

Over the County

EMMET ITEMS

Miss Rita McCaffrey spent last week with her sister, Miss Helen, at the Storts home. Helen teaches the Storts school.

Guy Cole shipped 18 carloads of hay to South Dakota last week.

Arthur Dailey is staying at the Biglin home in O'Neill this week and attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fritton were visitors at Mrs. Jettie Shorthill's last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ramald entertained their friends and neighbors with a dance Friday night. Lunch was served and a nice time was had by all who attended.

Jim O'Donnell and son, Anthony, were in Atkinson on business Thursday.

Mrs. James O'Donnell is helping take care of Grandma O'Donnell this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Claussen, of O'Neill, took their small daughter to a specialist in Sioux City Saturday. Mrs. Frank Sesler, of Emmet, accompanied them.

Olive Beckwith was absent from school last week.

Louise Grothe is on the sick list this week.

The work on the county road south of Emmet has been discontinued for the present.

INMAN NEWS

The tennis courts at the public school grounds have been flooded and now provides a fine skating pond for the young people, who, are greatly enjoying it.

Mrs. George Killinger has gone to Omaha for a several days visit with her son, Harold and wife.

The Epworth League entertained at a colonial tea Saturday afternoon at the Ladies' Aid parlors. This was a benefit tea, the money being used to swell their mid-winter institute fund.

Several Inman folks have taken out corn loans, among them being Mrs. Jennie Wilcox, who had 500 bushels of corn.

C. P. Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hancock and Mrs. C. J. Malone, of O'Neill, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Hancock.

The Royal Neighbors met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Wilcox on Wednesday for their regular meeting. Officers for the ensuing year were installed. Following the meeting a covered dish luncheon was served.

The extension club met at the E. E. Sire home south of town on Wednesday of this week.

At a meeting of the Red Cross chapter Monday evening it was decided that a delegation would attend the county meeting at Atkinson on Thursday of this week.

George Colman was in Atkinson Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith spent the past week at Superior, Nebr., visiting at the Elton Trowbridge home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins have received word of the appointment of their son, Charles, to an internship in the University of Indiana Hospital at Indianapolis, Ind., which starts July 1. Charles is a senior at the University of Nebraska Medical college at Omaha, and will graduate in June. He graduated from the Inman school in 1927 after which he attended Nebraska Wesleyan at Lincoln for two years. The past four years he has been in Omaha. The first summer he served his junior internship at the Lincoln general hospital. The summer of 1931 was spent working with Dr. W. W. Noyes at Ceresco.

PLEASANT DALE

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Keithley have rented the D. Abdouch farm for this year.

Miss Cecelia Malloy resumed her school teaching Monday, January 15, after a two weeks vacation and visit with relatives at Hot Springs, S. D.

Three farmers in this vicinity received corn loans last week.

Darwin Seger drove to Norfolk last Wednesday where he is visiting his brother Harold Seger and family and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Keeney. Mrs. Keeney is Darwin's sister.

Ralph Leidy, proprietor of the hatchery at O'Neill, has been busy the past two weeks culling flocks of poultry in this vicinity. Mr. Leidy will select hatching eggs from these flocks of poultry during the hatching season.

Little Harold and Robert Winkler, and Myrlen Beckwith, have been absent from school the past two weeks on account of cold weather. These little folks live two miles from school.

Armella Pongratz, Evelyn Ernst and Raymond Winkler will take eighth grade examinations in Emmet on January 12.

Ed. Roseler lost a fine young cow from corn stalk poison Friday morning.

Mrs. Sam Hickman and son, Franklin, and daughter, Mrs. Mary Beckwith, and Arlene, returned Sunday from a 10 days visit with relatives at Anhern, Council Bluffs, and Waverly. Miss Olive Beckwith kept house and took care of her little brother, Daryl, while her mother was away.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kee called at Ralph Beckwith's Monday afternoon.

Miss Minnie Seger was an overnight guest of Mrs. Ralph Beckwith Monday.

