

Over the County

MEEK AND VICINITY

A. L. Borg shelled corn for Charles Linn on Tuesday.

Dan Hansen sawed wood for Madison Henefin on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Borg entertained about a dozen ladies on Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Viola Searles' birthday. The house was prettily decorated in Christmas colors. A delicious lunch, consisting of potato salad, sandwiches, pickles, cake, ice cream and coffee was served. All departed for their homes wishing Mrs. Searles many more happy birthdays.

Arthur Rouse and Arthur Devall spent Friday evening at Frank Griffiths.

Little Lavone Walters spent several days last week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ralph Young and family.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson Friday, December 15. Mother and babe are doing nicely, but George is going around in a dazed way. We hope he will soon recover. Mrs. Nelson was formerly Miss Helen Walters.

A. L. Borg shelled corn for Charlie Ross Saturday.

Mrs. Mariedy Hubby helped Mrs. A. L. Borg can meat last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rouse and children, Lelia, Marjorie, Walter and Marvin, of Inman, and A. L. Rouse and daughter, Miss Maude, of O'Neill, were guests at the Ralph Young home on Sunday. Arthur Rouse called there Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith and Cecil and Mary Emma Spindler called at Gus Johnson's Saturday afternoon.

Roy Karr trucked a load of hogs to O'Neill for Albert Kaczor on Monday.

Paul Nelson motored to Inman for a visit with friends on Sunday and it took so long to say good bye that he did not reach the home church until Christian Endeavor services were over.

Dan Hansen sawed wood for Will McClellan on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hubby, of O'Neill, were over night guests at the Eric Borg home on Saturday.

Will Devall and sons, Elmer, Walter, Clarence and Howard, spent Monday evening at the Frank Griffith home.

Willie Wilson, young son of Ray Wilson, fell on the ice while skating, and broke his leg. Dr. Brown took him to the O'Neill hospital where he is being cared for. The leg was broken in such a way that it could not be set at once.

A crowd charivariated Mr. and Mrs. Luben on Monday evening. The young people were married a short time ago. Mrs. Luben was formerly Fern Lowrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowrie.

Sam Robertson, Mariedy Hubby and Howard Rouse helped A. L. Borg shell corn last Tuesday.

Paul Nelson did some grinding for Fay Puckett and Sam Robertson the first of the week.

Mrs. Howard Rouse and son, Delbert, spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Rouse's mother, Mrs. Eric Borg.

PLEASANT DALE

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmoor and Walter and Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lorenz and Glen spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dusatko.

Mrs. Ada Stahley is employed in the Martin Variety store in O'Neill during the Christmas rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dusatko and family and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Winkler and family enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Joseph Machonec of Wahoo and Mrs. Frank Ohnoritka of Western and Leonard Anderson, also of Western, who arrived here on Wednesday, December 13. They left for North Platte Saturday where they will visit other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roseler and daughter, Dorris, visited Mrs. Mary Roseler and Mrs. Eddie Roseler Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Beckwith visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Segar Sunday afternoon.

A young man about twenty-five, who was driving a large truck, had the misfortune to go to sleep and run off the highway Friday morning about 7:30 about a mile east of Tom Malloy's and upset. The truck was filled with fruit and vegetables and was quite badly damaged. His name was not learned.

Monday morning, December 11, Jas. Carney found one of his best work horses lying on the highway. It had evidently been struck and killed by a speeding car. Car tracks by the gate indicated that some car driver had turned his car around at the gate and tore the gate down, letting the stock out. The horse was worth around $100. Mr. Carney lives by the highway and has had several head of stock killed this way.

EMMET ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. John Conard and son visited relatives at Inman and Page Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Cole took her small daughter, Lois to a doctor Tuesday to have her infected finger treated.

Ernie Wagner's brother, from Creston, visited him this week.

Arthur Dailey injured his arm while attending school at St. Mary's academy in O'Neill last week. At this writing it is healing nicely.

Miss Elva Kee spent Sunday at her home north of Emmet.

The Emmet school children are busy practicing for the program to be given Friday, December 22, at the O'Connor Hall.

