

French Liner Cast Up on Shores of Africa

Here's an unusual view of the 10,000-ton French liner Nicolas Paquet after her disastrous encounter with the vessel show above water after she had settled down on the rocks off the coast of Tangiers, Africa, recently. Only the mast, funnels and superstructure of the vessel show above water after she had settled down on the rocks off the coast of Tangiers, Africa, recently. rocky coast awaiting arrival of rescue crew.

From Bill to Bill—"Congrats"

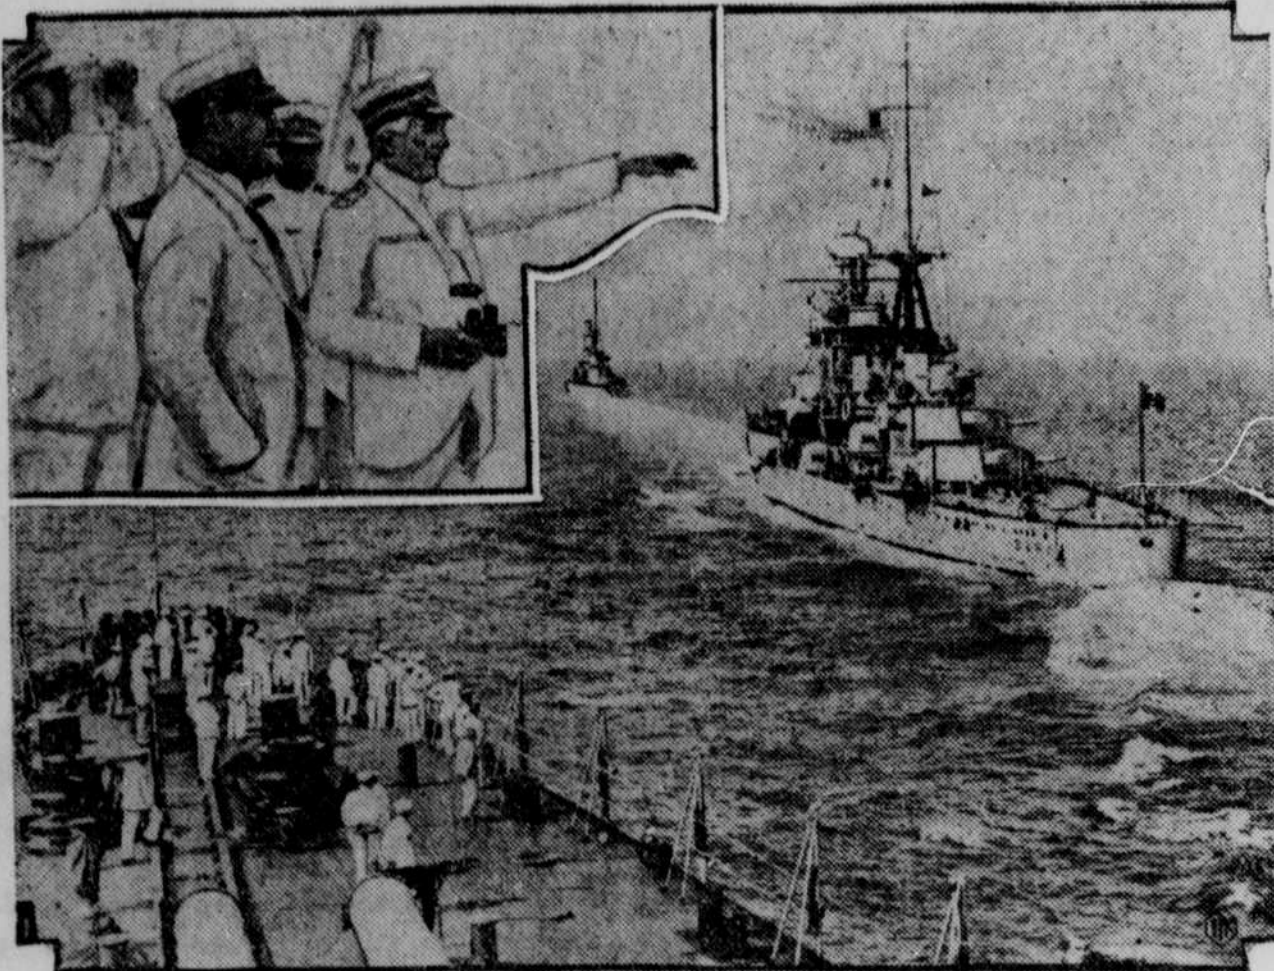

Here are the new and retiring Grand Exalted Rulers of the Elks at the national convention in Milwaukee. Walter F. Meier, of Seattle (left), was elected to succeed Floyd E. Thompson, head of the fraternal order for the past year.

Heads N. Y. U.

