J. E. Smith, of Page, for many years manager of the J. E. Smith Lumber Co., at the former place, was in the city the first of the week looking for a house. Mr. Smith recently disposed of his business interests at Page and is seriously thinking of establishing his residence in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Bowman, of Tampa, Florida, and Mrs. Alma Peterson, of Moline, Illinois, arrived here last Saturday for a visit at the home of their father, M. F. Norton. They left for Chicago today, where they will spend a week at the exposition, before returning to their homes.

O. E. Buckley and daughter, Lois, and his sisters, Miss Ruth Buckley, of Winnebago, Nebr., and Mrs. H. H. Heberly, of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in the city last Friday morning for a couple of days visit at the home of their sister, Mrs. W. B. Graves and family. They left for home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clauson drove down to Norfolk last Sunday where Mr. Clauson attended a meeting of the barbers of Northeast Nebraska which was held in that city to discuss the barbers code, under the N. R. A. Mr. Clauson said they had a very large meeting and that the code that had been recommended for adoption was explained to those in attendance by one of the men who assisted in drafting it.

A. E. Bowen left last Saturday morning for Norfolk where he joined a party of notion store dealers for a trip to the exposition at Chicago as the guest of a company from whom he purchases merchandise. This company expresses their appreciation of their customers patronage by giving them a real treat, and no doubt will bind them even closer to them in the future. Mr. Bowen expects to return home next Sunday.

Albert Meals, of Compton, Calif., and Miss Maria Saunders, of Loma Linda, California, arrived last Friday for a several weeks visit at the home of Mr. Meals' sister and Miss Saunders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Romaine Saunders in the southwestern part of the county. Mr. Meals is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Meals, who were residents of this county some thirty-five or forty years ago. Mr. Meals was two years of age when the family moved to California.

J. J. Dusatka, who lives in the northwest corner of Grattan township, was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday, extending his subscription to The Frontier for another year. Mr. Dusatka says that the rain, of a week ago Tuesday, was very heavy in his neighborhood. He says that after the rain was over he assisted in measuring the rainfall and that it measured 7 1/2 inches at the home of his neighbor, Garrett Janzing. Mr. Dusatka says that with favorable weather the balance of the growing season that Holt county will harvest the greatest corn crop in the history of the county.

REMEMBER AN OLD TRUTH

There is a rather curious attitude abroad now in the kingdom of politics. Members of the political courts admit that the trend of legislation in all forms of government is toward higher taxes—but insist that these additional costs will be taken care of by new sources of revenue.

The potential tax on liquor is a good example of this. At this writing 20 states have ratified repeal, and none have turned it down. And at Washington and in two score state capitols, public men chirp gleefully to the effect that a liquor tax will produce millions in revenue, and make possible more bond issues, more government ventures into strange and attractive realms.

Apparently no one in public office has taken the trouble to point out that there is only so much money in the country. It can buy only so much—it can pay only so much in taxes. A new tax, whether on liquor or on anything else, doesn't create more national income. It simply takes its money from a different place—which leaves less money in another place.

Tax juggling has been the curse of modern governmental economy. It's the old dodge of spending out of the citizen's right-hand pocket instead of his left. For ten years we have listened to speeches on tax reduction and have permitted the national expense to soar. And it's time we remembered a fact of the utmost simplicity—the only way lower taxes can be had is for government to spend less money.

MOTORISTS WHO TAKE CHANCES

You see them on streets and highways every day—motorists who take chances.

You see them truning corners at high speeds. Or stealing another car's right of way. Or passing on hills and curves. Or driving on the wrong side of the road. Or cutting in and out of thick traffic. Or coming roaring into intersections and road junctions without looking to either side. Or operating at speeds which are obviously higher than are safe under driving conditions of the moment. And, every once in a while, you see such motorists cause an accident. Perhaps there is little damage done. Or perhaps a life is lost and valuable property is needlessly destroyed.

The reckless motorist comprises ten per cent or less of the driving population. But he causes ninety per cent of the accidents. If the reckless drivers simply injured each other it wouldn't be particularly important to the rest of us. But they seldom do that—they maim and kill the careful, the competent, the prudent. And you never know who's going to be next.

This year about thirty thousand people are going to be killed because someone was careless, reckless, discourteous. Not one of a thousand of those deaths is really due to an unavoidable accident—an occurrence which is almost as rare as the dodo. They can all be prevented. And they will be when there is a concerted public drive against those who make places of carnage out of public highways.

Father: I don't favor your marrying that young man. Why, he is earn-

Daughter: Yes, but think how quickly a week passes, Daddy.

ISO-VIS "D"

The New Anti-Sludge Motor Oil

means fewer quarts between drains

Why shouldn't Iso-Vis "D" last longer? It forms no sludge to stick piston rings—even tends to loosen up rings already stuck by ordinary oils. And next to high speed, stuck rings are the most important cause of high oil consumption. The use of Iso-Vis "D" actually tends to reduce the oil requirements of even an old car. Start now to cut down your motor oil costs by draining the crankcase, flushing clean, and changing to Iso-Vis "D".
