$100 a Day for Prison Atonement

One hundred dollars a day for one hundred and twenty days, served in the Joliet (Ill.) penitentiary for another's crime is the compensation the state owes James A. Long, shown at right, according to a bill introduced in the legislature at Springfield, Ill. The bill states that Long's vindication did not remove the stain that conviction had placed upon his reputation, nor did it make up for the mental anguish he suffered, fearful he might have to spend the rest of his life in prison for a crime of which he was innocent.

River Harnessed at Boulder Dam

Three million pounds of steel in a massive door were lowered against the Colorado river at Boulder dam, subjecting the stream to man's control for the first time. The door stopped the flow through tunnel No. 4 on the upstream side, and sent it through diversion tunnel No. 1 on the same side. Photograph shows water from the Colorado river, running through diversion tunnel No. 1 at Boulder dam.

POOR EXCUSE

A couple who live in Champaign planned to do some visiting on a recent Sunday. (Not a crime in a small town, writes Alvin Hamburg, who relays the item). His wife was ready to leave before he was, so she went outside to wait. Some five minutes elapsed before he finally came out of the house, looking pale and shaken.
"Do you know that I've been waiting out here fully 15 minutes?" she said sharply.
"But, dear," he implored, "please don't get angry. I couldn't help it. As I started down stairs I slipped on the top step and fell down the whole flight of stairs."
His wife sniffed.
"Well, what of it?" she demanded.
"That shouldn't have taken you so long."—Chicago Tribune.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood
YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering impurities from the blood stream. But kidneys get functionally disturbed—lag in their work—fail to remove the poisonous body wastes.
Then you may suffer nagging backache, attacks of dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains; feel "all worn out."
Don't delay! For the quicker you get rid of these poisons, the better your chances of good health.
Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They tend to promote normal functioning of the kidneys; should help them pass off the irritating poisons. Doan's are recommended by users the country over. Get them from any druggist.
