullen.

Ben Harty last week moved his laundry, tailor shop and dry cleaning plant to the Zimmerman building on east Douglas street. A substantial addition had been built to the Zimmerman building, new machinery installed and he now has one of the best equipped laundry and dry cleaning plants in this section of the state.
