

BRIEFLY STATED

Nick Smith, of Atkinson, was here on business Thursday.

Late Thursday William Graves reported his wife was improving at the Stuart hospital.

Cleta Van Every, outside of high school hours, is working with the O'Neill Photo Company.

Mrs. O. G. Marcotte, twin sister of Mrs. Walter Stein, is here visiting from her home town, Garvin, Minn.

William, son of August Schroeder, has accepted a position with the Oldsmobile garage, in the old Bressler building.

Albert H. Ball, of Norfolk, representing the Great American Insurance Company, was an O'Neill visitor last Tuesday.

Miss Goldie Mitchell, niece of Geo. Mitchell and a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams, is visiting relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ziemer are here for a visit. Mrs. Ziemer visited a brother at Page a few days before coming here.

John Kersenbrock is presenting his customers a large calendar of Japanese manufacture, sewed rush matting, strikingly colored.

Members of the O'Neill Fire Department are to offer the public a grand ball at Danceland on the night of December 29.

Fine skating was reported on the bayou south of here Tuesday by several explorers anxious to engage in a session of shimmy.

General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA chief, says 30-hour week is coming. Couldn't they leave off the 3 in the interest of economy?

Jack Deines is leaving here the latter part of next week for a visit in his old home town, Lincoln. He plans to return after the holidays.

The municipal skating pond has been wet down, giving it a fine base. It is now about ready for the water and a good, hard freeze.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid will hold a bazaar, bake sale, and serve light lunch Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ben Grady store.

At the Idle Hour Wednesday evening Mrs. J. P. Brown was hostess to fifteen guests at a Dutch treat party, including dancing and dining.

Mrs. Tom Hansen, of Tilden, visited here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clausen Thursday of last week, returning home Friday.

Miss Ruth Hoffman is at the Arlo Hiatt home here during the absence of Mrs. Hiatt, who is in the Stuart hospital. Miss Hoffman's home is near Chabbers.

DAILY LINCOLN JOURNAL.
$1.00 Three Months, $3.50 Per Year.

An ideal Christmas gift. The Daily Lincoln Nebraska State Journal can give two to ten hours later news out on rural routes and in many towns because it is the only large daily between Omaha and Denver printing at night, in fact after 5 p. m. The Journal prints editions right up until train time day and night. The Morning Journal comes in time for mail delivery the same day. Dailies printed on the Iowa line edit for Iowa readers.

Don't give money to strange solicitors; order direct or through our office. By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas three months Daily $1.00, with Sunday $1.25; a year Daily $3.50, with Sunday $5.00. The big Sunday issue has 22 colored comics, and six sections.
