NEBRASKA NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

By James R. Lowell
Nebraska's fiftieth legislature got off to a flying start last week with more than a score of bills introduced, whereas in previous sessions bills have not been introduced until the second week. Headlining the first batch of bills is S. F. 4, introduced by Rolla C. Van Kirk (R) senator from Lincoln, who seeks to create a state police force of not more than 100 nor less than 50 men to have charge of law enforcement in Nebraska.

The state police force, under the provisions of the bill, would have full jurisdiction over boxing and wrestling matches and would handle the duties of the state fire marshal. A board of state police consisting of the chief of police (salary $4,000 per year), the attorney general and the commissioner of public lands and buildings would have charge of the force.
Other bills introduced briefly summarized include the following: S. F. 1 by Bullard, Dafeo and others for the broadcasting of all the regular university football games played at home; S. F. 2 by Stewart, to regulate the requirements with reference to the filing for record of chattel mortgages and to simplify the present law so as to protect grain elevators and others in the purchase of grain which may be under chattel mortgage;

S. F. 3 by Van Kirk to change rules of road concerning overtaking vehicles and turning from the direct line of traffic; S. F. 5 by the same author, to set Feb. 1 as the expiration date for renewal of auto licenses in counties over 80,000 as well as in other counties to force payment of full annual fees for all who owned cars last year, regardless of renewal date, and to provide for half-license fees only for new cars purchased after July;

H. R. 1 by Cone to extend mortgage moratorium another two years; H. R. 2 by Cone to outlaw suits on notes on contracts; H. R. 3 by Rock to refund surplus in corn loan inspection fund to farmers; H. R. 4 by Gillespie and Bailey to reduce amount of bond required by county commissioners or supervisors in counties of less than 25,000 population from $10,000 to $1,000 and counties from 25,000 to 50,000 from $13,000 to $2,000; H. R. 5 by Gillespie providing for statutory incorporation of Stuart lodge of Catholic Knights of America;

H. R. 6 by Cone to accelerate payment of delinquent taxes by providing for payment of all real and personal taxes delinquent more than one year prior to July 1, 1935, before that date with cancellation of interest and all penalties; H. R. 7 by Herrick to declare vacant any public office when the holder becomes a candidate for an office other than the one he is then holding, vacancy to occur as of date of the beginning of the term of the office of which he is a candidate, and providing for filing of candidates for unexpired terms;

H. R. 8 by Perigo to submit a constitutional amendment to the people to exempt from taxation the first two thousand dollars value of a home or farm occupied by its owner; H. R. 9 by Bentzen, similar to H. R. 8; H. R. 10 by Bentzen raising exemption on dwellings to past due payments on school land leases upon signing a six months note for all payments due December 31, 1934 secured by assignment of the lease which vests title in state if note is not paid; H. R. 11 by Dunn for publication of cumulative supplement to the statutes of 1929, work to be done under supervision and direction of Governor and Supreme Court, $10,000;

H. R. 12 by Dunn for publication every ten years after May 1, 1939 of statutes under supervision of revisor of statutes who also shall edit laws of each legislature, make partial compilations for various executive officers and state agencies, revisor's salary $4,200 per year; H. R. 13 by Steele providing County Treasurer shall have no vote on pending matters when acting as ex-officio member of the Board of Regents of the county high school district; H. R. 14 by Reuter, allowing on order of County Judge, executor or administrator of estate to draft and file pleadings and other papers without being admitted attorney;

H. R. 15 by Cone reducing maximum interest rate from ten per cent to eight per cent when agreed upon; H. R. 16 by Cone eliminating law authorizing collection of 12 per cent interest from party redeeming real estate sold at foreclosure and providing that no more than the legal rate of interest shall be charged; H. R. 17 by Cone limiting to a percent to be determined later on the actual valuation of the district, the total bonded indebtedness, for all purposes of taxing districts; H. R. 18 by Obbink to submit constitutional amendment exempting from taxation $3,000 of the value of any farm or city property; H. R. 19 by Putney making it a crime for anyone on public highway to solicit a ride in any motor vehicle other than one for hire except in case of sickness, and facing a penalty of $50 fine or 30 day in jail or both;

H. R. 20 by Putney to nominate county commissioners by districts in all counties; H. R. 21 by Bock to credit state school fund with net receipts from state beer taxes; H. R. 22 by Havekost and Clausen to permit mutual insurance companies to levy advance assessments in such sums as directors may think necessary; H. R. 23 by Bishop to allow school district or township treasurer to deposit public moneys in designated banks only when bond in double the amount of deposit is given, and allowing for application of banks designated depositories; H. R. 24 by Hastings providing that guardians of pupils transferred to a school district other than their residence shall be eligible to hold office in district of transfer;

H. R. 26 by Haycock and others appropriating $70,000 for salaries incidental to expenses and $10,000 for printinghouse and senate journals; H. R. 25 by Haycock appropriating $120,500 for salaries of members and officers of legislature; H. R. 27 by Cone to create state bonding company with $200,000 revolving fund to be administered by Board of Educational lands and funds, State Auditor and Insurance Director with authority to write official bonds for officers of state and governmental subdivisions;
