

Mother and Three Consecutive Sets of Twins

MRS. HENRY BATES of Heber Springs, Ark., is one of the few mothers in the United States with three consecutive sets of twins. The twin boys, aged four, are Earl and Murrill; the twin girls, aged three, are Leola Fay and Naomi Ray; and the three-months-old babies are a boy, Billie Jean, and a girl, Willie Dean. The mother is thirty-four and the father forty-two.

is hurt by being called "a bad, wicked boy," "nothing but a trouble to mother." Or, take the child of that apparently civilized mother who was overheard in her locker at a public bathing beach berating the toddler who could not move as fast as she for "Keeping me here freezing. You Little Pest!"

Almost unbelievable, dear Readers, but true.

How fortunate then, that babies do not remember!

DISHERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

For a Sunday night lunch a simple dish which is easy to prepare and serve is the following:

Sunday Dish.
Melt one-half of a tablespoonful of butter, add one cupful of grated crumbs, mix well, add two cupfuls of milk with one well-beaten egg. Mix and cook; when hot, add one-half cupful of grated cheese, a bit of salt and a dash of paprika and cayenne. Serve on crisp rounds of buttered toast. Mustard, too, may be added if desired.

For Any Dinner.
Take a small chuck roast, brown it in a little fat and add a tablespoonful of water, cook slowly until well done. An hour before serving add potatoes, arranging them around the meat. Cook in a tightly-covered scotch kettle. Serve with the potatoes surrounding the meat. An onion may be added or a clove of garlic for flavor. Serve with

Buttered Parsnips.
Cut the parsnips into even-sized pieces and place in a heavy kettle with two or three tablespoonfuls of butter, depending upon the amount of parsnips. Stir and cook without adding any water, if possible. When tender the parsnips will be a light brown and most delightful flavor. Season with salt and pepper and serve.

Date Puff.
Beat six eggs separately, add one cupful of powdered sugar to the yolks of the eggs, one-half cupful of walnut meats and half a package of dates finely cut. Add four heaping tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs to which one teaspoonful of baking powder is added. Mix well, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs and bake half an hour in a slow oven. Serve with whipped cream.

Salmon Sandwiches.
Add a sour, chopped pickle to two or three tablespoonfuls of flaked salmon mixed with salad dressing. Spread on buttered bread and serve with a hot or cold drink.

"Caprice" is the name given this two piece hand-knitted dress by its designer, Anny Blatt of Paris. It is in mouse color with belt and buttons of yellow leather.

GIRLS SEEM DIFFERENT

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

GIRLS seem different about the time a fellow enters high. When you start to take them out Girls seem—well, I can't say why, Can't say what, But they're different a lot.

In the grades you called them names. Didn't care much what you did. When you're through with school yard games

It makes a difference to a kid— Now you know You mustn't treat them so.

Seems you've sort of put them on A kind of pedestal, perhaps. When the schoolyard days are gone Girls are different, and chaps. Here is how All the girls are different now:

Once you used to pull their hair; Now a fellow understands. Now you know you wouldn't dare. Even dare to touch their hands. Now they are Something worshiped from afar.

By ED WYNN
The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn: I have just arrived in this country—my first visit here since 1903. Kindly tell me: When the prohibition law was passed was it a big surprise to the people?

Truly yours,
C. CAPTAIN.

Answer: I'll tell the cock-eyed world it was a surprise to the people. In fact, it took most of the people's breath away.

Dear Mr. Wynn: In our town there is a burglar who is causing considerable trouble as well as curiosity. The police can't catch him. The report is that he travels around absolutely nude. What I want to know is this: What shall I do if some night I find the robber in my house and he is really naked?

Yours truly,
D. TECTIVE.

Answer: Cover him with your revolver.

Dear Mr. Wynn: Do you think it is possible to go 20 miles on a gallon?

Yours truly,
OTTO MOBEEL.

Answer: With the kind of stuff you get today some folks get to heaven on a quart.

Dear Mr. Wynn: I'm the fellow you hollered at last night in the automobile. I was in a hurry so could not stop to help you. I saw you and your wife slip and fall and also saw the lamp post fall over on top of you both. Sorry I couldn't stop to help you. How did you get out of your trouble?

Yours truly,
L. AUTO STOPPED.

Answer: We didn't slip. It was the wind which blew us over and also blew the lamp post over on top of us. I sent for the postmaster and he took the post office. (Off us.)

Dear Mr. Wynn: I hear you are a student of economics. I want you to advise me on one point. As an example, say that wheat was selling retail at $2 a bushel. Say a farmer sold 3,000 bushels of wheat to a wholesaler. What would the farmer get?

Yours truly,
E. KONOMIST.

Answer: He'd get an automobile.

The Filipinos
Those islands were called by the Spanish las Islas Filipinas in honor of Felipe (or Philip) II of Spain, and the natives called Filipinas. It was during his reign in 1563, that the Spanish colonization of them began. In Spanish the "ph" is not used to represent the "f" sound as it does in English, and therefore the English language Anglicized Filipinas as Philippines.

Deeds, Not Words
Many Kings, Real Ones
A Great Frenchman
$1 a Day and Board

Russia has troubles corresponding with our anxieties about Communists—whispering propaganda.

In Russia the trouble is the other way around. Fascists in Russian factories are spreading Fascist propaganda among Communist workers, telling them that Communism is a failure.

Here we are content to moan, wring our hands, roll our eyes toward heaven. In Russia they believe in words, not deeds only, and three engineers of the "Kuhnetz" metallurgical works are ordered shot for praising Fascism, the Mussolini kind of dictatorship, as compared with Communism, the Stalin kind of dictatorship.

Serbian gathered along the line as King Alexander's body passed bemoaned the passing "of the last real king in Europe." Other kings must take orders from parliament. It was the last real king who was passing.

