

BRIEFLY STATED

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sholes, of near Inman, visited here Saturday.

Gravelling of highway No. 281, south of town, was commenced Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Halva and family spent Memorial day at Pishelville and Lynch.

Mrs. Frank Muret and small grandson, of Inman, called on friends and relatives here Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Edwards and daughter, Cecilia, took in the dance at Oak View Park Tuesday evening.

Dinner will be served at the Presbyterian church parlors Thursday, June 7, at 6 p. m. Price 35 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jensen, of Omaha, were in the city the first of the week visiting relatives and friends.

Tuesday afternoon an official temperature of 107 was registered, in the shade, here by the federal thermometer.

Dave Loy was hanging paper Monday and Elmer Hagensick plastering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Edwards.

Donald, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Loy, accidentally was struck near one of his eyes one day last week by a baseball bat.

It was 101 in the shade here last Monday. It felt so much hotter Tuesday that about all that was registered was complaints.

Mrs. P. C. Corrigan came up from Omaha last Tuesday for Decoration day and will spend a few days visiting old friends here.

A letter from California, the southern part, indicates rain is badly needed and millions of dollars worth of crops hang in the balance.

Mrs. Wilton Hayne, of Page, was in O'Neill and visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Johnson, last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Glenn Saunders left last Saturday evening for Lincoln where she will spend the next ten days visiting relatives and friends.

Through a typographical error, the Sioux City Journal's Thursday, a week ago, issue gave the Nebraska weather forecast as "Generally fair Thursday although probably unsettled at times; warmer Thursday in extreme PEST portion."

Beatrice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harris, is spending part of her school vacation at the home of relatives near Emmet.

Roving cats in several parts of town have raided small chick coops and it may be disproved that cats have nine lives before long.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, of Sioux City, returned home Sunday after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robertson, of Joy.

Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Loy, left last week for Neligh where he plans to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones and family.

A few patches of potatoes in town show signs of lacking water and unless rain comes within a few days the spud harvest may be sharply curtailed.

Newly hatched robins have been seen flying here this week, believed the earliest wildbird reproduction on record and likely caused by the record May heat.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Downey and Mrs. Cora Fitzpatrick went to Omaha on business last Sunday morning. They are expected to return home next Sunday.

Miss Nellie Toy, who graduated from the Wayne Normal last week, has been selected to teach the commerce department in the Herman high school the ensuing year.

Mrs. Anna McKenna, of Sioux City, arrived in the city last Monday for a few days visit with relatives and friends and to look after some business matters here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson and son, Tommy, and daughter, Mavis, went to Omaha Sunday morning and planned to visit one week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry LePage.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Maxwell, of Scotts Bluffs, Nebr., arrived here Monday for a visit at the Mrs. Minnie Maxwell home. The family planned to return home about next Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Zimmerman, of Spencers; Clarence Zimmerman, of Norfolk and Harold Zimmerman and family of Kansas, were in the city for Decoration day and for a short visit with friends.

Several persons reported recently a great number of pheasants out north between the Elkhorn and the Eagle. The fowl are believed to have migrated from drouth stricken sections of South Dakota.

M. L. White, Cedar county agricultural agent, was in O'Neill last Sunday in conference with F. M. Reece, Holt county agent, on angles of the eradication campaign against grasshoppers.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. White and daughter, Lettie, of Primrose, Nebr., visited here Saturday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Calkins. The Whites are mother, father and sister to Mrs. Calkins. The three left for Chadron for a visit with relatives there.

It has been announced that the truckers of Holt and Boyd counties will meet here at the Golden hotel June 13 and 14 to iron out code matters in connection with the trucking industry.

Mrs. Peter Liska and daughter, Marvel, of Norfolk, visited friends and relatives here last week. Mrs. Liska is a sister of Bert and Edward Gunn. They returned home the forepart of the week.

One of the largest hatches of prairie chickens on record is imminent those in several Holt county sections reported, believed to have been a result of the ideal bird hatching weather this spring.

G. A. Fox and son have rented the new Joel Parker building on the west side of Fourth Street, just south of the Grand Cafe, and will open a beer parlor therein shortly after the first of the month.

