

Hours More News And Lowest Price On Lincoln Journal

The Daily LINCOLN NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL can give two to ten hours later news out on rural routes and in many towns because it is the only large daily between Omaha and Denver printing at night, in fact after 5 p. m. The Journal prints editions right up until train time day and night. The Morning Journal comes in time for mail delivery the same day. Dailies printed on the Iowa line edit for Iowa readers.

The Lincoln Journal sells for one dollar a year less than any other big state morning daily and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers.

With the Lincoln Journal you practically get the Sunday free, for other morning papers charge as much for daily only as the Journal does including Sunday.

Don't give money to strange solicitors; order direct or thru our office. By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas, three months, $1.25 daily; $1.50 with Sunday; a year, $4.00 daily, $5.00 with Sunday.

District Court Filings

The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company has filed suit in the district court against Fred Lorenz, et al., to foreclose a mortgage for $2,500 given on June 19, 1918, by F. E. Cowden and wife on the southwest quarter of section 28, township 29, north, of Range 12, west of the 6th P. M. They allege in their petition that the mortgage was sold and assigned to them on December 1, 1933. The mortgage had been extended and renewed and on October 17, 1930, the property was transferred by Cowden and wife to Fred Lorenz, he assuming the mortgage indebtedness. They allege that he has failed to pay the taxes for the year 1934 and also failed to pay the interest note of $250 due and payable on November 1, 1934. They ask the court to determine the amount due and that if same is not paid within a reasonable time that the land be sold.

E. H. Luikart as receiver of the Citizens State Bank of Stuart, has brought suit against Andy Moss, et al., to foreclose a mortgage given on June 12, 1930, for $1,500 on the following described real estate: Southwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 18, in township 32, north of range 16 west, in Holt county, Nebraska. They allege that the note was due on June 12, 1931, and that same has never been paid. He asks the court to determine the amount due and then if same is not paid within a reasonable time that the land be sold.

George W. Hasset has filed suit to foreclose a mortgage given by Lindley Sigmund Hurst on December 31, 1923, for $4,000 to the Lincoln Safe Deposit company on the following described real estate: south half and east half of the northwest quarter and the west half of the northeast quarter of section 31, and the southwest quarter and the west half of the northwest quarter of section 32, all in township 33 north, of range 14, in Holt county, Nebraska, comprising 720 acres. Plaintiff alleges that he purchased the notes and mortgage prior to June 25, 1932, and that he is now the owner thereof. He alleges that there is now due the sum of $4,326.00, and he asks the court to determine the amount due and that if same is not paid within a reasonable time that the land be sold.