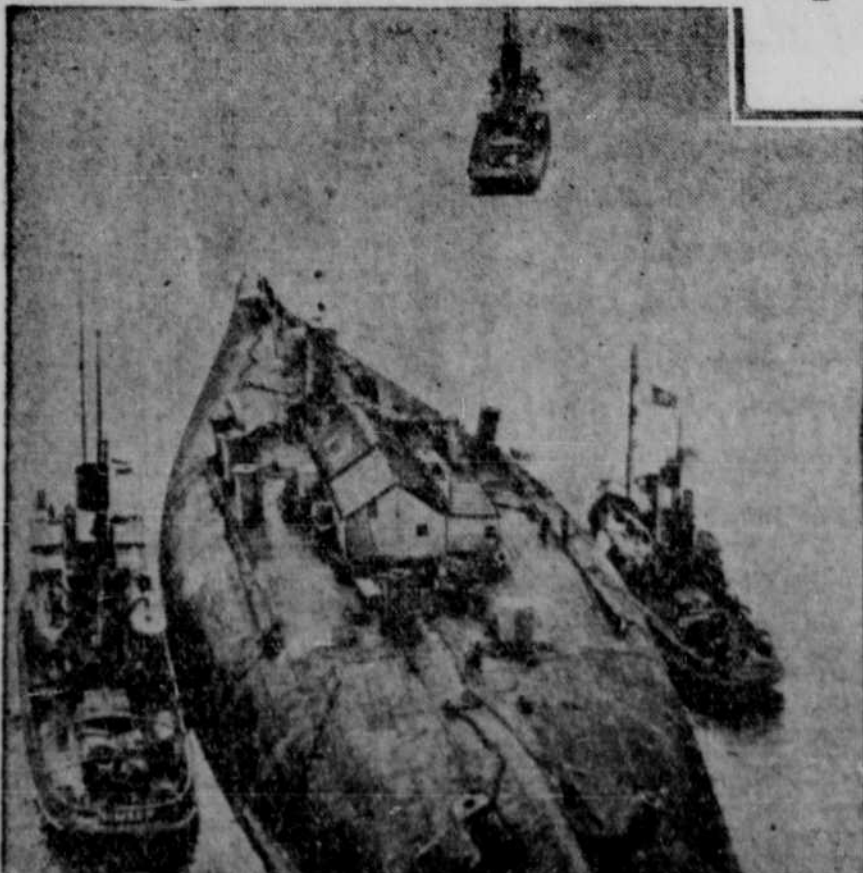

Dr. Harry Woodburn Chase, new chancellor of New York University, is shown at his desk on taking over his post. He is former president of the University of Illinois, and succeeds Dr. Elmer E. Brown.

Il Duce Reviews His Ships of War

While General Balbo was leading his air armada to the Mediterranean fleet was reviewed off Gaeta by Il Duce United States, his chief, Premier Mussolini, put on a little demonstration of his own. The entire Italian watching the cruisers Trieste and Zara steaming by.

Riding Waves Bottom Side Up

Strange sight is this picture of the overturned German battle cruiser, the 20,000 ton Von der Tann, which looks like a submarine as it is towed up the Firth of Forth, Scotland, to be broken up. The once proud ship was scuttled after its surrender in 1919.

Victim of Jealousy

She loved the footlights, and he wanted her to love him. Such is the Los Angeles police version of the wounding of Dolores La Mar, dancer, by George Kessler, of Pasadena. Miss La Mar is shown telling her court her story.

Fame's Penalty

It's fine to be a movie star and all that but a fella wants some privacy. Just when I was taking my afternoon nap a photographer from the studio came around and said you wanted to see some new pictures of me. Well here they are and now I hope they'll let me get some sleep.

Baby Le Roy.

Heroic Pair

Isaac McCarthy and his wife are heroes to all Kansas following their nerve-racking experience with bank robbers at Altamont. McCarthy shot two bandits while one was holding Mrs. McCarthy as a shield.

Smart for Fall

Black and white will be the favorite combination this Fall, according to the designers, and Toby Wing, featured film actress, will be right in style with this ensemble of light weight black wool with black and white printed blouse. The coat is lined with the same material.

King Kong Welcome at Fair

King Kivo, Chicago World Fair gorilla, extends an "affectionate" and informal welcome to Olive Borden, of the films, on her arrival at the Century of Progress Exposition. But don't be alarmed. Kivo is just a stuffed gorilla skin and the fair Olive is not in distress despite her expression.

Apologies Accepted

Jeannette MacDonald, beautiful American film actress, who sued French writer for $8,000 damages because of an imaginary interview has accepted his apology instead. Now all's well along the Parisian boulevards.

Here to Hula

Heralded as the outstanding Hula girl of Hawaii, Odetta Bray, 16, is shown arriving at Los Angeles on her first trip away from her native islands. You may be seeing her in the movies.

Baby Bing and His Ma and Pa

Meet the Crosby family, Bing of radio, stage and screen fame, Mrs. Bing, the former Dixie Lee of the films, and Baby Bing, who was just three weeks old when this picture was made in Hollywood. The little fellow has been named Gary Eyan Crosby.