Several O'Neill dwellers have been sleeping outdoors on account of hot days and evenings but all report they were chased indoors before morning by false notions of Jack Frost along toward morning.

Students of the four grades of the O'Neill public high school went to Oak View park last Friday for the annual picnic. John Abbot, a student reported, transported the picnickers to and from the park.

D. L. Spellman and son, John, of Omaha, came up last Saturday and spent a few days in the city visiting relatives and friends and looking after their real estate interests in this vicinity. They returned home Monday.

Anton Sagel, of Lincoln, one of the staff of the state auditors county treasurer examiners, arrived in the city last Sunday night and is checking the office of county Treasurer Conklin. The work will probably take ten days.

A traveler returning from South Dakota, north of Dallas, reported the pastures there are buried under sand from fields and that fencing is under four feet of dust and sand. He said the farmers there are becoming discouraged.

E. C. Weller, proprietor of the Atkinson Livestock Market, announced that sales at the market will be discontinued because of conditions brot about by the drouth. As soon as conditions improve, sales will be held at the pavillion.

W. J. Froelich came out from Chicago last Thursday afternoon, being called here by the serious illness of his mother. Her condition improved considerably the latter part of the week and Tuesday Bill returned to his home in Chicago.

James C. Harnish returned last Saturday night from Savannah, Mo., where he had been receiving medical treatment for the past two weeks. Mr. Harnish says that it is just as dry down in that section of Missouri as it is in this section of the nation.

Guy Miller and his sons, Kenneth and Burdette, now of Lincoln, attended but it is presumed the truck and cargo was owned by a Sioux City firm. The driver was said to have returned at once to Sioux City and he is the only one known to have definite information about the matter.

William and Mary Mitchell, of Burke, S. D., relatives of George Mitchell, arrived here last Saturday, went on to Hooper, Nebr., and returned in company with Martha Bromfield and Jake Dale and after a brief visit at the Mitchell home here, the four went to Burke.

According to one of the public school boys the seventh grade picniced at the old "haunted house" between the Shaughnessy and Timmerman farms, east of town, the second grade at the city tourist park, the sixth at the Edward Leach farm and others at various points of the compass.

The state veterinary, Dr. Festner, said, according to the daily papers, there is more anthrax in Nebraska now than there was at this time last year. Feistner is the man who last year said that, in his opinion, the anthrax spores has lain dormant in the ground since buffalo swarmed over the United States.

Ralph and Ned Porter, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Porter, have gone on an annual vacation, Ralph going to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Porter, his grandparents, at the oil station five miles east of Chambers, and Ned to his uncle, Ace Hubbard, of Chambers. The boys pulled stakes here last Friday and will be back before snow flies.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Wolken and son, Victor, and daughter, Margaret, of Leigh, Nebr., were in the city Wednesday having come up to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fritton, of Emmet, Mrs. Wolken being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritton. Frank and Margaret are employees of the Leigh World and made this office a short call while in the city.

John Pinkerman, of Dorsey, was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday and had his name entered upon the ever increasing list of Frontier readers. Mr. Pinkerman says that they had a nice rain out in his section of the county a little over a week ago and that crops are looking very good in that section, considering the abnormally dry spring.

Reports from out north indicate the grasshopper called melanoplus differentialis, and worse names at times, has completed hatching and in one instance ate a rod-wide swath of corn around a field. County Agricultural Agent Frank M. Reese stated that unless poisoning is done at once man may lose his battle against the grasshoppers for this season.

Lorenze Wulf, one of the pioneers of Deloit township, was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday and extended his subscription to this disseminator of current events of this section of the state. Mr. Wulf says that it is very dry down in his section of the county, but he is hopeful that we will have rain within a few days and make a good corn crop.

Last Saturday a large truck and an assorted load of fruit was reported entirely destroyed by fire at a point three fourths of a mile east of the J. K. Ernst farm and several miles west of Danceland. No one here could be found who knew much about the incident but it is presumed the truck and cargo was owned by a Sioux City firm. The driver was said to have returned at once to Sioux City and he is the only one known to have definite information about the matter.

