

Over the County

INMAN NEWS

Chet Fowler, who has spent the summer in California visiting among relatives and friends, was here the past week visiting among relatives. He left Friday night for Omaha for a short visit with his brother, Mark, before going to Sioux City where he will again teach in the public schools of that city.

H. Elwin Smith and E. R. Baker drove to Norfolk Monday where they spent the day.

J. H. Butler, of Neligh was here Monday looking after business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brittlett went to Newport Sunday to visit among his relatives for a few days.

Dauanne Gifford, who visited here for five weeks at the George Killinger home left Sunday for his home at Wayne.

I. L. Watson and Dr. O. W. French are spending this week fishing at the various lakes in Minnesota.

Miss Dorothy Wilcox, who has spent the summer here with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Wilcox, has returned to Lincoln where she will again teach in the Lincoln schools.

Miss Esther Fraka commenced a term of school in the Hopkins district nine miles south of Inman Monday.

Ercle Renner and Leonard Leidy drove to Lincoln Monday, taking with them several students who will attend Nebraska Wesleyan university.

J. T. Killinger and a friend from Downs, Kansas, spent the week-end here with his brother, George Killinger and family. On Monday, accompanied by George Killinger, they drove to Carl, Nebr., for a visit among relatives.

A family gathering took place at the W. S. Goree home Sunday. Those present for the day were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Goree and daughters, Ilene, Helen and Betty, of Long Pine; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goree and daughter, Frances; Mr. and Mrs. Art Goree and son, Herbert, and daughters, Nadine and Lois. The gathering was in the nature of a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goree who expect to leave the latter part of the week for California to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gifford, of Wayne, came Sunday to get their daughters, Glea Dee and Zada Vey, who have been visiting here the past two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Killinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker and family, of Page, were here Sunday visiting at the George Killinger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clute and children, of Rapid City, S. D., were here Monday visiting with the Rev. Miss Mertie E. Clute and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Clute.

Robert Jackson, who has been in Chicago taking a course in undertaking and embalming, has finished his course and is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jackson.

Mrs. J. J. Hancock, and sons, Jack, and Billie, of Casper, Wyo., and her father, William Schmidt, and Frank Jacobs, of Newman Grove, were here Friday evening visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Hancock. Mrs. Hancock and sons were enroute to Casper, and left for that place Saturday morning.

EMMET ITEMS

Miss Mary Claussen is working at the John Conard home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson and children, of Stanton, have moved into the home of Grandma Cole. Mr. Wilson will work on the section here.

Miss Helen Anspach, of Inman, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Conard.

Miss Elva Kee is employed at the Guy Cole home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reuter and niece, Magdalene Hess, and Mr. and Mrs. John Friggre and daughter, of Hartington, Nebr., are visiting at the Fernholz home this week.

Miss Rita Mac, of Emmet is attending high school in Atkinson.

Jess Wills purchased a new Chevrolet last week.

John Connelly called at the Jess O'Donnell home Friday.

Miss Kathleen and Dorothy Ann Cadman are attending school in Atkinson.

A cream station was installed in Ray's Service Station last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet McCaffrey and girls took Miss Helen to the William Storts home where she will board while teaching school in that district.

Ray and Ralph Pettinger, Norbert Schaaf and Misses Rita Cleary and Mary O'Donnell drove to Yankton, S.

D., Sunday on a pleasure trip. While there they visited the Gurney studio.

Mr. and Mrs. William Luben, Jr., took their son, John, to O'Neill Sunday to stay at the Arthur Barnes home while attending school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dugel Allen took their son, John Dugel Hallopeter, to his home at Wood Lake, Nebr. John spent the summer here.

Miss Dorothy Luben returned home Sunday after spending the summer at the Louis Luben home north of Emmet.

Misses Evelyn Tomjack and Geraldine Harris returned to Emmet Saturday to teach the High School and Primary Rooms.

Mrs. Guy Cole went to Wayne last Tuesday where she will meet her sister, Mrs. Ed. Bridges. From there they will go to the Chicago Fair.

Pat McGinnis made a trip to Omaha Tuesday.

MEEK AND VICINITY

Quite a large crowd attended choir practice at the Griffith home on Tuesday evening.

Miss Frances Hostynek returned to Page on Sunday, where she will attend school this winter.