William Schmoher, Eddie Roseler, Guy Beckwith and Carl Lorenz, were hunting rabbits Friday afternoon.

MEEK AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Worth left for Wayne on Wednesday where they are going to visit at the home of their son, Pete and wife, of Dalton.

Mrs. Albert Kaczor left this week for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Freeburg, at Valpariso.

A large crowd attended the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Roy Karr's on Thursday afternoon. The ladies worked on a quilt for Mrs. Karr. A delicious supper of oysters, was served by Mrs. Karr, assisted by Mrs. Fritz Worth and Mrs. Bob Worth, and Mrs. Ray Wilson. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charlie Linn.

Cecil Griffith is helping Roy Spindler this week.

A. L. Borg shelled corn for Roy Karr on Friday.

Will Devall and sons, Walter, Clarence, and Howard, spent Saturday evening at the Will Kaczor home.

Neva June Schelkopf was an overnight guest at the A. L. Borg home on Friday.

Choir practice was held at A. L. Borg's on Friday evening. Not all were able to attend, but still there was a good number present.

Arthur Devall drove here from Scottsbluff on New Years day for a visit with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young drove to Opportunity Sunday to see his mother who is quite ill. At the last report she was better.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith called at the Rouse brothers home Sunday evening.

Leonard, Thelma and Edward Young spent Sunday with their cousins, Lawrence and Lloyd Rouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haynes and son, of Parmlee, S. D., and Mrs. Ella Hull and May McGowan were guests of Mrs. E. H. Rouse on Sunday.

Leonard Young was an overnight visitor at the Henry Walters home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haynes and son were supper guests at the Charles Linn home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith called on Mrs. Ella Hull Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haynes and children, Billy, Darlene and Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hull and daughter, Marylin, who have been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks left for their homes at Parmlee, S. D., Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross and family called at the Frank Nelson home on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robertson and son, Raymond, called at the A. L. Borg home Monday.

Arthur Devall, of Scottsbluff, Elmer, Walter and Clarence Devall, together with Cecil Griffith, who is working for R. D. Spindler, spent Monday evening at the Frank Griffith home.

Mrs. Ella Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hull and daughter, visited at the Dan Hansen home on Monday.

Harry Fox finished trucking corn for Blake Benson, from Mrs. E. H. Rouse's the last of the week.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson, who broke his leg while skating, just before Christmas, is getting along nicely, his parents report.

Albert McDonald spent several days last week in Missouri, where he drove to take some friends from Lynch.

The taking away of all of the post offices in this locality is working quite a hardship to a good many, who have to go from one and one-half to two or three miles and wait for the mail carrier, so as to be able to get a postage stamp or two.

NEWS ITEMS BY THE PUPILS OF DISTRICT 141

Roy Wayman is spending this week at the Hersher home.

The Misses Bonnie and Tiny Welsh and Gerald Earls visited at the Gaughenbaugh home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn entertained several relatives New Years day. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ashton and family, of Neligh, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maring, Mr. and Mrs. George Wyant and family, of O'Neill, and Mrs. Emma Maring and sons.

A large crowd attended our Christmas program and pie social. The sale of our pies totaled almost ten dollars. We would like to thank each one who helped to make it a success. Our teacher has promised us a weiner roast as a reward for our work in helping with the program.

Hugh McKenna, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKenna, revealed the other day he has a collection of cancelled postage stamps that should be desirable to more advanced collectors. He has stamps from China, Canada, England, Germany, Czecho-Slavia, Jugo Slavia and from several other countries, the names of which are hard to spell and harder to pronounce. He has an album holding about 250 of these rarities.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

The first State Eighth Grade Examinations will be held in all of the towns in the county, including Amelia and Emmet, also at Deloit, Phoenix, Scotville and Ash Grove, Dist. 251, on Friday, January 12th. This examination is for Eighth graders only and examinations will be given in Drawing, Penmanship, Mental Arithmetic, Spelling and Civics, only.