The Farmers Union picnic for Local No. 269 will be held June 5 at the Gerald Dusatko grove. Speaking at 1 o'clock after which there will be all kinds of sports, including horseshoe pitching, foot racing and two big ball games. The main game will be between Red Bird and Center Union. Everybody welcome. All for fun and fun for all. Don't forget the date, June 5.

Fred H. Butts came up from Nebraska City last Saturday morning. He left for home Sunday noon, being accompanied by Mrs. Butts, who has been visiting at the home of her sister here for the past five weeks. They were also accompanied by Mrs. D. H. Cronin, Miss Marjorie and Richard, who will spend several weeks visiting at the Butts home in Nebraska City and with friends in Omaha.

Mrs. Nellie Stevenson and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coburn, of Valentine, came down Wednesday morning for Decoration day and to visit relatives. Mrs. Stevenson was formerly Nellie Harrison of the Meek neighborhood, and they were to visit at the home of her brother, Orville Harrison, in the neighborhood of the old family home, before returning to Valentine.

Mrs. Fred Degman, who was Dorothy Davidson, arrived here Monday night from Buffalo Gap, South Dakota, went to bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, and surprised the family Tuesday morning when she got out of bed. On hearing her enter the home, the other members of the family thought Mrs. Degman one of the children who stay at home. She plans to visit here for one week.

According to Dr. C. J. Drake, Iowa State Entomologist, 200 tons of grasshopper poison is to be rushed to that state at once. An assistant to Drake reported the grasshopper outbreak in Iowa is worse than it was three years ago. In Nebraska it was reported the drouth is causing one of the greatest grasshopper hatches on record for this time of year. Chinch bugs in Iowa have destroyed thousands of acres of corn.

While changing a tire at his place of business last Monday evening J. C. Parker met with a painful accident. The tire tool he was using slipped, the pressure of the tire causing it to fly up striking Mr. Parker on the chin, splitting his lip and jarring loose three of his front teeth. He has not been able to attend to business since the accident, as his face is badly swollen, and the injury is causing him much pain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tomlinson and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pilger and son, Melvin, returned Tuesday night from a business and pleasure trip to Hyannis and Mullen, Nebr. Mr. Tomlinson says that crop conditions southwest of here are much worse than they are in this county, on account of the prolonged drouth. He says that even the grass in the pastures in Custer county is as brown now as it is generally in December.

Robert Marsh received word the first of the week from his brother-in-law, John Hunt, formerly of this city, announcing the death of his son, Lawrence Hunt, who passed away at a government hospital at Sawtelle, Calif., on May 14. Larry was 41 years of age at the time of his death. He had been confined in the hospital at Sawtelle for nearly a year, suffering from paralysis. Lawrence was born in this city, where the family lived until about 15 years ago, when they moved to Omaha, later going to California.

Dr. Quigley and J. Sullivan, of Omaha, were in the city this morning interviewing local democrats in the interest of Eugene O'Sullivan for the democratic nomination for governor. Mr. O'Sullivan is one of the stalwart democrats of the eastern part of the state and has quite a following out in Nebraska and is liable to put a spike

(First publication May 17, 1934.)
NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
Estate No. 2392.
In the County Court of Holt county, Nebraska, May 17, 1934.
In the Matter of the Estate of Mattie Schmidt, Deceased.
CREDITORS of said estate are hereby notified that the time limited for presenting claims against said estate is September 7, 1934, and for the payment of debts is May 17, 1935, and that on June 7, 1934, and on September 8, 1934, at 10 o'clock A. M., each day, I will be at the County Court Room in said county to receive, examine, hear, allow, or adjust all claims and objections duly filed.
C. J. MALONE,
County Judge.
(County Court Seal.)
52-3 Emmet A. Harmon, Attorney.