While playing at school Tuesday afternoon, Arthur Jurgensmeier injured his nose quite severely. He was taken to O'Neill for medical aid.

The work on the county road south of Emmet began again Tuesday morning with 10 men employed.

Sadie Marie Lowery has been absent from school the past week because of illness.

The Emmet Ladies' Aid Christmas bazaar was well attended and the receipts were approximately $25.

The Ladies aid of the M. E. church will meet Wednesday, Dec. 27 with Mrs. John Conard for a business meeting. Mrs. Homer Lowery and Mrs. Gene Luben will serve lunch.

Mrs. Frank Fritton is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Crawford, in Emmet.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Luben and Mrs. Jettie Shorthill and Mrs. Irene Jurgensmeier were Christmas shoppers in O'Neill Tuesday.

Mrs. Guy Cole returned Saturday from a trip to Omaha. Mrs. Esther Cole Harris and Mrs. Zastrow accompanied her.

A cantata, "Christmas Hill," will be given at the Methodist church Sunday evening after which several Christmas slides will be shown by Rev. T. C. Priestly. There will also be speaking and singing by the children.

Walter and Fay Pease caught a coyote Tuesday with two hound pups and a shepherd dog.

The school children of Emmet will have one week for Christmas vacation.

INMAN NEWS

Mrs. Jane Enders has so far recovered from her seriousness that she was able to be at the home of her brother, E. R. Riley, Saturday.

Miss Wilma Brown and Miss Gladys Hancock drove to Ewing Monday. Miss Brown visited a dentist.

Superintendent Alice French, Miss Lois Moor, Mrs. Evadine Erskine and Miss Gayle Butler drove to Sioux City Saturday to shop. They were accompanied as far as Allen by Lawrence Jones, who visited friends there.

Emmet Bartsch was in Royal several days the latter part of the week assisting in the care of his twin brother, Oscar, who is critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hancock and Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Hull, of O'Neill, were guests at the home of Mr. Hancock's mother, Mrs. Mary Hancock, Sunday.

The M. E. Ladies Aid held their annual bazaar and supper Saturday. A large crowd attended the supper and the bazaar was well patronized, about $40 being realized.

Charles Tompkins, of Omaha, and Harvey Tompkins, of Lincoln, arrived home Wednesday to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins.

SOUTH SIDE IMPROVEMENT CLUB

The Emmet South Side Improvement Club met Friday, Dec. 15 at the Joe Maring home. All members and two guests were present. Interesting demonstrations were given by the leaders, Mrs. Arthur Burge and Mrs. Margaret Gaughenbaugh, the lesson being, Secrets of Biscuit Dough. Many and varied were the nice things to eat they showed us how to make from a biscuit dough recipe. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. After the business meeting and the demonstrations, home made Christmas presents were exchanged. The next meeting will be a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Emma Maring, on January 11, 1934.

NEWS ITEMS BY THE PUPILS OF DISTRICT 141

The many friends of Mrs. F. A. Fritton will be glad to hear that she is feeling much better at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. John Horn called on Mrs. Emma Maring and sons last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clark and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Earls last Saturday evening.

The Misses Bonnie and Tiny Welsh visited our school and helped us with our Christmas program Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn and family called at the Hershiser home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hershiser visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wayman Saturday evening.

The Misses Margaret and Nelle Gaughenbaugh called at the Brown and Maring homes Sunday afternoon.

We wish each one of our readers a Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday School 10:00—R. M. Sauer, Superintendent.

Morning Worship 11:00—The pastor will bring a Christmas message and the choir will sing Christmas anthems.

There will be no evening service. We invite you to our services.

H. D. Johnson, Pastor.

OVER THE STATE

According to the summary issued by the Lincoln weather bureau the month of November was the warmest November in Nebraska in ten years. The three autumn months, September, October and November averaged 2.7 degrees per day warmer this year than normal. The month was dry thruout the state, the average precipitation being only 40 per cent of the normal, ranging from 31 per cent in the central and western division to 49 per cent in the southwest. Rain or snow fell on November 4 and 5 thruout the state and on November 23 over most of the eastern half of the state. Precipitation for the three autumn months was 2.75 inches, which is 1.78 below normal. About 85 per cent of it fell in November.