The next teachers' examinations will be held in Stuart, Atkinson, Ewing and O'Neill on Saturday, January 20.

The annual Holt county rural school board meeting will be held at the O'Neill high school, on Saturday, January 13, beginning at 9:30 a. m. Numerous matters of extreme importance have come up lately which are of general interest to your school and which should be discussed as a group. Bring your problems up for discussion at this time. Every school board member in the county should make a special effort to attend this meeting

Hubert L. Cushing, deputy state superintendent, will address this meeting.

COUNCIL OAK STORES

YOUR FRIEND AT MEALTIME

BACON SQUARES, cellophane wrapped, lb. 10c
 PURE LARD, 2 pounds for 15c
 GOLDEN BROWN SUGAR, 2 lbs. 11c
 CORN MEAL, 5-lb. bag 13c

FLOUR Two brands of recognized merit. Quality flour that assures best baking results.
 White Loaf 48-lb. bag $1.79 Pantry Pride 48-lb. bag $1.59

TAC-CUT COFFEE, pound can 27c
 AUNT DINAH MOLASSES, No. 2 1/2 can 19c

GRAPE-NUTS FLAKES PACKAGE 9c	FRUTE-GEL Assorted Flavors Pkg. 5c	VAN CAMP'S SPAGHETTI Heat and Serve 2 Cans 15c
---------------------------------------	---	--

COUNCIL OAK PEAS, No. 2 can 14c
 COUNCIL OAK COCOA, 2-lb. can 24c
 PALMOLIVE TOILET SOAP, cake 5c

A COMPLETE LINE OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES.

NEW Knock Proof White Rose

AT PRICE OF REGULAR GASOLINE

Dashing speed for the straight-away . . . . . quick acceleration in traffic . . . . . free-flowing power on hills . . . . . unusual economy in operation . . . . . easy starting . . . . . and really knock proof, of course.

You cannot ask for more in your gasoline . . . . . and you should not accept less for you pay no premium for New White Rose.

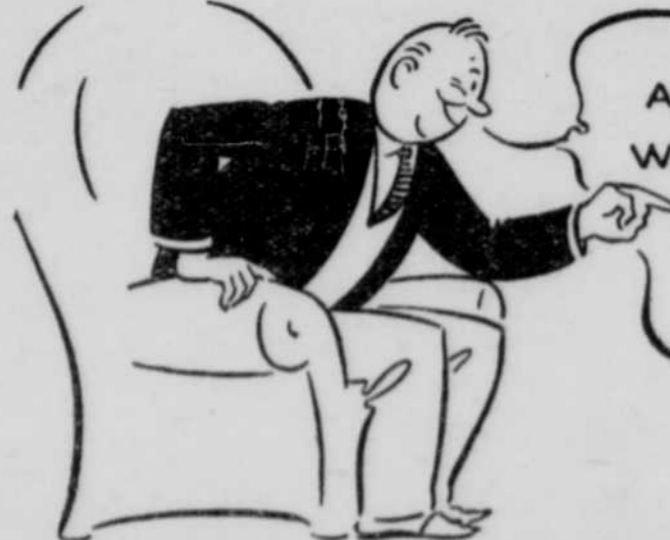

MELLOR MOTOR COMPANY

Phone 16

O'Neill, Nebr.

AUCTION

AT ATKINSON, NEBR. EVERY TUESDAY CATTLE - HORSES HOGS - SHEEP Offering broadcast from WJAG (Norfolk) Every Monday Noon. ATKINSON LIVESTOCK MARKET

ALL RIGHT—HERE'S ONE—WHAT'S THE SHORTEST DISTANCE BETWEEN TWO POINTS?

THAT'S EASY—LONG DISTANCE!

Long Distance telephoning is the quick, easy and personal way of keeping in touch with persons in different communities. After 8:30 p. m. you can talk (station-to-station service) 100 miles for 35 cents, 400 miles for $1.00. Ask "Long Distance" for rates to any place.