King Alexander did make his own laws and enforce them, but in so doing he aroused the hatred of Croats, one of whom killed him. He might better have imitated mild King George of England, and allowed his parliament and ministers to carry the load of responsibility.

However, plenty of other "real kings" remain in Europe—Mussolini in Italy, Stalin in Russia, Hitler in Germany. They do not at the moment wear golden crowns or cloaks of ermine, but any one of them may wear one or both, and, in the meanwhile, they are real "kings" as regards power, greater, more absolute, than Alexander ever had.

With the death of Raymond Poincare, France loses a noble patriot and great statesman.

Four times prime minister of France, he was war-time president of the French republic.

All of France knows that Poincare, a devoted patriot, member of one of the most distinguished intellectual families of France, died of strain and overwork, to which he cheerfully submitted in the service of his country.

Happy the nation that, like France, can boast of so many devoted sons, shining with patriotism through the ages.

For the first time since January, 1932, according to the Department of Agriculture, the average pay of farm laborers has gone up to $1 a day and board.

The $1 a day and what you need to eat seems small, but there was a time when a President of the United States complained seriously that he could not hire a really good American for less than $100 a year. Times, bad as they are, improve. But actual wages mean little. The important question is not how much are you paid, but how much can you get for your money?

Sir Arthur Schuster, one of England's ablest mathematical physicists, is dead at eighty-three. Born in Frankfort, a German of the Jewish race, he chose to live and work in England for many years.

Had he stayed in Germany he probably would have been driven out in his old age. The British king conferred knighthood upon him, making him "Sir Arthur" Schuster, in appreciation of his services to science and Britain.

Germany's Protestants protest violently against the Hitler government, going so far as to denounce the Nazi church as "Satan's agent." The Protestant church demands the right for Protestants to worship as they choose. This Protestant anti-Hitler demonstration makes it unanimous, with Catholics, Jews, Protestants united in denunciation of interference with religious and racial freedom.

The American Federation of Labor hopes for 1,000,000 more members within a year, and President Green, in San Francisco, predicts that increase in 1935.

If new members paid in dues only $10 a year, which would be very little for the protection that the American federation offers, the new membership would mean an increased income of $10,000,000 a year, a very substantial addition to union labor's war chest.

The late Percy Rockefeller, son of John D. Rockefeller's brother, William, said to have left $100,000,000 behind him, gave everything to his widow. Mr. John A. Garver and the National City bank of New York are executor and trustee.

Mr. Rockefeller's will mentions no gifts to charity. Perhaps he thought his widow would spend the money as wisely as any charity could spend it, and perhaps he was right.

At least he set a good example, showing appreciation of his wife and leaving her the "head of the family."

FOR THE SLENDER OR LARGE FIGURE

PATTERN 2005

This is such a beautifully fitting slip that the sizes in it have been run up to fifty. But don't think you have to be a large woman to like it. It is lovely on a slender figure. It is simplicity itself to make and the seams follow such pretty lines they actually become a decoration. In your fall wardrobe don't forget to include some new slips. Summer always works havoc in one's lingerie and no self-respecting frock is going to look as it should worn over an old mis-shapen foundation.

Pattern 2005 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50.

Size 36 takes 2 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth street, New York City.

JENNY WREN GOSSIPS ABOUT HUMMER

AS PETER RABBIT sat staring up at the tiny nest of Hummer the Hummingbird, which he had just discovered, Jenny Wren came along. Being quite tired with the feeding of her seven babies, Jenny was content to rest for a few minutes and gossip. Peter told her what he had discovered.

I know all about that," retorted Jenny. "You don't suppose I hunt these trees over for food without knowing where my neighbors are living, do you? I'd have you understand that this is the daintiest nest in the Old Orchard. It is made wholly of plant down and covered on the outside with bits of that gray moss-like stuff that grows on the bark of trees and is called lichen. That is what makes that nest look like nothing more than a knot on a branch. Chatterer the

Do You Know—

That exact evidence as to the origin of the nickname "gob" in connection with sailors of the U. S. navy is lacking, but the term was applied to the English coast guards many years ago. An old meaning of "to gob" is to spit and the name may be from this source.

good thing the babies have short bills."

"Do they?" asked Peter, opening his eyes wide.

"Yes," replied Jenny. "When they hatch out they have short bills, but it doesn't take them a great while to grow long."

"How many babies does Mrs. Hummer usually have?" asked Peter.

"Just two," replied Jenny. "Just two. That's all that nest will hold. But goodness gracious, Peter, I can't stop gossiping here any longer. You have no idea what a care seven babies are."

With a jerk of her tail off flew Jenny Wren and Peter hurried back to tell Johnny Chuck all he had found out about Hummer the Hummingbird.

LUCKY THEY DON'T REMEMBER

"EARLY training is not retained by infants. Impressions of babyhood, pleasurable and painful sensations, leave no mark on the memory, nor do they influence later behavior."

That is the latest discovery of psychologists who are making experiments at the child development clinic at Columbia university.

And it is good news. To my mind nothing would be more tragic than for the average baby to remember many of his impressions. Think of the things he would remember!

Think of the child with faith in his parents remembering what frequently happened when he cried! The spanking administered sometimes through the sheerest misunderstanding—the benighted parent not stopping to find out why the infant made himself heard in the only way he knew to attract their attention!

Think of the memories of needless cruelties that the children of many well-meaning parents would carry with them later in life if a kindly nature did not make this impossible! The little child frightened with tales of the "bogy man"—the senseless resource of some parents otherwise in their right minds of locking children in the dark or threatening dark closets! The hurt to baby sensibilities by disparaging names and insulting comparisons. Certainly a child of two and a half