(First publication May 10, 1934.)
LEGAL NOTICE.
Thomas Rusler, and The heirs, devisees, legatees, personal representatives and all other persons interested in the estate of Thomas Rusler, deceased, real names unknown and all persons having or claiming any interest in the West Half of the Northwest Quarter and the West Half of the Southwest Quarter of Section Eighteen (18), Township Thirty-one (31) North of Range Ten (10) West of the 6th P. M., in Holt county, Nebraska, real names unknown, defendants, are hereby notified that Grace L. Badgley, as plaintiff, on the 5th day of May, 1934, filed her petition against you in the District Court of Holt county, Nebraska, the object and purpose of which is that she may be adjudged and decreed to be the owner in fee simple of the real estate heretofore described, to have plaintiff's title to and possession of all of said real estate, determined, established, confirmed and quieted in the plaintiff, her heirs, successors and assigns, against all adverse claims upon the part of each and all of the defendants, to have all clouds upon plaintiff's title to said real estate now and forever removed and that the defendants be forever estopped from having or claiming any right or title in or to said premises adverse to plaintiff.
You are required to answer said petition on or before the 4th day of June, 1934.
GRACE L. BADGLEY,
51-4 Plaintiff.
George M. Harrington, Attorney for Plaintiff.

LOST AND FOUND
STRAYED from my place the forepart of May, one gray Jennie Mule, weight about 900; 1 brown pony, weight about 900.—J. R. Cunningham, Page, Nebr. 1-2p

FOR SALE
TOMATO and cabbage plants.—Mrs. James Davidson. 52-3
CABBAGE, Tomato, egg plants and peppers.—Mrs. George Uraub. 52-3
HAMILTON-BEACH electric sewing machine motor.—Mrs. W. J. Hammond. 2-1
TWO wheel trailer, model A Ford wheels, 6-in. feed grinder, 40-ft. one inch pipe, generators exchanged $2.25 and up; T radiator.—Vic Halva. 2-1p

Q'S QUALITY Milk and Cream. The best by test, at John Kersenbrock's, or phone 240.—John L. Quig. 40tf

Diamonds-Watches-Jewelry
Expert Watch Repairing
O. M. HERRE---Jeweler
In Reardon Drug Store

W. F. FINLEY, M. D.
Phone, Office 28
O'Neill :: Nebraska

DR. J. P. BROWN
Office Phone 77
Complete X-Ray Equipment
Glasses Correctly Fitted
Residence Phone 223

Dr. F. A. O'CONNELL
DENTIST
GUARANTEED WORK
MODERATE PRICES
O'NEILL :: NEBRASKA

Life Protection At Cost

$1,500 Mutual Life Protection for $7.00; approximate total cost $13.00 per year; non-medical, ages 5 to 75; all races; dues waived after 15 years. Strictly mutual, non-profit Life Protection at cost. Write for particulars. Dept. A, FAMILY MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION, Heard Bldg. Phoenix, Arizona

THIS MOTOR WAS PROTECTED

FOR OVER FOUR THOUSAND MILES BY A DOLLAR AND A HALF WORTH OF

NEW AND IMPROVED CONOCO GERM PROCESSED MOTOR OIL

GET FULL DETAILS AT THE SIGN OF THE RED TRIANGLE

CONOCO

Continental Oil Company Presents Over N. B. C.
Harry Richman, John S. Kennedy, Jack Droney's Music Every Wednesday Night

Sold By ARBUTHNOT & REKA
and
A & R Service Station

Week-End SPECIALS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CRACKERS	LARGE BOX SODA OR GRAHAM	21c
RAISINS	SEEDLESS 2-lb. Package	16c
SOAP FLAKES	Large Package	8c
SUGAR	10 pounds	52c
BEEF ROAST	Choice Graded Beef Per pound	10c
SHORT RIBS	CHOICE—LEAN Per pound	6c
HAM HOCKS	OR BUTTS Lean—Meaty, per lb.	10c

R. R. MORRISON
Groceries and Meats
Phones 23 & 24 We Deliver

Week-End SPECIALS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CRACKERS LARGE BOX SODA OR GRAHAM 21c

RAISINS SEEDLESS 2-lb. Package 16c

SOAP FLAKES Large Package 8c

SUGAR 10 pounds 52c

BEEF ROAST Choice Graded Beef Per pound 10c

SHORT RIBS CHOICE—LEAN Per pound 6c

HAM HOCKS OR BUTTS Lean—Meaty, per lb. 10c

R. R. MORRISON
Groceries and Meats
Phones 23 & 24 We Deliver