Mrs. Charles Stevens spent Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Griffith.

Dr. Bennet and Mr. Kilpatrick were buying pigs in this locality on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Louise Shively came on Saturday and will teach the Leonia school again this year. Miss Shively will board with Mrs. Eric Borg.

Brice Bressler of O'Neill spent the week-end with LeRoy Spindler.

Charles Linn and Will Harvey took a load of wheat to the Elgin mill Tuesday to have it made into flour.

Miss Tena Kaczor was a guest of Mrs. Frank Griffith on Thursday.

The Cotton Blossom Singers, who were to sing at Paddock Union church Sunday morning, failed to get there and a large crowd was very much disappointed so far we have not learned the reason for their failing to get there.

Dinner guests at the Eric Borg home on Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hansen, Mabel, Kenis, Mildred, Willie, Lila, and Bernice Hansen; Mr. and Mrs. Merriady Hubby and Bonnie and Bruce, Roland Marts, Mr. and Mrs. William Hubby, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rouse and Lawrence, Lloyd and Delbert, and Rev. and Mrs. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young, Leonard, Thelma and Edward, were guests at the Clark Young home at Opportunity on Sunday.

Harold, Raymond and Hazel Johnson called at the Griffith home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mariedy Hubby and children called at the A. L. Borg home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Stevens spent Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Griffith.

Guests of Mrs. Ella Hull on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hull and baby of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Hull and daughter, Opal, of Crookston; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hull and son, Bernard; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hull and son, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hull and children, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jones and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson and children, Paul and Hargaretha.

A doctor was called for Thelma Young Monday night. She became ill while at school. We are glad to be able to report that she is some better at this writing.

The ball game Saturday between Center Union and Meek resulted in a victory for Meek.

The Meek school opened Monday,

September 4th, with Miss Marjorie Grutsch as teacher.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Hoblen on Friday, September 1st, at their home. All concerned are doing nicely. Mrs. Hoblen was formerly Lillian Harrison.

Nearly everyone in this locality are busy haying. The hot wind of Tuesday caused the hay and corn to dry more quickly.

Mrs. Spindler and Mrs. Griffith are taking turns in helping Mrs. Gus Johnson cook for the hay makers this week.

Mildred Hansen called on her aunt, Mrs. Clifford Wells, Tuesday.

PLEASANT DALE

Mr. and Mrs. George McNair and son, Donald, visited at the John Pruss home Sunday.

Miss Velma Stahley left for Chadron Sunday evening to attend school this term.

Mr. and Mrs. Chance Coxhill, of Atkinson, visited at the Carl Lorenz home Sunday evening.

The Bear Cats ball team of O'Neill, played the Emmet team at Emmet Sunday. The score was 10 to 0 in favor of O'Neill. The same teams played a game of kitten ball in the evening which ended in a tie.

Oliver Beckwith enrolled in the Emmet high school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Beckwith visited relatives and friends in Norfolk several days last week. Mrs. Harold Seger and daughter, Phyllis June, accompanied them home, and are spending the week with Mrs. Segers parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frohart, in Atkinson.

(Continued on page 6, column 1.)

AUCTION

AT ATKINSON, NEBR.
EVERY TUESDAY
CATTLE - HORSES
HOGS - SHEEP
Offering broadcast from WJAG (Norfolk) Every Monday Noon.
ATKINSON
LIVESTOCK MARKET

Thanks, Everybody- Over 1 Million Bottles Shipped in August

Thanks for your overwhelming acceptance of Storz Old Saxon Beer—an acceptance that enabled us to ship over 1,000,000 bottles in the month of August and to create many new jobs.

Storz Old Saxon has scored a tremendous hit with beer lovers everywhere. They like its finer flavor—that smooth mellow richness that comes from fine ingredients, fine brewing and extra-long aging. Order a case and taste the difference. You'll like it better than any other beer.

Storz Brewing Co., Omaha, Nebraska

Storz

AGE
PURITY
STRENGTH

Old Saxon BEER

DISTRIBUTED BY GATZ BROS. O'NEILL, NEBRASKA

The new Federal Loan Relief is here. I have the applications. Come in and get the terms.

JOHN L. QUIG
Loan Agent
O'NEILL, NEBRASKA