NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the Department of Roads and Irrigation in the State House at Lincoln, Nebraska, on March 21, 1935, until 9:00 o'clock A. M., and at that time publicly opened and read for SAND GRAVEL SURFACING and incidental work on the Page-Brunswick Patrol No. 324 STATE ROAD.

The proposed work consists of resurfacing 12.0 miles of Graveled Road.

The approximate quantities are: 2,525 Cu. Yds. Sand Gravel Surface Course Material.

The attention of bidders is directed to the Special Provisions covering subletting or assigning the contract.

The minimum wage paid to all skilled labor employed on this contract shall be seventy-five (75) cents per hour.

The minimum wage paid to all intermediate labor employed on this contract shall be sixty (60) cents per hour.

The minimum wage paid to all unskilled labor employed on this contract shall be forty-five (45) cents per hour.

The attention of bidders is also directed to the fact that the State Director of Reemployment, Lincoln, Nebraska, will exercise general supervision over the preparation of employment lists for this work.

Plans and specifications for the work may be seen and information secured at the office of the County Clerk at O'Neill, Nebraska, at the office of the County Clerk at Neligh, Nebraska, at the office of the District Engineer of the Department of Roads and Irrigation at Norfolk, Nebraska, or at the office of the Department of Roads and Irrigation at Lincoln, Nebraska.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish bond in an amount equal to 100% of his contract.

As an evidence of good faith in submitting a proposal for this work, the bidder must file, with his proposal, a certified check made payable to the Department of Roads and Irrigation and in an amount not less than one hundred fifty (150) dollars.

The right is reserved to waive all technicalities and reject any or all bids.

Thomas Mains made a business trip to Omaha last Sunday, returning Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter at their home last Friday.

F. J. Dishner made a business trip to Omaha the latter part of last week, returning home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dauer are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter at their home on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. W. A. Summers returned last Sunday night from a three weeks visit with relatives in Omaha and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell came up from Randolph the latter part of the week and spent a few days visiting relatives and friends here.

The O'Neill High school basketball team took the Spencer High school team into camp on the Spencer floor last Tuesday evening, with a score of 26 to 12.

W. J. Froelich came out from Chicago last Saturday night and spent Sunday and Monday visiting the home folks here, returning to Chicago Monday night.

Dr. P. H. Gillespie, of Hartington, came over last Saturday and visited here with his old friend, M. R. Sullivan, until Monday morning, when he returned home.

William Martin, one of the efficient clerks of the O'Neill postoffice, who has been confined to his home for the past four weeks with a severe case of small pox, was able to be around town again Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stout entertained six couples with a dinner at the Bakery and bridge at their home after dinner, last Sunday evening, in honor of W. J. Froelich's birthday. An enjoyable time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Harmon arrived home last Friday evening, from a short wedding trip to Des Moines, Iowa. A large number of their O'Neill friends tendered them a real time charivari last Saturday evening.

Mrs. George A. Miles, Mrs. W. B. Graves and Mrs. Arthur Tibbetts returned Wednesday evening from Omaha, where they had been attending the annual convention of the Woodmen Circle, as delegates from the O'Neill lodge.

Mrs. M. F. Eveland, mother of Mrs. J. S. Ennis of this city, celebrated her 84 birthday last Sunday. She is now making her home with a son at Gordon. Mrs. Eveland has twenty-seven grandchildren and forty-four great children.

Dr. Edward S. Furry, who practiced medicine in this city in 1894-1895, right after his graduation from the Creighton Medical college, passed away at his home in Omaha Wednesday evening. He was 65 years of age at the time of his death.

Postmaster Sullivan says that he has sold about $1,000 worth of baby bonds to patrons of the O'Neill postoffice within the past week. If you have some idle money that you wish to invest ask the postmaster, or any employee of the office about the baby bonds.

Clarence Hicks and C. McClees, both of this city, purchased the Super Service oil station operated at Page for several years by Mr. and Mrs. Eby, taking possession of same last week. The many O'Neill friends of the new owners hope that they will enjoy prosperity in their business venture.

It has been a little chilly the past couple of days, following the three-inch fall of snow Tuesday night. Last night the thermometer dropped to zero. The weather moderated a good deal by noon and it looks as if this cold spell is over. The snow was quite general over the state, amounting to eight inches in several places.

W.A. Summers, of Wheeler county, was transacting business in this city last Monday and while here made this office a pleasant call, extending his subscription to this household necessity. Last year Mr. Summers sold about 500 tons of hay, from his place. This year he has had to buy hay to take care of his stock and says that he has paid out more money for hay this season than he secured for the 500 tons he sold last year.

A Linen shower was given by the O'Neill Project Club for Miss Vera Miller at the home of Mrs.

W. J. McDonough. The entertainment was sponsored by Mrs. McDonough and Mrs. T. M. Harrington. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. John Melvin, Mrs. T. M. Harrington and Mrs. H. B. Burch. After lunch Miss Vera opened her gifts and revealed many useful and beautiful articles. The evening was well spent and those present wished Miss Vera much happiness.

Alonzo Brundage, who was engaged in the barber business in this city in the early nineties, died in an Omaha hospital Wednesday afternoon, after an illness of several months. After leaving here "Lon" went to Omaha where he worked in the barber shop of the old Merchants hotel for over twenty years. Lon Brundage was a genial fellow and was always delighted to meet people from O'Neill, which he always called his "home town." He was 57 years of age at the time of his death.