Maurice J. Hyland, of Omaha, died at his home in that city last Saturday evening, a few hours after he collapsed in the Bee building while leaving the office. Mr. Hyland was 48 years of age and was circulation manager of the Omaha Bee. He was well known in this city, having visited O'Neill several times in the interest of his publication.

Mrs. William Fender, of Meadow Grove, won the first prize in the public speaking contest held among farm women from 31 state at the convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Chicago.

Sheriff Davies, of Falls City, said that he had received a confession from Walter V. Harlan, of Falls City, a trucker, acknowledging the stealing of several hundred bushels of corn from an open crib on a Richardson county farm last week. Harlan's story was that he was made desperate by his inability to find work and because of past due payments on his truck. He said that he trucked the corn into Kansas and sold it for 38 cents a bushel.

amounting to ten per cent of the amount of their deposit, was begun Monday.

Doctors at Grand Island are planning a new effort to dislodge a tack imbedded in the bronchial tube of Peggy Moran, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moran, jr., of Greeley. The child has been in a hospital there for two weeks while surgeons vainly tried to remove the tack. Peggy has been able to breathe by means of a tube inserted in her throat.

Former State Senator Arthur Bowring was at the state capitol last Saturday to inform the land commissioner that it was reported that 150,000 feet of pine lumber had been cut and taken from leased lands in northwestern Nebraska.

YOU WON'T LOSE ANY SLEEP IF YOU SHIP TO

South Omaha

You KNOW that your counts and weights are absolutely correct at SOUTH OMAHA. YOU ALSO ENJOY FULL VALUE!

When you sell your cattle, hogs and sheep at SOUTH OMAHA the price is FAIR—Since it is determined by COMPETITION you know that you get all that you are entitled to.

DON'T BE SATISFIED WITH LESS!

To be sure of all of these advantages, IN FULLEST MEASURE—Plus convenient and EFFICIENT SERVICE on all rail and truck shipments—in a SANITARY, MODERN stock yards—Bill your live stock to SOUTH OMAHA.

Union Stock Yards Co. of Omaha, Ltd.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A CARLOAD OF MICHIGAN SALT

We have CARTONS, BAGS, BLOCKS & LUMPS

MEAT SALT, per cwt.	$1.20
TABLE SALT, 10-lb. bag	.20
TABLE SALT, 3-lb. bag	.10
IODIZED TABLE SALT, per carton	.10
WHITE BLOCKS, each	.50
SULPHUR BLOCKS, each	.60
IODIZED BLOCKS, each	.75
LUMP ROCK, per cwt.	.75

Why not get the best when it costs no more?

Farmers Union Elevator Co.

AUCTION

AT ATKINSON, NEBR.

EVERY TUESDAY

CATTLE - HORSES

HOGS - SHEEP

Offering broadcast from WJAG (Norfolk) Every Monday Noon.

ATKINSON LIVESTOCK MARKET

The holiday spirit...you feel it...you see it. Can you hear it? Listen...telephone bells...thousands of them. People are answering... "Merry Christmas"... "Happy New Year"... joyous voices thrilled to exchange greetings with friends and relatives far away...it's the holiday spirit on the telephone wires.

Exchange greetings by long distance this Christmas...and New Year's. Enjoy the thrill of voice-to-voice reunions. The cost is small—ask "Long Distance" for rates to any place.

If you do not have a telephone, get one for Christmas. It's a gift all the family can enjoy throughout the year.

NORTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

To live like a prince means too often to die like a pauper. Then what becomes of wife and children?

THE O'NEILL NATIONAL BANK

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $125,000.00

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders.

To Grace the Christmas Table

TURKEYS

DUCKS GEESE

LETTUCE CELERY RADISHES

FRESH TOMATOES GREEN ONIONS

SWEET POTATOES CRANBERRIES

ORANGES GRAPE FRUIT APPLES

BANANAS DATES

Wishing You All
A Very Merry Christmas

R. R. MORRISON

Groceries and Meats

Phones 23 & 24 We Deliver